The History of Rome Thomas Keightley,1842 Legendary Rivals: Collegiality and Ambition in the Tales of Early Rome Jaclyn Neel,2014-10-23 In Legendary Rivals Jaclyn Neel argues for a new interpretation of the foundation myths of Rome Instead of a negative portrayal of the city's early history these tales offer a didactic paradigm of the correct way to engage in competition Accounts from the triumviral period stress the dysfunctional nature of the city's foundation to capture the memory of Rome's civil wars Republican evidence suggests a different emphasis Through diachronic analyses of the tales of Romulus and Remus Amulius and Numitor Brutus and Collatinus and Camillus and Manlius Capitolinus Neel shows that Romans of the Republic and early Principate would have seen these stories as examples of competition that pushed the bounds of propriety

In Search of the Trojan War Michael Wood,1998 For 3 000 years tales of Troy and its heroes Achilles and Hector Paris and the legendary beauty Helen have fired the human imagination With In Search of the Trojan War Michael Wood brings vividly to life the legend and lore of the Heroic Age in an archaeological adventure that sifts through the myths and speculation to provide a privileged view of the riches and the reality of ancient Troy This edition includes a new preface a new final chapter and an addendum to the bibliography that take account of dramatic new developments in the search for Troy with the rediscovery in Moscow of the so called Jewels of Helen and the re excavation of the site of Troy which began in 1988 and is yielding new evidence about the historical city
