to this Balkan country in return for substantial reforms which its rulers now refuse to carry out This book unmasks the failure of the EU to match its visionary promises of transforming Romania with the shabby reality Benefiting from access to internal reports and leading figures involved in a decade of negotiations it shows how Eurocrats were outwitted by unscrupulous local politicians who turned the EU's multi level decision making processes into a laughing stock The EU's famous soft power turned out to be a mirage as it was unable to summon up the willpower to insist that this key Balkan state embraced its standards of behaviour in the political and economic realms The book unravels policy failures in the areas of justice administrative and agricultural reform and shows how Romania moved backwards politically during the years of negotiations

Lessons from the Economic Transition Salvatore Zecchini, 2013-12-01 An attentive reader embarking on this book might wonder what the economic transition to which the title refers might be In this century almost all countries have gone through periods of economic transition but which period of economic history can claim to embody the notion or to represent the era of the transition Definitely no country or group of countries has experienced anything comparable to the economic upheavals that the fall of communism has brought about in a large portion of the world in just three years 1989 to 1991 No other transition to date has prompted more interest and more studies among economists academics and policy makers than has the transformation of centrally planned economies into market based systems It is this transformation that has come to define the transition Early in the transformation process in November 1990 with the support of the Centre for Co operation with the Economies in Transition CCET I launched a conference to examine the challenges faced by these countries About six years have gone by and a new economic landscape has emerged in that part of the world The difficulties in transforming these economies have exceeded all expectations and economic performances have varied considerably across countries The time has come therefore to make a first evaluation of progress and problems with a view to extracting useful policy lessons to guide policy makers in successfully completing the transition in the near future
