South Asian British Muslim today What are the experiences of South Asian Muslim parents bringing up their children in contemporary Britain Identity and Upbringing in South Asian Muslim Families explores these questions within the context of the series of events which from 9 11 to the recent upsurge of the Islamic State have affected the perceptions and the identity of Muslims around the world Franceschelli reveals the complex range of negotiations behind the coming of age of South Asian Muslim teenagers and reflects on the changes and continuities between their life experiences priorities and aspirations compared to their parents generation Based on primary research with South Asian Muslim young people and parents this book highlights the importance of Islam to upbringing the shifting value of South Asian cultural norms in Britain and the persistent influence of class in shaping inequalities amongst families and on young people s experiences of growing up

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Emotion John Corrigan, 2008-01-02 The academic study of religion recently has turned to the investigation of emotion as a crucial aspect of religious life Researchers have set out in several directions to explore that new terrain and have brought with them an assortment of instruments useful in charting it This volume collects essays under four categories religious traditions religious life emotional states and historical and theoretical perspectives In this book scholars engaged in cutting edge research on religion and emotion describe the ways in which emotions have played a role in Buddhism Christianity Judaism Islam and other religions They analyze the manner in which key components of religious life ritual music gender sexuality and material culture represent and shape emotional performance Some of the essays included here take a specific emotion such as love or hatred and observe the place of that emotion in an assortment of religious traditions and cultural settings Other essays analyze the thinking of figures such as St Augustine Soren Kierkegaard Jonathan Edwards Emile Durkheim and William James This collection offers a range of critical perspectives on the academic study of religion and emotion in the form of syntheses provocations and prospective observations that will inform the work of those already engaged in the field Taken together the writings included in this handbook serve as an ideal entry point for anyone wishing to familiarize themselves with the new academic study of religion and emotion Islamic Homosexualities

Stephen O. Murray, Will Roscoe, 1997-02 The first anthropological collection that reveals patterns of male and female homosexuality in the Muslim World The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called

Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances Islamic Homosexualities Will Roscoe, Stephen O. Murray, 1997-02-01

The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances The Revival of Islam in the Balkans Olivier Roy, Arolda Elbasani, 2015-07-28 This book shifts analytical focus from macro politicization and securitization of Islam to Muslims choices practices and public expressions of faith An empirically rich analysis the book provides rich cross country evidence on the emergence of autonomous faith communities as well as the evolution of Islam in the broader European context Religious and Sexual Identities Andrew Kam-Tuck Yip, Sarah-Jane Page, 2016-04-08 Presenting qualitative and quantitative findings on the lived experiences of around seven hundred young adults from Christian Muslim Jewish Hindu Buddhist Sikh and mixed faith backgrounds Religious and Sexual Identities provides an illuminating and nuanced analysis of young adults perceptions and negotiations of their religious sexual youth and gender identities It demonstrates how these young adults creatively construct meanings and social connections as they navigate demanding but exciting spaces in which their multiple identities intersect Accessible quantitative analyses are combined with rich interview and video diary narratives in this theoretically informed exploration of religious and sexual identities in contemporary society A timely investigation revealing the multiplicity of contemporary identities this book will appeal not only to sociologists and scholars of religion but also to those working in the fields of youth studies sexuality gender and identity The Oxford Handbook of Theology, Sexuality, and Gender Adrian

Thatcher, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Theology Sexuality and Gender presents an unrivalled overview of the theological study of sexuality and gender These topics are not merely contentious and pervasive they have escalated in importance within theology Theologians increasingly agree that even the very doctrine of God cannot be contemplated without a prior grappling with each Featuring 41 newly commissioned essays written by some of the foremost scholars in the discipline this authoritative collection presents and develops the latest thinking in these areas Divided into eight thematic sections the Handbook explores methodological approaches contributions from neighbouring disciplines sexuality and gender in the Bible and in the Christian tradition controversies within the churches and within four of the non Christian faiths and key concepts and issues The final extended section considers theology in relation to married people and families gay and lesbian people bisexual people intersex and transgender people disabled people and to friends This volume is an essential reference for students and scholars which will also stimulate further research

Arabic Literature in the Post-Classical Period Roger Allen, D. S. Richards, 2006-04-13 The final volume of the series explores the Arabic literary heritage of the little known period from the twelfth to the beginning of the nineteenth century Even though it was during this time that the famous Thousand and One Nights was composed very little has been written on the literature of the period generally and Roger Allen and Donald Richards bring together some of the most distinguished scholars in the field The volume is divided into parts with the traditions of poetry and prose covered separately within both their elite and popular contexts The last two sections are devoted to drama and the indigenous tradition of literary criticism

Sacred and Secular: Exploring the Evolution of Love through Catholic Teachings Fr. Wilson A. Jerusalem, 2024-05-26 Sacred and Secular Exploring the Evolution of Love through Catholic Teachings delves deeply into the intricate tapestry of love across centuries examining its transformation through the lens of Catholicism In this comprehensive exploration the author meticulously traces the trajectory of love from its foundational roots in ancient scriptures to its contemporary manifestations in the modern world The book embarks on its journey by elucidating the foundational elements of love within the Catholic tradition It meticulously dissects biblical perspectives on love scrutinizing key passages from both the Old and New Testaments Furthermore it delves into the teachings of early Church Fathers such as Augustine and Jerome illuminating their profound insights into the nature of love and its role within early Christian communities A significant portion of the book is devoted to the exploration of love within the framework of Canon Law It elucidates the canonical views on love and marriage emphasizing the sacramental nature of marriage and the intricate regulations governing love within the Catholic Church Additionally it meticulously traces the evolution of Canon Law pertaining to love highlighting the historical shifts and cultural influences that have shaped canonical interpretations over time The narrative seamlessly transitions to an analysis of Catholic documents on love particularly focusing on papal encyclicals and Vatican II documents Through a meticulous examination of key encyclicals such as Deus Caritas Est and Amoris Laetitia the book unveils the rich tapestry of papal teachings on various aspects of love ranging from eros to agape Furthermore it explores Vatican II documents such as Gaudium et Spes shedding light on the Church's stance on love within the context of human rights and dignity In its exploration of contemporary Catholic thought the book engages with the perspectives of influential theologians such as Hans Urs von Balthasar and Karl Rahner It analyzes their works offering insights into contemporary interpretations of love within the Catholic tradition Moreover it addresses the challenges and opportunities for love in the modern world examining societal trends and discussing how Catholic teachings respond to contemporary challenges Ultimately Sacred and Secular Exploring the Evolution of Love through Catholic Teachings culminates in a reflective conclusion where the author encapsulates the key insights gleaned from the exploration Through its comprehensive analysis the book not only provides a nuanced understanding of the transformations of love across centuries but also underscores the enduring relevance of Catholic teachings on love in both sacred and secular contexts

Role Model and Countermodel Carsten Schapkow, 2015-12-09 This book explores the Golden Age of Sephardic Jewry on the Iberian Peninsula and its perception in German Jewish culture during the era of emancipation For Jews living in Germany the history of Sephardic Jewry developed into a historical example with its distinctive valence and signature against the pressure to assimilate and the emergence of anti-Semitism in Germany It provided moreover a forum to engage in internal dialogue amongst Jews and external dialogue with German majority society about challenging questions of religious political and national identity In this respect the perception of prominent Sephardic Jews as intercultural mediators was key to emphasizing the skills and values Jews had to offer to civilizations in the past German Jews invoked this past significance in their case for a Jewish role in present and future societies especially in Germany Arab-Islamic Education Systems in the Experience of Migrants and Refugees in Europe Sara Mazzei, 2025-03-15 In the last decade Europe has welcomed numerous migrants and refugees from Arab countries Their scholastic inclusion has been challenging and the teaching staff had to sometimes deal with unfamiliar realities The issue has been addressed by various perspectives from sociology to psychology insights from which are gathered in intercultural education In it there are scarcity of studies that delve into pupils cultural backgrounds and countries of origin's history is seldom regarded as a decisive factor in the formation of identity Among Arabic speaking communities the Moroccan and Syrian ones are the most significant and Morocco and Syria have interesting histories and education systems Using Nussbaum's 2010 multifactorial analysis this research aims to better understand the educational universe where Arabic speaking pupils come from focusing on humanities and religious education in the experience of pupils especially from Morocco and Syria Methodology comprehends qualitative empirical research conducted in Europe Results show the differences experienced by pupils in their educational paths among diverse Arab and European countries and the more sensitive topics they encounter in their education in Europe in relation to their identity Everyday Arab Identity Christopher Phillips, 2013 Whether through government propaganda or popular transnational satellite television channels Arab citizens encounter a discourse that reinforces a sense of belonging to their own state and a broader

Arab world on a daily basis Looking through the lens of nationalism theory this book examines how and why Arab identity continues to be reproduced in today's Middle East and how that Arab identity interacts with strengthening ties to religion and the state Drawing on case studies of two ideologically different Arab regimes Syria and Jordan Christopher Phillips explores both the implications this everyday Arab identity will have on western policy towards the Middle East and its real life impact on international relations Offering an original perspective on this topical issue this book will be of interest to academics and practitioners working on the Arab world and political affairs as well as students of International Relations Political Science and the Middle East notably Syria and Jordan and policymakers in the region Mapping the Self Alex Goody, Anna Hewitt, Nissa Parmar, 2015-10-05 As the title indicates three themes of perpetual interest in contemporary cultural studies place identity and nationality converge in this critical essay collection While proffering varied and sometimes clashing arguments concerning the title themes the essays and their authors all assert the importance of the creative text in defining contesting and understanding place identity and nationality in the modern and contemporary globalised world The critical frameworks of these essays grow out of the groundbreaking literary and cultural studies theory of the past two decades However several of the essays map hitherto uncharted territory by engaging with recent works from emerging authors and a director and providing new insight into the work of established authors Beyond mapping new academic terrain the collection is further distinguished by its global perspective with texts and authors from around the world which come together in a unique multinational dialogue The collection is divided into three sections The first Women Writers and Nationalism includes essays on Gertrude Stein Adrienne Rich Jo Shapcott and Leila Aboulela The second National Identity and Contemporary Fictions examines the role of contemporary fiction in establishing the respective national identities and histories of Wales and Australia The third Transnational Identities analyses Partition literature migrant women's literature of France and Spain and film director Shane Meadows take on new forms of nationalism From India Africa Europe Australia and the United States the texts and essays crisscross the globe exploring the relationships between nationality and identity through film memoir poetry and the novel Some examine national literatures and identities others focus on the struggle of the individual particularly the migrant individual to define his or her identity within a multicultural multinational framework Together the essays register both collective and individual responses to nationality and illustrate new forms of nationalism and identity in the modern and contemporary world The Routledge Handbook of Global Islam and Consumer Culture Birgit Krawietz, François Gauthier, 2024-09-16 The Routledge Handbook of Global Islam and Consumer Culture is an outstanding inter and transdisciplinary reference source to key topics problems and debates in this challenging research field The study of Islam is enriched by investigating religion and notably Islamic normativity fiqh as a resource for product design attitudes toward commodification and appropriated patterns of behavior Comprising 35 chapters including an extended Introduction by a team of international contributors from chairholders to advanced graduate students the handbook is divided into seven parts Guiding Frameworks of Understanding Historical Probes Urbanism and Consumption Body Manipulation Vestimentary Regimes and Gender Mediated Religion and Culture Consumer Culture Lifestyle and Senses of the Self through Consumption Markets These sections examine vibrant debates around consumption frugality Islamic jurisprudence and fatwas in the world economy capitalism neoliberalism trade relations halalization labor tourism and travel infrastructure body modification fashion self fashioning lifestylization Islamic kitsch urban regeneration heritage Islamic finance the internet and Quran recitation versus music Contributions present selected case studies from countries across the world including China Indonesia Malaysia Morocco Nigeria Qatar Pakistan and Turkey The handbook is essential reading for students and researchers in Islamic studies Near and Middle Eastern studies religious studies and cultural studies The handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as politics area studies sociology anthropology and history Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Sensibilities of the Islamic Mediterranean Robin Ostle, 2008-07-30 From the mountains of Lebanon to the shores of Turkey and North Africa the Islamic Mediterranean has always been a dynamic cultural hub where the stories and passions of East and West collide In a sweeping survey spanning the first Arabic edition of the Thousand and One Nights to the novels of the 20th century Robin Ostle pours through centuries of books art and architecture to reveal what they tell us about the changing relationship between individual and society in this distinctive culture In pre modern literature individuality was expressed through a series of comic subversions which through their resolution ultimately strengthened the social status quo The great 19th century travelogues represented a more transgressive exploration of the boundaries of the self This theme was continued in the cultural forms of the 20th century with their emphasis on self expression and emotional liberation something increasingly defined in opposition to the state Sensibilities of the Islamic Mediterranean unravels the emotions ideas and power relationships which make up the cultural fabric of this fascinating region

Waves Dr. Sarveen Kaur Sachdeva, 2022-08-22 In the novels the diverse worldviews and impulsive behavior of the protagonists were tested Topics were raised and touched upon in the roles played The importance of theories helped to understand their roles and their development at different stages The youth today are far superior they don't think they're too young to be pampered and they don't have to be old enough to take responsibility The main problem was the space for conversation between them and their parents who in their opinion were not able to decide whether their decision is personal or social and do not even force adolescents to take responsibility During this time the most common difficulty someone faces in life is peer pressure Even their elders repeatedly told them about right and wrong experiences but they deliberately ignored them The problems that all the main characters faced and suffered played a big role in its development Thus children always need proper guidance and support which can never be given to them by instilling fear in them Adolescence is the age at which theories of theorists are used and implied Young people are involved in various illegal activities such as terrorism begging drug delivery and drug use All they need is proper guidance care and love from parents and teachers Through the implied versions of learning and the phases of the child protagonist included with the feeling of sin redemption guilt inequality anguish fear and in the end of the novels the protagonist felt with the feelings of optimism and to grow for the betterment in the lives
