Romanticism Points Of View Prentice Hall English Literature Series:

Romanticism Robert F. Gleckner,1975 Miscellaneous Studies in English Literature Faisal Al-Doorri,2020-07-16

This book is a collection of selected papers which have been delivered at numerous international conferences They are classified into two main categories poetry and prose The first section deals with poetry of the Pre Romantic Romantic modern and contemporary eras while the section on prose concerns the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,2023-11-15 Narrative Exchanges (Routledge Revivals) Ian Reid,2014-08-13

First published in 1992 Narrative Exchanges shows how a general model of communicative exchanges can be refined to deal with the complexities of narrative fiction Going beyond the two way structure of reciprocity it gives particular attention to the processes of framing substitution and dispossession by which written texts generate meaning The title provides an innovative way of combining narrative and exchange theory bringing the two areas of thought into a mutually critical relationship Using a wide variety of narrative texts literary and non literary canonical and non canonical authors discussed include Flaubert Achebe Mansfield Boccaccio Duras Daudet Moorhouse DeLillo and Wordsworth Drawing on perspectives from anthropology linguistics and education and combining accessible readings with theoretical debate Ian Reid makes a significant contribution to the debate about narrative theory Exiled Royalties Robert Milder,2006-01-05

Exiled Royalties is a literary biographical study of the course of Melville s career from his experience in Polynesia through his retirement from the New York Custom House and his composition of three late volumes of poetry and Billy Budd Sailor Conceived separately but narratively and thematically intertwined the ten essays in the book are rooted in a belief that Melville s work as Charles Olson said must be left in his own life which for Milder means primarily his spiritual psychological and vocational life Four of the ten essays deal with Melville s life and work after his novelistic career ended with the The Confidence Man in 1857 The range of issues addressed in the essays includes Melville s attitudes toward society history and politics from broad ideas about democracy and the course of Western civilization to responses to particular events like the Astor Place Riots and the Civil War his feeling about sexuality and throughout the book about religion his relationship to past and present writers especially to the phases of Euro American Romanticism post Romanticism and nascent Modernism his relationship to his wife Lizzie to Hawthorne and to his father all of whom figured in the crisis that made for Pierre The title essay Exiled Royalties takes its origin from Ishmael s account of the larger darker deeper part of Ahab Melville s mythic projection of a larger darker deeper part of himself How to live nobly in spiritual exile to be godlike in the perceptible absence of God was a lifelong preoccupation for Melville who in lieu of positive belief transposed the drama of his spiritual life to literature The ways in which this impulse expressed itself through Melville s forty five year career interweaving itself with his personal life and the life of the nation and shaping both the matter and manner of his work is the unifying subject of Exiled Royalties

English Literature and the Critics James Hogg, 1974 Romantic Generations Robert F. Gleckner, 2001 These essays express a common belief that the study of Romantic literature must be at once professionally serious and personally engaging Topics discussed range from Wordsworth to Lady Caroline Lamb and from Blake and Burke to the contemporary Irish poet Paul Muldoon Each essay also offers close readings of essential works on English and Irish Romanticism Introducing the collection is a tribute by the celebrated Romanticist Peter Manning Books in Series, 1980 The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 5, Romanticism George Alexander Kennedy, 1989 The history of the most hotly debated areas of literary theory including structuralism and deconstruction The Moon's Dominion Gavriel Reisner, 1981 Posits a causal relationship between two themes in Lawrence's fiction usually thought to be unrelated the dominance of women and the conflict between the tale and the teller The connection is revealed in the course of a systematic analysis of the tale teller division in Lawrence's earlier novels Knowledge and Indifference in English Romantic Prose Tim Milnes, 2003-02-27 This 2003 study sheds light on the way in which the English Romantics dealt with the basic problems of knowledge particularly as they inherited them from the philosopher David Hume Kant complained that the failure of philosophy in the eighteenth century to answer empirical scepticism had produced a culture of indifferentism Tim Milnes explores the way in which Romantic writers extended this epistemic indifference through their resistance to argumentation and finds that it exists in a perpetual state of tension with a compulsion to know This tension is most clearly evident in the prose writing of the period in works such as Wordsworth's Preface to Lyrical Ballads Hazlitt's Essay on the Principles of Human Action and Coleridge's Biographia Literaria Milnes argues that it is in their oscillation between knowledge and indifference that the Romantics prefigure the ambivalent negotiations of modern post analytic philosophy Basic Books for Junior College Libraries Charles L. Trinkner, 1963 Romantic Imperialism Saree Makdisi, 1998-04-16 The years between 1790 and 1830 saw over a hundred and fifty million people brought under British imperial control and one of the most momentous outbursts of British literary and artistic production announcing a new world of social and individual traumas and possibilities This book traces the emergence of new forms of imperialism and capitalism as part of a culture of modernisation in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century and looks at the ways in which they were identified with and contested in Romanticism Saree Makdisi argues that this process has to be understood in global terms beyond the British and European viewpoint and that developments in India Africa and the Arab world up to and including our own time enable us to understand more fully the texts and contexts of British Romanticism New and original readings of texts by Wordsworth Blake Byron Shelley and Scott emerge in the course of this searching analysis of the cultural process of globalisation Choice Outstanding Academic Book of 1998 Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1979 National Union Catalog, 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1976 English Literature Advancing Through History 5 - The Romantic Period Petru

Golban,2024-11-26 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov s line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism Focusing on literary practice applying critical theory and emerging from within our own teaching experience the books in the present series are theoretical and surveyistic like a monograph whereas their more practical and text oriented aspect should appeal as a student handbook for didactic purposes in which certain literary works belonging to various writers of different trends movements and periods are analysed and compared with regard to their source form thematic arrangements ideas motifs character representation strategies intertextual perspectives structural or narrative techniques and other aspects Creative Writing ,1962 The Best Books for Academic Libraries ,2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers
