Romantic Ecologies and Colonial Cultures in the British Atlantic World, 1770-1850 Kevin Douglas Hutchings, 2009 Afro British writer and abolitionist Ignatius Sancho railed against the abuse of domestic animals in the eighteenth century London marketplace Samuel Taylor Coleridge attacked the institution of slavery by writing a poem about animal rights William Blake's allegorical depiction of American colonialism was as an act of sexual and ecological violence By addressing these and other instances the author highlights significant intersections between green romanticism and colonial politics demonstrating how contemporary understandings of animality climate and habitat informed literary and cross cultural debates about race slavery colonialism and nature in the British Atlantic world Romantic Literature and Postcolonial Studies Elizabeth A Bohls, 2013-01-22 This book examines the relationship between Romantic writing and the rapidly expanding British Empire

Romanticism and Aesthetic Life in Postcolonial Writing Philip Dickinson, 2018-02-08 This book explores Romanticism as a force that exerts an insistent but critically neglected pressure on the postcolonial imagination From the decolonizing poetics of the Caribbean to the white writing of South Africa from the aesthetics of post imperial disappointment to postcolonial theory itself it develops an account of the textual and philosophical interpenetration of postcolonial aesthetics with Romantic ideas about sense history and world What emerges is a reading of Romantic postcolonial co involvement that moves beyond well worn models of intercanonical antagonism and the historicizing biases of conventional literary history Caught somewhere between the effects of reanimation and estrangement Romanticism appears here not as a stable textual repository prior to the postcolonial but as echo spectre self interruption or vital force that can yet only emerge in the guise of the afterlife its agency mediated but never exhausted by postcolonial writing

Key Concepts in Romantic Literature

Jane Moore, John Strachan, 2010-09-10 Key Concepts in Romantic Literature is an accessible and easy to use scholarly guide to the literature criticism and history of the culturally rich and politically turbulent Romantic era 1789-1832. The book offers a comprehensive and critically up to date account of the fascinating poetry, novels and drama which characterized the Romantic period alongside an historically informed account of the important social, political and aesthetic contexts which shaped that body of writing. The epochal poetry of William Wordsworth, William Blake, Mary Robinson, S. T. Coleridge, Charlotte Smith, P. B. Shelley, Lord Byron, John Keats, Felicia Hemans and Letitia Elizabeth Landon, the drama of Joanna Baillie and Charles Robert Maturin, the novels of Jane Austen and Mary Shelley, all of these figures and many more are insightfully discussed here together with clear and helpful accounts of the key contexts of the age's literature, including the French Revolution, slavery, industrialisation, empire and the rise of feminism, as well as accounts of perhaps less familiar aspects of late Georgian culture such as visionary spirituality, atheism, gambling, fashion, music and sport. This is the broadest guide available to late eighteenth and early nineteenth century British and Irish literature, history and culture. Percy Shelley For Our
