The Kierkegaardian Author Joseph Westfall,2009-02-26 This study engages in a detailed examination of Kierkegaard's works of literary and dramatic criticism including those works directed at interpreting Kierkegaard's own authorship with a specific concern for both what Kierkegaard and Kierkegaard's anonyms and pseudonyms write about the nature and practice of authorship as well as how the Kierkegaardian authors practice authorship themselves Moving through five chapters each devoted to one or more works of Kierkegaard's criticism the study develops a new approach to reading Kierkegaard a new Kierkegaardian hermeneutic that begins always with the character of the author This new approach avoids the challenges of critics of biographical criticism such as Roland Barthes Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida by positing the author always as a work of fiction him or herself the creation of an unknown and ever anonymous author of the author

Architectural Possibilities in the Work of Eisenman Michael Jasper, 2022-11-11 This book examines the central decades of Peter Eisenman's work through a formal and thematic analysis of key architectural projects and writings revealing underlying characteristics and arguing for their productive continuity and transformative role. The book explores Eisenman's approach to architectural form generation and thinking. It does this through a thematic and formal analysis of projects and writings from the mid 1970s to the mid 1990s. Following an introductory chapter addressing the theme of potentialities, the book is organised in two parts. The first part focuses on key period writings of Eisenman framing the close reading around a practice of resistance, the architect's approach to history as analysis and the transformative conceptualisation of time. In the second part, the book undertakes an analysis of select projects from the 1980s and 1990s. Three formal preoccupations and conceptual orientations ground manipulations, figuration and spatial events. This part of the book provides previously unpublished material from the Peter Eisenman fonds, Canadian Centre for Architecture, Montréal, and provides primary source material. A concluding chapter addresses Eisenman's teaching, its relation to his larger project and possible legacies for educators, practitioners, scholars and theorists.
