A 20th century Cinderella, or £20,000 reward William Young Winthrop, 1902 Literary Rooms Katharina Christ-Pielensticker, 2021-03-26. The four prose texts discussed in Literary Rooms position themselves in a literary tradition which highlights the manifold purposes the private room may serve: it is a mirror of the inhabitant, a context in which to position the self, a place of and motor for identity quests, a rich metaphor and a second skin around the inhabitant's physical body. Even in times of increasing globalization and urbanization, the room continues to root the inhabitant; it serves as a retreat from the world and as a place in which to renegotiate questions of belonging, gender, class, and ethnicity. At the same time, the room is inevitably porous and constantly oscillates between inclusion and exclusion. The literary texts examined in this book are each highly fragmented and gesture towards a fragmentation of the contemporary world out of which they have grown, as well as towards an abundance of fragmented self-images. Linking the approaches of narratology, globalization, and spatial criticism, Literary Rooms argues that in order to account for the spatial properties of the room, discourses developed during the spatial turn need to be extended and reevaluated. Richard Halliburton's Second Book of Marvels Richard Halliburton, 1938 Lutheran Companion, 1913 House & Garden, 1915 Life on the Hyphen Gustavo Pérez

Firmat, 2012-05-01. An expanded, updated edition of the classic study of Cuban American culture, this engaging book which mixes the author's own story with his reflections as a trained observer, explores how both famous and ordinary members of the 1.5 Generation Cubans who came to the United States as children or teens have lived life on the hyphen: neither fully Cuban nor fully American, but a fertile hybrid of both. Offering an in-depth look at Cuban Americans who have become icons of popular and literary culture, including Desi Arnaz, Oscar Hijuelos, musician Pérez Prado, and crossover pop star Gloria Estefan, as well as poets Jos Kozar and Orlando González Esteva, performers Willy Chirino and Carlos Oliva, painter Humberto Calzada, and others, Gustavo Pérez Firmat chronicles what it means to be Cuban in America. The first edition of Life on the Hyphen won the Eugene M. Kayden National University Press Book Award and received honorable mentions for the Modern Language Association's Katherine Singer Kovacs Prize and the Latin American Studies Association's Bryce Wood Book Award.
