Rooted in History Mike Calnan, Katie Fretwell, 2006 Rooted in History National Trust (Great Britain), 2001 This is a guide for those involved in the conservation of gardens whether private individuals or professionals It includes case studies of major projects Journal of the New England Garden History Society, 2003 The Making of the English Gardener Margaret Willes, 2011-08-30 The people and publications at the root of a national obsession Selected Papers from the 6th Fábos Conference on Landscape and Greenway Planning Richard C. Smardon, 2021-06-03 This book contains five research articles and one review article derived from the 6th Fabos Conference on Greenway Planning held at the University of Massachusetts Amherst in April of 2019 Specific topics covered include greenway planning and analysis for urban morphology typology climate change impact and recreational and health usage in addition to historic greenway restoration All the articles illustrate multidisciplinary approaches for analyzing urban greenway functions within expanding and contracting cities Conservation's Roots Abigail P. Dowling, Richard Keyser, 2020-06-11 The ideas and practices that comprise conservation are often assumed to have arisen within the last two centuries However while conservation today has been undeniably entwined with processes of modernity its historical roots run much deeper Considering a variety of preindustrial European settings this book assembles case studies from the medieval and early modern eras to demonstrate that practices like those advocated by modern conservationists were far more widespread and intentional than is widely acknowledged As the first book length treatment of the subject Conservation's Roots provides broad social historical and environmental context for the emergence of the nineteenth century conservation movement Architectural Heritage, 2006 The Garden, 2003 The Hardy Plant, 2002 News Garden History Society (Great Britain), 2002 The Challenges of Long Term Ecological Research: A Historical Analysis Robert B. Waide, Sharon E. Kingsland, 2021-04-07 This volume explores the challenges of sustaining long term ecological research through a historical analysis of the Long Term Ecological Research Program created by the U S National Science Foundation in 1980 The book examines reasons for the creation of the Program an overview of its 40 year history and in depth historical analysis of selected sites Themes explored include the broader impact of this program on society including its relevance to environmental policy and understanding global climate change the challenge of extending ecosystem ecology into urban environments and links to creative arts and humanities projects A major theme is the evolution of a new type of network science involving comparative studies innovation in information management creation of socio ecological frameworks development of governance structures and formation of an International Long Term Ecological Research Network with worldwide reach The book's themes will interest historians philosophers and social scientists interested in ecological and environmental sciences as well as researchers across many disciplines who are involved in long term ecological research Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 Year Book International Dendrology

Society,2001 The Routledge Handbook of Landscape Architecture Education Diedrich Bruns,Stefanie Hennecke,2022-11-15 In this handbook 60 authors senior and junior educators and researchers from six continents provide an overview of 200 years of landscape architectural education They tell the stories of schools and people of visions and of experiments that constitute landscape architecture education heritage Through taking an international perspective the handbook centers inclusivity with an appreciation for how education develops in different political and societal contexts Part I introduces the field of education history research including research approaches and international research exchange Spanning more than 100 years Parts II and III investigate and compare early and recent histories of landscape architecture education in different countries and schools In Part IV the book offers new perspectives for landscape architecture education Education research presents a substantial opportunity for challenging studies to increase the pedagogic and didactic the academic and historic and the disciplinary knowledge basis Through a boundary crossing approach these studies about landscape architecture education provide a reference to teachers and students policymakers and administrators who strive for innovative holistic and interdisciplinary practice Garden Tourism Richard Benfield,2013 Garden visitation has been a tourism motivator for many years and can now be enjoyed in many different forms Private garden visiting historical garden tourism urban gardens and a myriad of festivals shows and events all allow the green fingered enthusiast to appreciate the natural world This book traces the history of garden visitation and examines tourist motivations to visit gardens Useful for garden managers and tourism students as well as casual readers it also examines management and marketing of gardens for tourism purposes before concluding with a detailed look at the form and tourism based role of gardens in the future

Garden Learning Suzanne Kapelari,2015-12-14 From 2007 2013 the European 7th Framework Program Science in Society FP7 funded a multitude of formal and informal educational institutions to join forces and engage in alternative ways to teach science inside and outside the classroom all over Europe This book reports on one of these projects named INQUIRE which was developed and implemented to support 14 Botanic Gardens and Natural History Museums in 11 European countries to establish a collaborative learning network and expand their understanding of inquiry based science teaching IBST Suzanne Kapelari provides insight into the complex theoretical background and practical considerations that informed the project design and which guided the consortium through a three year process of collaborative knowledge creation Expansive Learning Theory is fundamental to this approach and places emphasis on communities as learners on transformation and creation of culture on horizontal movement and hybridization of knowledge and on the formation of theoretical concepts This book is to be considered for planning and running international science education projects as well as a multifaceted theoretical underpinning of teaching It serves as a conceptual and practical resource for formal and informal science educators and project managers A Guide for Laboratory and Field Studies in Botany William Gould Vinal,1911 Roots of Power Michael Sheridan,2023-04-21 Roots of Power tells five stories of plants people property

politics peace and protection in tropical societies In Cameroon French Polynesia Papua New Guinea St Vincent and Tanzania dracaena and cordyline plants are simultaneously property rights institutions markers of social organization and expressions of life force and vitality In addition to their localized roles in forming landscapes and societies these plants mark multiple boundaries and demonstrate deep historical connections across much of the planet s tropics These plants deep roots in society and culture have made them the routes through which postcolonial agrarian societies have negotiated both social and cultural continuity and change This book is a multi sited ethnographic political ecology of ethnobotanical institutions It uses five parallel case studies to investigate the central phenomenon of boundary plants and establish the linkages among the case studies via both ancient and relatively recent demographic transformations such as the Bantu expansion across tropical Africa the Austronesian expansion into the Pacific and the colonial system of plantation slavery in the Black Atlantic Each case study is a social ecological system with distinctive characteristics stemming from the ways that power is organized by kinship and gender social ranking or racialized capitalism This book contributes to the literature on property rights institutions and land management by arguing that tropical boundary plants social entanglements and cultural legitimacy make them effective foundations for development policy Formal recognition of these institutions could reduce contradiction conflict and ambiguity between resource managers and states in postcolonial societies and contribute to sustainable livelihoods and landscapes This book will appeal to scholars and students of environmental anthropology political ecology ethnobotany landscape studies colonial history and development studies and readers will benefit from its demonstration of the comparative method

Ecotourism and Environmental Sustainability Tim Gale, 2016-04-29 This book offers conceptual and practical insights into the complex interactions between ecotourism and the natural environment with consideration given to government policy marketing by suppliers consumer behaviour and visitor environmental management Illustrated by international case studies the roles of and interplay between tour operators their clients resource managers and local communities are examined This creates a comprehensive and insightful overview of the factors that work for and against the achievement of environmental sustainability in and through ecotourism The result is a critical examination of ecotourism and environmental sustainability that highlights ideas for best practice and proposes new directions for future research
