Rosa's Animals Maryann Macdonald,2018-06-05 Painter and sculptor Rosa Bonheur 1822-1899 led a highly nontraditional life especially for a woman in the nineteenth century She kept lions as pets was awarded the Legion of

Honor by Empress Eugénie and befriended Buffalo Bill Cody She became a painter at a time when women were often only reluctantly educated as artists Her unconventional artistic work habits including visiting slaughterhouses to sketch an animal's anatomy and wearing men's clothing to gain access to places like a horse fair where women were not allowed helped her become one of the most beloved female painters of her time Among the artworks discussed are The Horse Fair and Ploughing in the Nivernais Along with her life story are a list of museums that house her work a bibliography and an index that floats free from facts to link avowal and feeling From there this volume merges autobiography studies with a history of ideas approach to art to trace sincerity's constancy and variability across times and cultures Through this pre disciplinary dialogue this book shows that recent and historical artists autobiographies differ in how not if they intertwine sincerity in life and art Along the way this volume leverages the foregrounding of sincerity caused by this doubling to explore such key issues of autobiography studies as autobiography's relation to fiction serial autobiography as told to narrative and what happens when liars claim to tell all
