is an enchanting midlife meditation on aging identity and memory set against the backdrop of Chanticleer garden in Pennsylvania On the morning of her forty first birthday Kephart a mother a wife and a writer pressured by deadlines finds herself at Chanticleer one of the world's most celebrated pleasure gardens She knows little of the language of flowers She cannot name the birds in the trees She is a stranger among the gardeners and the people passing by And yet she understands that she has somehow found her way to a place that can teach her about life and growth about the past and the future Week after week she returns to Chanticleer recalling her childhood self mulling over legacy and soul striking up friendships with gardeners and conversations with other visitors Succored by the seasons and the weather she finds the grace in approaching middle age There are lessons in seeds and she finds them There are lessons in letting go Kephart writes about questions we all ask ourselves How do we remember who we used to be How do we imagine who we ll become Have we lived our lives as we set out to What legacies do we wish to leave behind The book spans a two year cycle and each chapter is accompanied by a gorgeous black and white photograph of Chanticleer by William Sulit Ghosts in the Garden pulses with possibility and purpose with wisdom that is ageless and transcendent Chaos, Wonder the Spiritual Adventure of Parenting Sarah Conover, Tracy Springberry, 2011 Rev ed previously published under title At work in life s garden Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L.
