compellingly written The Gift of Consciousness is an engaging and approachable overview of Patanjali's Yoga Sutras through the prism of both Eastern and Western psychology. Grounded in a thorough knowledge of the Sanskrit original and training in psychology, Gitte Bechsgaard opens out these complex texts to the general reading public. Bechsgaard's clear-eyed approach makes this ancient text relevant to anyone interested in Yoga philosophy and practice. This book Longing for Community David Greenlee, 2013-04-25 Church Immah or Somewhere in Between Understanding the strength and unity of the ummah, the worldwide Muslim community and its role in an individual's identity is essential in comprehending the struggles that Muslims undergo as they turn to faith in Jesus Christ. It has been a place of security, acceptance, protection, and identity, turning away from it entails great sacrifice. Where then will Muslims who choose to follow Jesus find their longing for community fulfilled: ummah, church, or somewhere in between? Longing for Community compiles the research and reflection of twenty missiologists, sociologists, anthropologists, and linguists among them Muslims who have become believers in Jesus Christ presented at the second Coming to Faith Consultation in February 2010. The contributors explore multiple levels and hybrid nature of social identity, pointing to the need to free our discussions from single-dimensional scales which are far from adequate to describe the complex nature of conversion and lived-out faith. Beyond the issue of identity, the contributors offer important lessons from mission history, explore liturgy as an appropriate vehicle for teaching, discuss appropriate means of communication, and point to both the need and contextually appropriate possibilities of greater involvement of women in training and ministry. The Seeking Heart Ian Mobsby, 2025-01-28 In the contemporary church, the word mission has become synonymous with pace, expansion, and results. Yet such an approach can often leave those with responsibilities in mission or ministry feeling exhausted and overwhelmed. Not only that, but mission which focuses on the rapid and the growing fails to recognise the rich resources the more contemplative Christian traditions can offer our post-secular society and especially those who would call themselves spiritual but not religious.

So You're a Spiritual Being—Now What? Manisha Melwani, 2019-08-12 Do you consider yourself spiritual rather than religious? Are you craving clarity for your path and purpose? Would you like to learn more about how you can grow spiritually? So You're a Spiritual Being: Now What? sets out to provide the answers. It presents fundamental spiritual concepts, the mind-set, practices, and disciplines of a spiritual seeker, perfect for all seekers on the path of spirituality, no matter their level. Everyone will find much to kindle their thinking in this book. Swami Advaitananda. This book delivers classical spiritual teachings from India in an easy, contemporary style. The knowledge originates from a wisdom tradition called Vedanta. Manisha Melwani, who has learned directly from teachers of Vedanta, shares her understanding and first-hand experience as a spiritual seeker. Manisha has a gift. Utilizing a friendly conversational style, she has taken complex philosophical concepts from the Vedanta tradition of ancient India and expressed them in a simple and understandable manner for the Western reader. She has demonstrated that the wisdom that originated thousands of years ago is ageless and universally relevant today as it was in the past. This book is a must-read for any seeker.

Growing Souls Mark Yaconelli, 2009-07-13

The Youth Ministry and Spirituality Project was formed in 1997 to participate in the renewal of youth ministry in the Christian church. Its mission is to foster Christian communities that are attentive to God's presence, discerning of the Spirit, and who accompany young people into the way of Jesus. Our mission is founded on the biblical vision of the human person who is created in the image and likeness of God and whose deepest longing is for communion with God and others in love. In response to Christ's invitation to abide in him (John 15:4), we believe that the central purpose of youth ministry is to open the minds and hearts of young persons to an intimate relationship with God in Christ through the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit. We seek to fulfill our mission through retreats, workshops, training events, written materials, and relationships that promote a contemplative approach to youth discipleship. The contemplative approach to youth ministry is based on a Christian community's commitment to cultivate attentiveness to God's Presence in the lives of young people and is supported in the following seven ways:
