Kitchenspace Maria Elisa Christie, 2009-08-17 Throughout the world the kitchen is the heart of family and community life Yet while everyone has a story to tell about their grandmother's kitchen the myriad activities that go on in this usually female world are often devalued and little scholarly attention has been paid to this crucial space in which family gender and community relations are forged and maintained To give the kitchen the prominence and respect it merits Maria Elisa Christie here offers a pioneering ethnography of kitchenspace in three central Mexican communities Xochimilco Ocotepc and Tetecala Christie coined the term kitchenspace to encompass both the inside kitchen area in which everyday meals for the family are made and the larger outside cooking area in which elaborate meals for community fiestas are prepared by many women working together She explores how both kinds of meal preparation create bonds among family and community members In particular she shows how women's work in preparing food for fiestas gives women status in their communities and creates social networks of reciprocal obligation In a culture rigidly stratified by gender Christie concludes kitchenspace gives women a source of power and a place in which to transmit the traditions and beliefs of older generations through quasi sacramental food rites

Learning How to Ask Charles L. Briggs, 1986-07-25 Interviews are ubiquitous in modern society and they play a crucial role in social scientific research But as Charles Briggs convincingly argues in this book received interviewing techniques rest on fundamental misapprehensions about the nature both of the interview as a communicative event and of the nature of the data that it produces Furthermore interviewers rarely examine the compatibility of interviews as a means of acquiring information to one another These oversights often blind interviewers to ensuing errors of interpretation as well as to the limitations of the interview as a means of acquiring data To conflict these problems Professor Briggs presents an analysis of the communicative blunders that he himself committed in conducting research interviews among Spanish speakers in northern New Mexico By focusing on these errors and exploring how they may be avoided he is able to propose new techniques for designing implementing and analyzing interview based research These rest on identifying the subjects resources for conveying information and the relative compatibility of the shared rules and understandings that underlie their strategies with those associated with interviews Critical of existing paradigms of interviewing which he sees as deriving from Western folk theories of reality and communication Briggs shows that the development of more sophisticated interviewing methodologies requires further research into interviewing itself Briggs's conclusions provide a basis for the reexamination of current uses of interviews in a wide range of contexts from social science research to job applications welfare and health care delivery criminal and legal investigations journalism and broadcasting and other areas of everyday life His book will appeal to linguists sociologists anthropologists historians psychologists as well as other readers whose research or professional activities depend on the use of interviews Spiritual Care Reflections from a Hospice Chaplain Jr. Charles J Lopez,2015-10-13 From the good sisters and monks of the 11th century hospice care grew through the passions of 20th century people like Dame Cecily Saunders and Elizabeth Kubler Ross and into the recognized modality it is today of compassionate and palliative care for those who are on their final journey from this world Pastor Lopez rightly fills this name as he reaches out not only to patients and their families but the team of nurses doctors social workers and caregivers who offer their hands and hearts to those in need Within these pages you will find practical and compassionate words along with hands and a heart that knows the pain of loss and feet that are willing to accompany the reader on their journey A Murder Brings the Most Unlikely People Together Lillian Misar,2013-04 Nurse Dana Paine can't face another cold South Dakota winter She finds a job taking care of an elderly rancher in Texas Before she even gets to Texas she ends up saving a young mother and children from an abusive husband Dana thinks her biggest worry will be not to fall in love with her patient's rancher son It turns out her biggest worry will be standing up to a serial killer to save two young girls from becoming sex slaves This story covers two countries and two strong women who will risk their lives to stop the evils of human trafficking Betrayed Lisa Scottoline,2014-11-25 Blockbuster author Lisa Scottoline returns to the Rosato Associates law firm with the New York Times bestseller Betrayed and maverick lawyer Judy Carrier takes the lead in a case that's more personal than ever Judy has always championed the underdog so when Iris the housekeeper and best friend of Judy's beloved Aunt Barb is found dead of an apparent heart attack Judy begins to suspect foul play The circumstances of the death leave Judy with more questions than answers and never before has murder struck so close to home In the meantime Judy's own life roils with emotional and professional upheaval She doesn't play well with her boss Bennie Rosato which jeopardizes her making partner at the firm Not only that her best friend Mary DiNunzio is planning a wedding leaving Judy feeling left behind as well as newly unhappy in her relationship with her live in boyfriend Frank Judy sets her own drama aside and begins an investigation of Iris's murder then discovers a shocking truth that confounds her expectations and leads her in a completely different direction She finds herself plunged into a shadowy world of people who are so desperate that they cannot go to the police and where others are so ruthless that they prey on vulnerability Judy finds strength within herself to try to get justice for Iris and her aunt but it comes at a terrible price Social Inequality in Oaxaca Arthur D.
