Van Gogh in Popular Culture Lynnette

Porter, 2015-12-11 Vincent van Gogh continues to fascinate more than a century after his death in 1890. Yet how much of what is commonly known about this world-renowned artist is accurate? Though he left thousands of works and a trove of letters, the definitive Van Gogh remains elusive. Was he a madman who painted his greatest pieces in a passionate fury, or a lifelong student of art, literature, and science who carefully planned each composition? Was he a loner dedicated only to his craft, or an active collaborator with his contemporaries? Why is he best known for self-mutilation and The Starry Night? This book has biographers, scriptwriters, lyricists, actors, museum curators, and tour guides among others presenting diverse interpretations of his life and work, creating a mythic persona that may in fact help us in the search for the real Van Gogh.

Anatomy of Sound Jacob Smith, Neil Verma, 2016-07-19 This collection of essays examines one of the most important yet understudied media authors of all time, Norman Corwin, using him as a critical lens to consider the history of multimedia authorship, particularly in the realm of sound. Known for seven decades as the poet laureate of radio, Corwin is most famous for his radio dramas, which reached tens of millions of listeners around the world and contributed to radio drama's success as a mass media form in the 1930s and 1940s. But Corwin was a pioneer in multiple media, including cinema, theater, TV, public service, broadcasting, journalism, and even cantata. In each of these areas, Corwin had a distinctive approach to sonic aesthetics and mastery of multiple aspects of media production, relying in part on his inventive atmospheric effects in the studio, both prerecorded and more impressively live in real time. From the front lines of World War II to his role as Chief of Special Projects for United Nations Radio and his influence on media today, the political and social aspect of Corwin's work is woven into these essays. With a foreword by Michele Hilmes and contributions from Thomas Doherty, Mary Ann Watson, Shawn VanCour, David Ossman, and others, this volume cements Corwin's reputation as perhaps the greatest writer in the history of radio while also showing that his long career is a neglected model of multimedia authorship.
