

Beliefs About Sin and Salvation in Lutheranism

- Luther disagreed with the Catholic Church about sin and salvation
- Catholic Church believed that you had to earn your way to salvation by doing good works and performing the seven sacraments
- Luther believed that salvation was a gift from God and that you received this gift through faith alone - this became known as “Justification by Faith”.

An Apology of the Lutheran Faith John L. Hoh, Jr.,      The Lutheran Confessions Charles P. Arand, James Arne Nestingen, 2012-04 In this important new volume Arand Kolb and Nestingen bring the fruit of an entire generation of scholarship to bear on these documents making it an essential and up to date class text The Lutheran Confessions places the documents solidly within their political social ecclesiastical and theological contexts relating them to the world in which they took place Though the book is not a theology of the Confessions readers will clearly understand the issues at stake in the narratives both in their own time and in ours      Radical Lutherans/Lutheran Radicals Jason A. Mahn, 2017-06-09 Can a Lutheran be sociopolitically radical Can a radical be theologically and faithfully Lutheran This book answers yes Written by teacher scholars from five ELCA colleges Radical Lutherans Lutheran Radicals follows Martin Luther Soren Kierkegaard Dietrich Bonhoeffer Dorothee Soelle and others as they sink deep roots in the Lutheran Christian tradition while simultaneously resisting the status quo with their words their deeds and sometimes their very lives Each chapter shows how the Lutheran theologian returns to the roots of Luther s life and writing and puts them toward radical social and political ends including critiques of cultured Christianity resistance to state or market preferential options for the poor and suffering deep commitments to peace justice and ecological sustainability and direct nonviolent resistance The book highlights theological themes popularized by Luther justification by grace two kingdoms thinking theology of the cross and vocation and then shows how these theological staples when deeply and creatively retrieved can inform political protest intentional living and other countercultural movements The compelling claim throughout is that Luther's theology at its root has resources for radical political participation and social transformation as exemplified by the writings and lives of these radical Lutherans
