Kalpagam,2014-08-20 This book examines aspects of the production of statistical knowledge as part of colonial governance in India using Foucault's ideas of governmentality The modern state is distinctive for its bureaucratic organization official procedures and accountability that in the colonial context of governing at a distance instituted a vast system of recordation bearing semblance to and yet differing markedly from the Victorian administrative state The colonial rule of difference that shaped liberal governmentality introduced new categories of rule that were nested in the procedures and records and could be unraveled from the archive of colonial governance Such an exercise is attempted here for certain key epistemic categories such as space time measurement classification and causality that have enabled the constitution of modern knowledge and the social scientific discourses of economy society and history The different chapters engage with how enumerative technologies of rule led to proliferating measurements and classifications as fields and objects came within the purview of modern governance rendering both statistical knowledge and also new ways of acting on objects and new discourses of governance and the nation The postcolonial implications of colonial governmentality are examined with respect to both planning techniques for attainment of justice and the role of information in the constitution of neoliberal subjects Modern Indian Literature as Cosmopolis Didier Coste,2024-10-09 This book

Pireddu,2018-09-04 This book participates in the ongoing debate about the alleged death of theory and the current post theoretical condition arguing that the finitude of theoretical projects does not mean end but rather contingency and transformation of thinking beyond irreconcilable doctrines Contributors from different cultural and scholarly backgrounds and based in three different continents propose new areas of investigation and interpretive possibilities reopening dialogues with past and present discourses from a plurality of perspectives and locations After a first section that reassesses the status and scopes of critique theory and literature the book foregrounds new or neglected critical vocabulary literary paradigms and narrative patterns to reread texts at the intersection with other branches of the humanities history philosophy religion and pedagogy It then explores geopolitical cultural and epistemological domains that have been historically and ideologically overdetermined such as postsocialist postcolonial and cosmopolitan spaces recodifying them as unstable sites of both conflicts and convergences By acknowledging the spatio temporal and cultural delimitations of any intellectual practice the book creates awareness of our own partiality and incompleteness but treats boundaries as zones of contact exchange and conceptual mobility that promote crossings and connections

The Postsecular Imagination Manav Ratti,2013-01-04

The Postsecular Imagination presents a rich interdisciplinary study of postsecularism as an affirmational political possibility emerging through the potentials and limits of both secular and religious thought While secularism and religion can foster inspiration and creativity they also can be linked with violence civil war partition majoritarianism and communalism especially within the framework of the nation state Through close readings of novels that engage with animism Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam and Sikhism Manav Ratti examines how questions of ethics and the need for faith awe wonder and enchantment can find expression and significance in the wake of such crises While focusing on Michael Ondaatje and Salman Rushdie Ratti addresses the work of several other writers as well including Shauna Singh Baldwin Mahasweta Devi Amitav Ghosh and Allan Sealy Ratti shows the extent of courage and risk involved in the radical imagination of these postsecular works examining how writers experiment with and gesture toward the compelling paradoxes of a non secular skin are always a desire of whiteness Rather than talking back to the colonial centre skin colour politics reorganise and reinforce social distinctions in Indian societies which are neither exclusively local nor global Based on primary research conducted in Delhi this multi dimensional study shows how skin colour intersects with and reproduces other categories of social distinction primarily gender class caste race region and religion It historically embeds fairness as an Indian precolonial yet transnational ideal of beauty The bleached body emerges as an active and thus potentially resistant part of negotiating social status within multiple power relations and complex beauty regimes By mapping a whole geography of skin colours in India this book shows how fair skin as a locally embedded beauty norm and whiteness as a global cultural imperative interrelate
