British Literary Bibliography: British literary bibliography, 1970-1979, a bibliography Trevor Howard

Howard-Hill, 1992 Histories of Everyday Life Laura Carter, 2021-07-22 Histories of Everyday Life is a study of the production and consumption of popular social history in mid twentieth century Britain It explores how non academic historians many of them women developed a new breed of social history after the First World War identified as the history of everyday life The history of everyday life was a pedagogical construct based on the perceived educational needs of the new mass democracy that emerged after 1918 It was popularized to ordinary people in educational settings through books in classrooms and museums and on BBC radio After tracing its development and dissemination between the 1920s and the 1960s this book argues that history of everyday life declined in the 1970s not because academics invented an alternative new social history but because bottom up social change rendered this form of popular social history untenable in the changing context of mass education Histories of Everyday Life ultimately uses the subject of history to demonstrate how profoundly the advent of mass education shaped popular culture in Britain after 1918 arguing that we should see the twentieth century as Britain's educational century
