Mackerel Creamola:

Mackerel & Creamola Ian Stephen, 2001 This collection gathers together a series of linked stories drawing on Ian Stephen's deep knowledge of Hebridean traditional tales Each story is introduced by a short recipe with accompanying children's drawings

The Old Ways Robert Macfarlane, 2012-10-11 From the acclaimed author of The Wild Places and Underland an exploration of walking and thinking In this exquisitely written book Robert Macfarlane sets off from his Cambridge England home to follow the ancient tracks holloways drove roads and sea paths that crisscross both the British landscape and its waters and territories beyond The result is an immersive enthralling exploration of the ghosts and voices that haunt old paths of the stories our tracks keep and tell and of pilgrimage and ritual Told in Macfarlane's distinctive voice The Old Ways folds together natural history cartography geology archaeology and literature His walks take him from the chalk downs of England to the bird islands of the Scottish northwest from Palestine to the sacred landscapes of Spain and the Himalayas Along the way he crosses paths with walkers of many kinds wanderers pilgrims guides and artists Above all this is a book about walking as a journey inward and the subtle ways we are shaped by the landscapes through which we move Macfarlane discovers that paths offer not just a means of traversing space but of feeling knowing and thinking

Western Isles Folk Tales Ian Stephen, 2014-10-01 Western Isles Folk Tales is a representative collection of stories from the geographical span of the long chain of islands known as the Outer Hebrides Some are well known tales and others have been sought out by the author but all are retold in the natural voice of a local man You will find premonitions accounts of uncanny events and mythical beings such as the blue men of the stream who test mariners venturing into the tidal currents around the Shiant Islands Also included are tales from islands now uninhabited like the archipelago of St Kilda in contrast to the witty yarns from bustling harbours The author was the inaugural winner of the Robert Louis Stevenson Fellowship 1995 and his Acts of Trust collaboration with visual artist Christine Morrison won the multi arts category in the first British Awards for Storytelling Excellence 2012 Both author and illustrator live in Stornoway Isle of Lewis

A Book of Death and Fish Ian Stephen, 2014-10-09 Peter MacAulay sits down to write his will The process sets in motion a compulsive series of reflections a history of his own lifetime and a subjective account of how key events in the post war world filter through to his home Stornoway He reveals his passions for history engines and fish and witnesses changing times and things that don't change in the Hebrides The novel is driven by its idiosyncratic narrator but with counterpoints from people he engages with his father mother wife daughter friends It's all about stories a litany of small histories witnessed during one very individual lifetime
