from Archives to Prospects Irena Zovko Dinković,Jelena Mihaljević Djigunović,2016-06-22 This volume explores English Studies from the perspective of linguistics and applied linguistics By examining developments within their selected topics the authors of these 18 chapters provide a broad overview of English Studies as related to their specific points of interest Topics range from the well established such as negation grammaticalization and the role of culture in learning English to those that are currently being revisited or are considered relatively new such as corpus analysis English as a lingua franca and third language acquisition The chapters reflect a modern approach to linguistic and applied linguistic phenomena including diachronic and synchronic perspectives as well as quantitative and qualitative research paradigms English Studies as practiced at the English Department in Zagreb during the last 80 years the anniversary of which instigated the invitation of contributions for this collection are presented here as a vibrant field characterized by dynamics and complexities that introduce novel ideas and help us embrace emerging aspects of more established concepts

To Define and Inform

Saihong Li Rasmussen, 2010-05-11 To Inform and Define An Analysis of Information Provided in Dictionaries Used by Learners of English in China and Denmark presents a masterly synthesis of lexicographical theory in relation to bilingual and learner s dictionaries and advances a radical argument about how such dictionaries are used and how they should be improved for the convenience of students By tracing the history of the terms semantic and pragmatic in linguistics and philosophy Saihong Li shows the weakness of any conceptual distinction between them She goes on to demonstrate how inappropriate these terms are for thinking about the ways in which words are defined and explained in dictionaries The theoretical argument is supported by detailed and comparative empirical research learners of English as a second language in both China and Denmark were interviewed about their experiences as users of standard learner s dictionaries The results are presented in tabular form and their interpretation is statistically informed This is a path breaking study Saihong Li makes an important contribution to lexicographical theory and advances a sophisticated methodology for the comparative study of English language leaning on an international scale and in the global marketplace of learner s dictionaries Her work will be of great value for language teachers lexicographers and students of interpretation translation and language pedagogies To Inform and Define should also attract serious attention from editors and publishers of learner s dictionaries
