Thirteen year old Antony Davis embarks on the one salvation of his nightmarish year a week long vacation to the picturesque Mediterranean island of Corsica There he discovers love in the shape of the beautiful and enchanting Suzanne Aubin a half French Corsican girl Although already having enough problems on his plate battling with his painful shyness and his inability in adjusting to wearing a hearing aid for the first time things become yet more difficult still as the budding romance is dogged by the bitter centuries old rivalry between the English and the French Suzanne Aubin herself has problems enough of her own in the shape and form of her elder brother Luc Who along with his boorish friends mercilessly bully and tease her until the gallant Antony enters the fray and rescues her An initial first attraction between the young English boy and French girl blossoms into a full blown romance secreted behind the ever watchful eyes of two angry relatives Philippe Aubin Suzanne s father who detests the English and Luc her brother who along with the rest of his cohorts are out for blood namely English and Antony s at that Soon a violent confrontation occurs between Luc Aubin and Antony which triggers off a calamitous chain of events that result almost in tragedy Our two lovers hearts are then broken cast asunder destined never to be reunited until a dramatic turn of events over ten years later lead to a gripping climax

Tookey's Turkeys Christopher Tookey, 2015-03-28 Tookey's Turkeys identifies the worst 144 movies of the last 25 years Christopher Tookey has seen at least 10 000 films For eight years he was TV and then film critic for the Sunday Telegraph For twenty years he was sole film critic for the Daily Mail and the world's most popular internet newspaper Mail Online In 2013 he won the award Arts Reviewer of the Year from the London Press Club This is a book about 144 of Christopher's least favourite movies In his opinion the movies we hate tell us as much about present day culture as our favourites All offer insights into the mindset of those who made or commissioned them Virtually all make us aware of things we might rather not know about our culture and values or lack thereof Technically movies are more advanced than ever before yet paradoxically seldom have so many wrongheaded movies been made And never have they plumbed the depths of ineptitude depravity and risibility that they have over the last 25 years The choice of films Christopher has disliked over the past two and a half decades may be controversial Some movies he finds ridiculous have achieved critical acclaim A few have won Oscars But the fact that The Da Vinci Code The Hangover II and Star Wars Episode III Revenge of the Sith are among the most commercially successful movies of all time should not disguise the fact that they are also in his opinion bloody awful Tookey's Turkeys will appeal greatly to the general reader and in particular to all film fans including those who have followed Christopher's reviews over the years In a companion volume Tookey's Talkies Christopher has written about the best 144 films that he has seen over the same period Featured in The Bookseller March 2015 Non Fiction picks Film TV the Performing Arts

In and Out Sophie Aymes-Stokes, Laurent Mellet, 2012-04-25 The aim of the book is twofold first to provide an overview of the critical history of eccentricity and secondly to conceptualise a notion that is often presented as a defining feature of the English character It addresses the key issues raised by eccentricity and brings out interdisciplinary links between science politics literature and the arts the sources and dissemination of the concept of eccentricity its relationship with the English national character as historical and ideological constructs the structural need for variation and divergence within accepted social norms the paradoxical status of the eccentric as outsider when eccentricity is transgressive and alienating and as insider eccentricity as socially acceptable deviation Fundamentally eccentricity is a normative notion being ex centred enables eccentrics to delineate and negotiate boundaries between the margins and the centre the canon and the norm The contributors question the links between eccentricity diversity and originality the value of individual experience and character and as a corollary the struggle to retain individuality against increasing standardization commoditisation and channelling within the normative discourse of normality Eccentricity as display and performance is also tackled in several chapters which focus on reception image and self representation exhibition and voyeurism
