Beyond the Lens of Conservation Eva Keller, 2015-02-01 The global agenda of Nature conservation has led to the creation of the Masoala National Park in Madagascar and to an exhibit in its support at a Swiss zoo the centerpiece of which is a mini rainforest replica Does such a cooperation also trigger a connection between ordinary people in these two far flung places The study investigates how the Malagasy farmers living at the edge of the park perceive the conservation enterprise and what people in Switzerland see when looking towards Madagascar through the lens of the zoo exhibit It crystallizes that the stories told in either place have almost nothing in common one focuses on power and history the other on morality and progress Thus instead of building a bridge Nature conservation widens the gap between people in the North and the South

South Devon & Dartmoor (Slow Travel) Hilary Bradt, Janice Booth, Gill Campbell, Alistair Campbell, 2024-03-08 This new thoroughly updated third edition of South Devon and Dartmoor is part of Bradt's distinctive Slow Travel series of guides to UK regions offering in depth exploration of one of England's most popular areas. Written by resident experts Hilary Bradt, the late Janice Booth and Gill and Alistair Campbell, it remains the essential companion to discovering not just the obvious and well known sites but also for getting off the beaten track and understanding what makes this gorgeous part of the country tick. Much of the information in Bradt's South Devon and Dartmoor has appeared in no other guidebook apart from previous editions of this book as the authors uncover the lesser known charms of the region as well as different aspects of the more popular places from the English Riviera and South Hams to Salcombe and Dartmoor together with colourful characters from the past, folk history and literary links from Agatha Christie to Arthur Conan Doyle. The guide has a special emphasis on car free travel: walking, this edition features a revised selection of routes including miles without stiles, accessible Dartmoor walks, cycling and river boats as well as local buses including the new Dartmoor Explorer service and trains. This edition has a stronger emphasis on local food both in markets and when eating out while the authors have updated their hand picked suggestions for places to eat and drink and for accommodation from idyllically located campsites to boutique B&Bs. Learn what really goes on at a wassail gathering, find out what you should do if you're harassed by pixies on Dartmoor and discover unique local events like the annual Orange Race held in Totnes. Also included are entertaining and informative stories about historical characters and folklore while small and historic village churches with their idiosyncratic saints and intriguing carvings are described in loving detail.

Don't Feed the Boy Irene Latham, 2012-10-16 No kid knows more about zoo life than Whit. That's because he sleeps, eats and even attends home school at the Meadowbrook Zoo. It's one of the perks of having a mother who's the zoo director and a father who's the head elephant keeper. Now that he's eleven, Whit feels trapped by the rules and routine of zoo life. With so many exotic animals, it's easy to get overlooked. But when Whit notices a mysterious girl who visits every day to draw the birds, suddenly the zoo becomes much more interesting. Who is the Bird Girl? And why does she come by herself to the zoo? Determined to gain her trust, Whit takes the Bird Girl on his own personal tour of the zoo. He shows her his favorite animals and what happens with them behind the scenes. For Whit, having a friend his own age that he can talk to is an exciting new experience. For Stella, the Bird Girl, the zoo and Whit are a necessary escape from her chaotic home life. Together they take risks in order to determine where it is they each belong. But when Stella asks Whit for an important and potentially dangerous favor, Whit discovers how complicated friendship and freedom can be.
