Correspondence of Madame Rcamier Jeanne Françoise Julie Adlaïde Bernard Rcamier,1890 The Philosophical and Literary Ideas of Mme de Staël and of Mme de Genlis Machteld De Poortere,2007 If nearly two centuries have left the reputation of Mme de Staël intact the same could not be said for Mme de Genlis who despite several recent studies remains unknown to critics and the general public This book compares and contrasts the ideas of these two women who lived in the same period It strives to emphasize the system of thought that was the basis for their reactions to the historical events of their time This volume contains a new reading of the historical novels of Mme de Genlis highlighting some Romantic aspects in her works It shows that Mme de Genlis who professed to hate Romanticism was in reality strongly influenced by this movement Finally a comparison between Corinne and Delphine and La Duchesse de la Vallière and Madame de Maintenon underlines the importance of history for these two writers and the different ways in which they approached it in their work friends and ideas about friendship to create this solidarity Relying on detailed analyses of politicians social networks new tools arising from the digital humanities and examinations of behind the scenes political transactions Horowitz makes clear the connection between politics and emotions in the early nineteenth century and she reevaluates the role of women in political life by showing the ways in which the personal was the political in the post revolutionary era
