

The first of these is the Book of the City of Dreadful Night, which was written by the poet Robert Byron. It is a long poem in blank verse, and it is one of the most famous of Byron's works. The poem is set in a city of the dead, and it tells the story of a man who is lost in the city and who is eventually rescued by a friend. The poem is a masterpiece of the genre, and it is one of the most important works of the Romantic period.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, with some words underlined. The text is written in a cursive script and is partially obscured by a horizontal line.
