Made From This Earth Selections From Her Writing 1967 1982:

Impertinent Voices Liz Yorke, 2022-09-12 How do women's poetic voices disrupt cultural forms? What is the relationship between female desire and the structures of poetry? Is writing the body essentialist? Originally published in 1991, Impertinent Voices explores these questions in a sensitive and challenging study of female poetic strategies. Looking closely at the intricate and disturbing poetry of some of the twentieth century's greatest poets, Sylvia Plath, Adrienne Rich, H.D., and Audre Lorde, Liz Yorke uses the theories of Irigaray, Cixous, and Kristeva to illuminate her own clear and original analyses of the ways in which feminist understandings have been produced within poetic and cultural forms. Although they struggle with a language which has traditionally excluded female sexuality and subjectivity, women poets refuse to be silenced. Their impertinent voices break out of the constraining myths of the prevailing culture, precipitating new beginnings and new ways of looking at the world. Detailed close readings of the poems are here matched with a clear theoretical approach, making this both an exciting exploration of new terrain and an excellent introduction to the ways in which for women writers theoretical models and creative practice work hand in hand. The Seductions of Psychoanalysis John Forrester, 1991-10-25 Reflection on the history of psychoanalysis, its conceptual foundations, and its relation to other disciplines. What Mothers Do Especially When It Looks Like Nothing Naomi Stadlen, 2007-09-06 Instead of preaching what mothers ought to do, psychotherapist Naomi Stadlen explains what mothers already do in the course of any exhausting day's work. Drawing from countless conversations with hundreds of mothers spanning more than a decade, What Mothers Do provides lucid insight into the true experience of motherhood and answers the perennial question common to mothers everywhere: What have I done all day? Stadlen's wise reflections, threaded throughout with the voices of real mothers, explore unsentimental reactions to motherhood: resentment, guilt, splintered identity, crippling inefficiency, and deadening fatigue. Yet the overriding sentiment is one of empowerment and wonder, as Stadlen illustrates how seemingly insignificant skills, such as responding to a baby's colicky cry, being instantly interruptible, or soothing an overstimulated child to sleep, profoundly contribute to an individual's socialization, self-worth, and curiosity. Remarkably perceptive and heartening, What Mothers Do will resonate with mothers everywhere in search of understanding and wisdom. Public Rape Tanya Horeck, 2013-04-15 Second-wave feminism fought to end the blanket silence shrouding rape and bring it to public attention. Now feminist critics must confront a different issue. In Public Rape, Tanya Horeck considers the public investment in images of rape and the figure of the raped woman. Introducing the idea of public rape, Horeck looks at how images of rape serve as cultural fantasies of sexual, racial, and class difference. Looking at rape in real life as well as in literature and films such as The Accused and Boys Don't Cry, Horeck reveals how representations of rape raise vital questions about the relationship between reality and fantasy, and between violence and spectacle. Feminist Knowledge (RLE Feminist Theory) Sneja Gunew, 2013-05-20 The minority feminist viewpoints have often been submerged in the interests of maintaining a mainstream universal model of feminism. This anthology takes into account the various differences among women while looking at the important areas of feminist struggle While sisterhood is indeed global it certainly does not mean that all women are required to submerge their specific differences and assimilate to a universal model Consequently the collection includes essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect the political struggles which continue to be waged with different strategies by socialist and radical feminists and the self searching analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain The collection begins with a critique of white mainstream feminism emanating from Aboriginal women in Australia The implications of the critique indicate that there is a pervasive racism within the feminist movement

Mary Wollstonecraft Jane Moore,2017-05-15 The essays in this collection represent the explosion of scholarly interest since the 1960s in the pioneering feminist philosopher novelist and political theorist Mary Wollstonecraft This interdisciplinary selection which is organized by theme and genre demonstrates Wollstonecraft s importance in contemporary social political and sexual theory and in Romantic studies The book examines the reception of Wollstonecraft s Vindication of the Rights of Woman but it also deals with the full range of her work from travel writing education religion and conduct literature to her novels letters and literary reviews As well as reproducing the most important modern Wollstonecraft scholarship the collection tracks the development of the author s reputation from the nineteenth century The essays reprinted here from early appreciations by George Eliot Emma Goldman and Virginia Woolf to the work of twenty first century scholars include many of the most influential accounts of Wollstonecraft s remarkable contribution to the development of modern political and social thought The book is essential reading for students of Wollstonecraft and late eighteenth century women s writing history and politics

Rape and Ravishment in the Literature of Medieval England Corinne J. Saunders,2001 The study then considers the treatment of rape and ravishment in a range of literary genres in hagiography female saints are repeatedly threatened with rape the stories of Lucretia and Helen underpin legendary history the acts of rape and ravishment challenge and shape chivalric order in romance otherworldly rapes result in the conception of romance heroes The final two chapters examine the ways in which Malory and Chaucer write and rewrite rape and ravishment

BOOK JACKET Interrogating Incest Vikki Bell,2002-09-11 Winner of British Sociological Association Philip Abrams Memorial Prize 1993 Within feminism incest has often been subsumed under a discussion of sexual violence and abuse Yet important as this is there has been little account of how feminist work itself relates to other ways of talking about and understanding incest In Interrogating Incest Vikki Bell focuses on the issue of incest and its place in sociological theory feminist theory and criminal law By examining incest from a critical Foucauldian framework she considers how feminist discourse on incest itself fits into existing ways of talking about sex Closely surveying the historical background to incest legislation and the theoretical issues involve Vikki Bell delineates their practical implications and shows what uncomfortable questions and important dilemmas are raised by the criminalisation of incest Routledge Library

Editions: Feminist Theory Various, 2021-08-07 Routledge Library Editions Feminist Theory brings together as one set or individual volumes a series of previously out of print classics from a variety of academic imprints With titles ranging from The Liberation of Women to Feminists and State Welfare from Married to the Job to Julia Kristeva this set provides in one place a wealth of important reference sources from the diverse field of gender studies The New Avengers Jacinda

Read, 2000-12-15 Jacinda Read studies the rape revenge film and suggests that the rape revenge cycle can be read as one of the ways in which Hollywood has attempted to make sense of feminism and the shape of heterosexual femininity in the post 1970 period Body Landscape Journals Margaret Somerville, 1999 Annotation Reading this book is like falling through a faultline as we respond to poesis both as poetry and as thought creation Margaret Somerville attended the 1984 Pine Gap Women's Peace Camp where urban women and Aboriginal women demonstrated against military bases As she moved through the landscape of this and other very different places she recorded her interactions with Aboriginal women in the desert in the mountains and at home and with white women in the tropics and at home It is a thoughtful challenge of all that we think She concludes with reflections on the architecture of love Feminist Knowledge Sneja Gunew, 2012-10-11 This collection contains essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect political struggles being waged with different strategies by radical feminists and the analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain Popular Culture and

Representations of Literacy Bronwyn Williams, Amy Zenger, 2007-11-13 Movies are filled with scenes of people of all ages sexes races and social classes reading and writing in widely varied contexts and purposes Yet these scenes go largely unnoticed despite the fact that these images recreate and reinforce pervasive concepts and perceptions of literacy This book addresses how everyday literacy practices are represented in popular culture specifically in mainstream widely distributed contemporary movies If we watch films carefully for who reads and writes in what settings and for what social goals we can see a reflection of the dominant functions and perceptions that shape our conceptions of literacy in our culture Such perceptions influence public and political debates about literacy instruction teachers expectations of what will happen in their classrooms and student's ideas about what reading and writing should be Radically Speaking Diane Bell, Renate Klein, 1996 The contributors to Radically Speaking show that a radical feminist analysis cuts across class race sexuality region religion and across the generations It is essential reading for Women's Studies sociology cultural studies and anyone interested in processes of social change The collection reveals the global reach of radical feminism and analyze the causes and solutions to patriarchal oppression Seventy writers discuss their ideas and practice of contemporary feminism

Feminist Writers, 1996 Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of feminist writers from all time periods

written by subject experts Earth Shattering Neil Astley, 2007 Earth Shattering lines up a chorus of over 200 poems addressing environmental destruction Moving Heaven and Earth Lucy Goodison, 1992 Goodison challenges the dualistic mind body and spirit matter splits that determine and limit the Western worldview pointing the way to political responsibility based on spiritual awareness She offers practical exercises for use by individuals and groups to deconstruct and reconstruct their symbol systems which link individual to social life Literature Criticism from 1400 to 1800, 2007
