against common knowledge that it was hard to believe it was true Where does the idea of the timeless classic come from And how has it become so fiercely contested By recovering disputes about works of art from the eighteenth century to the close of the twentieth Gurstein takes us into unfamiliar aesthetic and moral terrain providing a richly imagined historical alternative to accounts offered by both cultural theorists advancing attacks on the politics of taste and those who continue to cling to the ideal of universal values embodied in the classic As Gurstein brings to life the competing responses of generations of artists art lovers and critics to specific works of art she makes us see the same object vividly and directly through their eyes and feel in all its enlarging intensity what they felt Is Human Nature Obsolete? and we probably dream every night But have you wondered why we only remember some of the dreams and the others are consigned to some cerebral recycle bin And why we sometimes have the same dream over and over again I have had for so long as I have known a dream where I suddenly discover that I have a house A tiny derelict house with an over grown garden Hidden away with no proper path to it And when I look at the house I see that there s so much work to be done to make it into a place to live that I know its beyond me and that makes me very sad And there s another dream where I ve killed someone a long time ago and nobody but me knows and I m afraid that someone will some day find out the terrible thing that I have done And I wake up believing the dream is true not knowing how I can live with myself havingdone the terrible thing that I have done So this book is about how I found out about the person I might have killed and how I first found and then set about rebuilding the house that was nothing but an empty shell with a gaping hole in the roof And have you ever wondered why we have the memories of our childhood that we have Sometimes trivial every day memories Like a video running in our mind which never got erased by the other trivial every day memories that we record each day I have always remembered as if it was yesterday the day when a white van drew up outside our house and a man in a white coat got out Our dog was a corgi we called Lightie The man came into our living room Lightie was behind the sofa and he picked her up in his arms and took her away And I never knew why I remembered that so well Many years later when I had gone past the age they call middle age I told my mother about that memory She was amazed at what I said because she said I could only have been about 12 months at the time I had just started to walk and the dog was getting old and no longer as reliable as it needed to be with a toddler around
