Mediterranean Society A Challenge For Islam Judaism And Christianity:

The Mediterranean Society, 1998 This work is based on a conference held in 1995 when representatives of the three major faiths gave talks with the view of contributing to inter religious dialogue The purpose was to determine what message the Mediterranean religious and humanist traditions could communicate to a wider public The Mediterranean Society Jacques Santer, 1998 The Mediterranean Society, 1998 Distinguished representatives of the three world faiths present contributions to the inter religious dialogue which is likely to prove a pivotal factor in the welding together of different nations and religious traditions in the formations of a united Europe In particular the book sets out to determine what message the Mediterranean religions and humanist traditions could communicate to a wider lay public Muslims and Others Jacques Waardenburg, 2008-08-22 Jacques Waardenburg writes about relations between Muslims and adherents of other religions After illuminating various aspects of Islam from an outside point of view in his volume Islam published in 2002 by de Gruyter his second volume changes the perspective The author shows how Muslims perceived non Muslims particularly Christianity and the West but also Judaism and Asian religions in many centuries of religious dialogue and tensions The main focus is on Muslim minorities in Western countries and on religious dialogues of which he provides first hand knowledge through his participation in several important dialogue meetings After 50 years of research and personal involvement Waardenburg aims at a mutual understanding and reconciliation of Islam and other religions particularly Christianity both on an international level as well as on a more local level where old and new Christian and Muslim Europeans live together

The European Economy 1914-2000 Derek Howard Aldcroft, 2001 As in earlier editions of this work Professor Aldcroft presents a succinct and lucid account of the development and problems of the European economy throughout the twentieth century The text divides into several clearly defined sub periods the aftermath of the First World War and reconstruction in the 1920s the depression and recovery of the 1930s the impact of the Second World War and the new division of Europe the postwar boom of the 1950s and 1960s the growth slowdown of the 1970s and the pervasive problems of inflation and unemployment This new edition incorporates extensive revisions including wide range coverage of the impact of economics union and the demise of the centrally planned economies revised bibliographies and topics for discussion The European Economy 1914 2000 provides an invaluable guide to the major economic changes in both Western and Eastern Europe during the twentieth century The European Economy Since 1914 Derek Howard Aldcroft, Steven Morewood, 2013 The European Economy Since 1914 provides an invaluable guide to the major economic changes in both Western and Eastern Europe during the twentieth century Books on Turkey, 2005 Index Islamicus, 2007 War, Violence and Social Justice Masoud Kamali, 2016-03-09 This book analyses the role of war and violence in both its physical and symbolic forms for social work in a time of neoliberal globalisation from a social justice perspective It argues that the consequences of wars in both their old and new forms and the exercise of symbolic violence for the practices of social work at national and global levels have been ignored This work explores the relationship between recent neoliberal and global transformations and their consequences for intensifying new wars and conflicts in non Western countries on the one hand and the increasing symbolic violence against marginalised people with immigrant and non Western background in many Western countries on the other The analytical approach of the book based on the theories of multiple modernities and symbolic violence is unique since no other work has applied such theoretical perspectives for analysing inequalities in relation to the condition of lives of non Western people living in Western and non Western countries This is a necessary contribution for social work education and research since the discipline needs new theoretical perspectives to be able to meet the new challenges raised by recent global transformations and neoliberal globalisation

Orientalism, Postmodernism and Globalism Professor Bryan S Turner,2002-11 This book represents a remarkable synthesis of recent discussion and debate regarding crucial aspects of postmodernization religious change and the globalization of world society

Medieval Iberian Crusade Fiction and the Mediterranean World David A. Wacks,2019-07-15 Reading crusader fiction against the backdrop of Mediterranean history this book explains how Iberian authors reimagined the idea of crusade through the lens of Iberian geopolitics and social history The crusades transformed Mediterranean history and inaugurated complex engagements between Western Europe the Balkans North Africa and the Middle East in ways that endure to this day Narratives of crusades powerfully shaped European thinking about the East and continue to influence the representation of interactions between Christian and Muslim states in the region The crusade a French idea that gave rise to Iberian North African and Levantine campaigns was very much a Mediterranean phenomenon French and English authors wrote itineraries in the Holy Land chronicles of the crusades and fanciful accounts of Christian knights who championed the Latin Church in the East This study aims to explore the ways in which Iberian authors imagined their role in the culture of crusade both as participants and interpreters of narrative traditions of the crusading world from north of the Pyrenees

Forced Conversion in Christianity, Judaism and Islam Mercedes García-Arenal,Yonatan Glazer-Eytan,2019-10-21 Focusing on the Iberian Peninsula but examining related European and Mediterranean contexts as well Forced Conversion in Christianity Judaism and Islam traces how Christians Jews and Muslims grappled with the contradictory phenomenon of faith brought about by constraint and compulsion Forced conversion brought into sharp relief the tensions among the accepted notion of faith as a voluntary act the desire to maintain pure communities and the universal truth claims of radical monotheism Offering a comparative view of an important yet insufficiently studied phenomenon in the history of religions this collection of essays explores the ways in which religion and violence reshaped these three religions and the ways we understand them today

The Cambridge History of Judaism: Volume 5, Jews in the Medieval Islamic World Phillip I. Lieberman,2021-09-02 Volume 5 examines the history of Judaism in the Islamic World from the rise of Islam in the early sixth century to the expulsion of Jews from Spain at the end of the fifteenth This period witnessed radical transformations both within the Jewish community itself and in the broader contexts in which the Jews found themselves The rise of Islam had a decisive influence on Jews and Judaism as the conditions of daily life and elite culture shifted throughout the Islamic world Islamic conquest and expansion affected the shape of the Jewish community as the center of gravity shifted west to the North African communities and long distance trading opportunities led to the establishment of trading diasporas and flourishing communities as far east as India By the end of our period many of the communities on the other side of the Mediterranean had come into their own while many of the Jewish communities in the Islamic world had retreated from their high water mark

European Access ,1999 Die orthodoxen Kirchen im interreligiösen Dialog mit dem Islam Dietmar Schon,2017-07-24 Interreligiöser Dialog mit dem Islam gilt in einer globalisierten Welt als unverzichtbar um friedliche Koexistenz von Menschen unterschiedlicher Religion zu sichern Auch die orthodoxe Kirche hat sich im interreligiösen Dialog engagiert und zu einem Miteinander der Religionen beigetragen Die Studie beleuchtet unmittelbar die in kumenischem Kontext entstandenen Beiträge der autokephalen orthodoxen Kirchen seit den 1980er Jahren bis heute

Strangers in the Land: Traveling Texts, Imagined Others, and Captured Souls in Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Traditions in Late Antique and Mediaeval Times ,2024-06-03 This volume explores the ways in which representatives of different monotheistic traditions experienced themselves as the other or were perceived and described as such by their contemporaries This central category which includes not only those of different religions but also converts foreigners sectarians and women is studied from various perspectives in a range of texts composed by Jewish Christian and Muslim authors during late antique and mediaeval times Conceptualizations of such others are often intrinsically related to the idea of exile another important category that is analysed in this work

Medieval Jewish Civilization Norman Roth,2014-04-08 This is the first encyclopedic work to focus exclusively on medieval Jewish civilization from the fall of the Roman Empire to about 1492 The more than 150 alphabetically organized entries written by scholars from around the world include biographies countries events social history and religious concepts The coverage is international presenting people culture and events from various countries in Europe Africa and the Middle East For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Medieval Jewish Civilization An Encyclopedia website

Christian Scholar's Review ,2004 Jews and Islamic Law in Early 20th-Century Yemen Mark S. Wagner,2015 In early 20th century Yemen a sizable Jewish population was subject to sumptuary laws and social restrictions Jews regularly came into contact with Islamic courts and Muslim jurists by choice and by necessity became embroiled in the most intimate details of their Jewish neighbors lives Mark S Wagner draws on autobiographical writings to study the careers of three Jewish intermediaries who used their knowledge of Islamic law to manipulate the sharia for their own benefit and for the good of their community The result is a fresh perspective on the place of religious minorities in Muslim societies

Arab Painting Anna Contadini,2010 Arab painting preserved mainly in manuscript illustrations of the 12th to 14th centuries is here treated as an artistic corpus fully deserving of appreciation in its own terms and not as a mere precursor to

Persian painting The book assembles papers by a distinguished list of scholars that illuminate the variety of material that survives in scientific as well as literary manuscripts Because of the contexts in which the paintings appear a major theoretical concern is precisely the relationship of painting to text It rejects earlier scholarly habits of analysing paintings in isolation and proposes the integration of text and image as a more satisfactory framework within which to elucidate the characteristics and functions of this impressive body of work This second revised edition includes addenda and corrigenda
