backdrop of the magazine and advertising worlds in 1960s London A privileged girl from a privileged class Eliza has a dazzling career in the magazine world of the 1960s But when she falls deeply in love with Matt an edgy working class boy she gives up her ritzy fast paced lifestyle to get married By the end of the decade however their marriage has suffered a harrowing breakdown culminating in divorce and a dramatic courtroom custody battle over their little girl Also at risk is Eliza s gorgeous family home a pawn in the game which she can t bear to give up True to form Penny Vincenzi introduces a devious cast of characters seemingly plucked from the pages of sixties and seventies era magazines as she deftly maneuvers between the glamorous moneyed worlds of fashion and advertising and a heart wrenching custody battle going on in the courtroom where the social mores of the time are on full display Lewis Nkosi. The Black Psychiatrist | Flying Home: Fiction, Critical Perspectives and Homage Astrid Starck-Adler,Dag Henrichsen,2021-04-01 This rich volume is dedicated to the astounding South African writer and literary critic Lewis Nkosi 1936 2010 In this book Nkosi s celebrated one act play The Black Psychiatrist is published together with its unpublished sequel Flying Home a play on the satirically fictionalized inauguration of Mandela as South African president Critical appraisals tributes and recollections by scholars and friends reflect on the beat of his writing and life An ideal volume for those encountering Lewis Nkosi for the first time as well as for those already devoted to his work Edited by Astrid Starck a literary scholar and Dag Henrichsen a historian Much has happened to me that is worth narrating worth celebrating in spite of the regrets and sorrows of exile My life began under Apartheid until I attained the age of 22 and then subsequently lived in many places and societies in Central Africa Britain the United States Poland and during a brief sojourn in France and finally in Switzerland Lewis Nkosi in Memoirs of a motherless child Skipper vs Crew / Crew vs Skipper Tim Davison,2013-01-03 Skippers and crew have very different agenda and nowhere does it become more evident than in their secret innermost but not very often expressed thoughts about the other This brilliantly original humour giftbook has two beginnings Opened one way it sends up skippers from the crew s point of view Flipped over and opened the other way it sends up crew instead from the skipper s perspective Bringing into play all the scenarios that cause stress hilarity scorn angst and difficulty on a boat when both sides co exist in close proximity this is a tongue in cheek send up of each side that the other will heartily relate to and endorse This is a book with universal humour which will travel everywhere there are crews at the mercy of slave driving or incompetent skippers or skippers cursed with lazy or imbecilic crew Cartoons help bring to life the inherent humour of the relationships between skippers and their crews Passionate Mothers, Powerful Sons Charlotte Gray,2023-09-12 A captivating dual biography of two famous women whose sons would change the course of the 20th century by award winning historian Charlotte Gray Born into upper class America in the same year 1854 Sara Delano later to become the mother of Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Jennie Jerome later to become the mother of Winston Churchill refused to settle into predictable sheltered lives as little known wives to prominent men Instead both women concentrated their energies on enabling their sons to reach the epicentre of political power on two continents In the mid 19th century the British Empire was at its height France's Second Empire flourished and the industrial vigor of the United States of America was catapulting the republic towards the Gilded Age Sara and Jennie raised with privilege but subject to the constraints of women's roles at the time learned how to take control of their destinies Sara in the prosperous Hudson Valley and Jennie in the glittering world of Imperial London Yet their personalities and choices were dramatically different A vivacious extrovert Jennie married Lord Randolph Churchill a rising politician and scion of a noble British family Her deft social and political maneuverings helped not only her mercurial husband but once she was widowed her ambitious son Winston By contrast deeply conventional Sara Delano married a man as old as her father But once widowed she made Franklin her only child the focus of her existence Thanks in large part to her financial support and to her guidance Franklin acquired the skills he needed to become a successful politician Set against one hundred years of history Passionate Mothers Powerful Sons is a study in loyalty and resilience Gray argues that Jennie and Sara are too often presented as lesser figures in the backdrop of history rather than as two remarkable individuals who were key in shaping the characters of the sons who adored them and in preparing them for leadership on the world stage Impeccably researched and filled with intriguing social insights Passionate Mothers Powerful Sons breathes new life into Sara and Jennie offering a fascinating and fulsome portrait of how leaders are not just born but made The Price of Illusion Joan Juliet

Buck, 2017-03-07 From Joan Juliet Buck former editor in chief of Paris Vogue comes her dazzling compulsively readable memoir a fabulous account of four decades spent in the creative heart of London New York Los Angeles and Paris chronicling her quest to discover the difference between glitter and gold illusion and reality and what looks like happiness from the thing itself Born into a world of make believe as the daughter of a larger than life film producer Joan Juliet Buck's childhood was a whirlwind of famous faces ever changing home addresses and a fascination with the shiny surfaces of things When Joan became the first and only American woman ever to fill Paris Vogue's coveted position of Editor in Chief a figurehead in the cult of fashion and beauty she had the means to recreate for her aging father now a widower the life he'd enjoyed during his high flying years a splendid illusion of glamorous excess that could not be sustained indefinitely Joan's memoir tells the story of a life lived in the best places at the most interesting times London and New York in the swinging 1960s Rome and Milan in the dangerous 1970s Paris in the heady 1980s and 1990s But when her fantasy life at Vogue came to an end she had to find out who she was after all those years of make believe She chronicles this journey in beautiful and at times heartbreaking prose taking the reader through the wild parties and the fashion the celebrities and creative geniuses as well as love loss and the loneliness of getting everything you thought you wanted and finding it's not what you'd imagined While Joan's story is unique her journey toward self discovery is refreshing and universal Devil's Deceit. Anthony Hulse, 2018-01-25 After the war Paul Berkowitz a former soldier of Jewish Nazi hunter group Nokmim is recruited by a Nazi to assassinate Dr Karl Stangl also known as the Monster of Mauthausen Discovering Stangl murdered his parents and brothers in the infamous camp
