Young People's History of Music James Cartwright Macy, 1914

Leonard Bernstein and His Young People's Concerts Alicia Kopfstein-Penk, 2015-01-22 Leonard Bernstein touched millions of lives as composer conductor teacher and activist He frequently visited homes around the world through the medium of television particularly through his fifty three award winning Young People's Concerts 1958 1972 which at their height were seen by nearly ten million in over forty countries Originally designed for young viewers but equally attractive to eager adults Bernstein's brilliance as a teacher shined brightly in his televised presentations And yet despite the light touch of the maestro the innocence of his audience and the joyousness of each show's topic the turbulence of the times would peek through In this first in depth look at the series Alicia Kopfstein Penk's Leonard Bernstein and His Young People's Concerts illustrates how the cultural social political and musical upheavals of the long sixties impacted Bernstein's life and his Young People's Concerts Responding to trends in corporate sponsorship censorship and arts programming from the Golden Age of Television into the 1970s the Young People's Concerts would show the impact of and reflect the social and cultural politics of the Cold War Vietnam the Civil Rights and Women's Movements and the Counterculture Bernstein cheerfully bridged classical and popular tastes juxtaposing the Beatles with Mozart even as he offered personal televised pleas for peace and unity At the same time the concerts reflect Bernstein's troubled relationship as a professional musician with the dominance of atonality and his quest to nurture American music Anyone who enjoys the oeuvre of Leonard Bernstein has watched his Young People's Concerts or is passionate about the history of the long sixties will find in Leonard Bernstein and His Young People's Concerts a story of all three captured in this monumental study

Living Water Martyn Lloyd-Jones, 2009-01-14 This substantial volume includes more than fifty never before published expository sermons on John 4 from one of the twentieth century's greatest preachers It was just a conversation between two people by the side of a well in Samaria One a local woman came to perform her daily task of drawing water Another a Jewish man tired from traveling sat down for a drink But he wasn't just any Jewish man and this wasn't just any conversation The man Jesus revealed himself as the Messiah leading to the conversion of not only the Samaritan woman but many from her town Now for the first time fifty six sermons by Martyn Lloyd Jones on this passage of Scripture are available in Living Water Lloyd Jones known for his ability to clearly communicate profound theological concepts digs into this familiar passage from the fourth chapter of the Gospel of John exposing fresh layers of truth His perceptive analysis is helpful for all who thirst for the living water that only Jesus can provide

Promoting Healthy and Supportive Acoustic Environments: Going beyond the Quietness Francesco Aletta, Jian Kang, 2020-11-04 This book gathers 14 original contributions published in an IJERPH Special Issue that deal with the perception of environmental sounds and how such sounds are likely to affect human quality of life and well being and the experience of a place The research focus over the years has been gradually shifting from treating sound simply as noise and something that cities should get rid of to a potential resource to promote and support community life in public spaces Three main topics or needs to be addressed by researchers and practitioners emerged from this Special Issue 1 the need to re think quietness in cities as something that goes beyond the mere pursuit of silence 2 the need to integrate additional contextual factors in the characterization and management of urban acoustic environments for public health and 3 the need to consider the acoustic quality of indoor spaces as opposed to an outdoor only perspective The contributions collected in this book will hopefully trigger new questions and inform the agenda of future researchers and practitioners in the environmental acoustics domain

Who Listens? Janet Bourne, 2025 Chapter 1 describes how the cognitive process of analogy can be used as a framework for analyzing how individual listeners relate what they are hearing to what they may have heard or learned in musical and other experiences in the past The framework emphasizes the cognitive steps a person takes when making an analogy of any kind 1 retrieval remembering patterns and associations based on experience 2 mapping aligning situations and 3 inference transfer transferring inferences associations recognizing manipulations I use this process to analyze hearings of Western art music illustrating not only how listeners might analogize music to other domains such as the body or language as a framing analogy for their listening experience but also how they might analogize details of the music they are currently hearing to music they have heard in the past creating what I call music to music analogies
