Northern Summer New And Selected Poems 1963 1983:

Northern Summer John Matthias, 1984 Poetry, Poets, Readers Peter Robinson, 2002 Poetry Poets Readers is a defence of poetry against the protective moves which claim that poets never lie because they never affirm or that their poems exist in a separate world These much re iterated manoeuvres for safe guarding poetry by banishing it from an active role in life can paradoxically go hand in hand with a poet s yearning for the authority of a legislator Through detailed considerations of poetry by Shakespeare Keats Yeats Auden Elizabeth Bishop and Paul Muldoon along with sustained meditations on question forms in poems the role of fact in fictions the nature of literary value speech acts and performative utterances issued by poets the book sets out a fresh model for relationships between poetry poets and readers one which allows the historical fact of poems having made things happen to be itself happening Peter Robinson himself an award winning poet explores what we do by imagining when we read or write poems In describing how poetry poets and readers make things happen the poet offers us an invitation and implies a promise Taking up the one we find out how to keep the other Vital Signs Ronald Wallace, 1989 This anthology includes 179 poets published by university presses in recent years It seeks to provide a rich overview of the best contemporary American poetry irrespective of publisher age of poet aesthetic program or current status in the literary canon to celebrate the work of university presses in discovering and supporting that poetry and to suggest some questions about American poetry its democratization canonization aesthetics politics and sociology The volume includes brief histories of poetry publishing at each press their poetry lists and an essay on the American poetry scene of the last 20 years It features poems by such established poets as John Ashbery Marge Piercy Adrienne Rich and James Wright ISBN 0 299 12160 7 29 95 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 The Space Between James Walton, 1991 An anthology of 19 distinguished poets who have been students and or faculty members at Notre Dame including John Frederick Nims Henry Rago Paul Carroll Samuel Hazo John Engels Anthony Kerrigan and John Logan Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Another Chicago Magazine , 1984 The Writers Directory , 2013 Jarrell, Bishop, Lowell, & Co Suzanne Ferguson, 2003 Jarrell Bishop Lowell Co Middle Generation Poets in Context Takes on the oft noted but little explored friendship of three of the most respected poets of the twentieth century Editor Suzanne Ferguson collects eighteen essays that explore the literary personal and political affiliations of Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop and Robert Lowell influential literary figures who flourished in the periods between modernism and postmodernism Essay in the first section of the book directly compare the subjects while sections on each of the poets follow The contributors unpack received wisdom on the poets revising and updating our conceptions The multiple viewpoints reflect on one another shedding provocative light on the group as a whole and revealing the ways the study of poets in their historical context helps make them not only accessible but also relevant to today s reader The Contributors Edward Hirsch Steven Gould Axelrod Jeredith Merrin Thomas Travisano Diederik Oostdijk Richard Flynn Nelson Hathcock Florian Hild

Poetic Obligation Matthew G. Jenkins, 2008-04 Since at least the time of Plato's Republic the relationship between poetry and ethics has been troubled Through the prism of what has been called the new ethical criticism inspired by the work of Emmanuel Levinas G Matthew Jenkins considers the works of Objectivists Black Mountain poets and Language poets in light of their full potential to reshape this ancient relationship American experimental poetry is usually read in either political or moral terms Poetic Obligation by contrast considers the poems of Louis Zukofsky Charles Reznikoff George Oppen Edward Dorn Robert Duncan Susan Howe and Lyn Hejinian in terms of the philosophical notion of ethical obligation to the Other in language Jenkins's historical trajectory enables him to consider the full breadth of ethical topics that have driven theoretical debate since the end of World War II This original approach establishes an ethical lineage in the works of twentieth century experimental poets creating a way to reconcile the breach between poetry and the issue of ethics in literature at large With implications for a host of social issues including ethnicity and immigration economic inequities and human rights Jenkins's imaginative reconciliation of poetry and ethics will provide stimulating reading for teachers and scholars of American literature as well as advocates and devotees of poetry in general Poetic Obligation marshals ample evidence that poetry matters and continues to speak to the important issues of our day The Great War in Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, 2003 The Great War in Irish Poetry explores the impact of the First World War on the work of W B Yeats Robert Graves and Louis MacNeice in the period 1914 45 and on three contemporary Northern Irish poets Derek Mahon Seamus Heaney and Michael Longley Its concern is to place their work and memory of the Great War in the context of Irish politics and culture in the twentieth century The historical background to Irish involvement in the Great War is explained as are the ways in which issues raised in 1912 20 still reverberate in the politics of remembrance in Northern Ireland particularly through such events as the Home Rule cause the loss of the Titanic the Battle of the Somme the Easter Rising While the Great War is perceived as central to English culture and its literature holds a privileged position in the English literary canon the centrality of the Great War to Irish writing has seldom been recognised This book shows first that despite complications in Irish domestic politics which led to the repression of memory of the Great War Irish poets have been drawn throughout the century to the events and images of 1914 18 This engagement is particularly true of those writing in the troubled Northern Ireland of the last thirty years The second main concern is the extent to which recognition of the importance of the Great War in Irish writing has itself become a casualty of competing versions of the literary canon
