Raghu Babu, Mr. Romero D'Souza,2025-08-06 German Literature in the Age of Globalisation Stuart Taberner,2004-11-01 Literary fiction in Germany has long been a medium for contemplation of the nation and questions of national identity From the mid 1990s in the wake of heated debates on the future direction of culture politics and society in a more normal united country German literature has become increasingly diverse and seemingly disparate at the one extreme it represents the attempt to reinvent German traditions at the other the unmistakable influence of Anglo American forms and pop literature A shared concern of almost all of recent German fiction however is the contemporary debate on globalisation its nature impact and consequences for local culture In its engagement with globalisation the literature of the Berlin Republic continues the long established practice of reflection on what it is to be German This book investigates literary responses to the phenomenon of globalisation The subject is approached from a wide range of thematic and theoretical perspectives in twelve chapters which taken together also provide an overview of German fiction from the mid 1990s to the present The book serves both as an introduction to contemporary German literature for university students of German and as a resource for scholars interested in culture and society in the Berlin Republic New Reproductive Technologies and Disembodiment Carla Lam,2016-04-22 With attention to the ways in which new reproductive technologies facilitate the gradual disembodiment of reproduction this book reveals the paradox of women s reproductive experience in patriarchal cultures as being both and often simultaneously empowering and disempowering A rich exploration of birth appropriation in the West New Reproductive Technologies and Disembodiment investigates the assimilation of women s embodied power into patriarchal systems of symbolism culture and politics through the inversion of women s and men s reproductive roles Contending that new reproductive technologies represent another world historical moment both in their forging of novel social relations and material processes of reproduction and their manner of disembodiment of women in unprecedented ways a disembodiment evident in recent visual and literary popular and academic texts this volume locates the roots of this disembodiment in western political discourse A call to feminist political theory to re remember the material dimensions of bodies and their philosophical significance New Reproductive Technologies and Disembodiment will appeal to scholars of sociology gender studies political and social theory and the study of science technology and health
