Let Me Be Frank Frank Beamer, Jeff Snook, 2013-09-01 After 26 seasons as head football coach at Virginia Tech University Frank Beamer is not only the longest tenured but also the winningest active coach of any major college program and Let Me Be Frank contains his personal reflections on more than a quarter century leading the Virginia Tech program Beamer has directed his alma mater to 20 consecutive bowl appearances including six BCS bowls five top 10 finishes and a trip to the National Championship Game in 1999 led by a freshman quarterback named Michael Vick But success didn't come immediately he started his career at VT with four losing seasons in his first six years including a 2 8 1 record in 1992 when many fans wanted him fired He relates how he turned a mediocre program into a perennial power while sporting a clean NCAA record and a well earned reputation as one of the most respected head coaches in the nation However

Beamer is regarded as an even better man than a football coach he created a state wide program to help children read and in the aftermath of the deadliest campus massacre in U S history he met with the parents of the victims and visited with each wounded student He shares stories from his time spent both on and off the gridiron including memories of generations of Hokies stars such as Vick Andr Davis Jim Druckenmiller Corey Moore Jake Grove and others The Managerial Moment of Truth Bruce Bodaken,Robert Fritz,2006-05-02 The Managerial Moment of Truth explains a powerful new concept that can dramatically improve performance and increase productivity at no cost in virtually any company or organization Developed by organizational consultant and bestselling author Robert Fritz and proven in practice by coauthor Bruce Bodaken the chairman president and CEO of Blue Shield of California the book provides a dynamic technique to help people face up to reality and confront the truth in order to correct mistakes learn from past performance and adjust processes to build a more successful organization Given human nature most managers when faced with the harsh facts of substandard performance tend to soften the truth with their direct reports so as not to offend or upset them They tend to avoid mentioning mistakes missed dates an incomplete project unacceptable quality of work and the like Then if the problem becomes egregious the manager may suddenly overreact with a contentious confrontation that results in little long term behavior change Or else the manager will try to work around the substandard performance shifting the workload to top performers on the team rather than addressing reality directly with the person concerned Bodaken and Fritz provide a step by step approach for continuous improvement in which managers deal with performance issues early on to help employees face the truth without being made to feel denigrated inept or incompetent which would only defeat the desired goal of improvement Moreover this approach also greatly enhances the manager s own career success When managers understand and use this practice they can produce more top performers and add from 25 to 40 percent more actual capacity to their organization At Blue Shield of California for example more than one thousand managers have been trained in this approach with impressive measurable results helping the company become one of the fastest growing health care plans in the state Other companies all at the top of their industries are now using MMOT with great success As widely acclaimed author Peter Senge notes in his foreword This is not a book with just a bunch of good ideas It is a call to a simple but transformative practice vital to building an organization truly worthy of people s highest achievement The Standard American Encyclopedia of Arts, Sciences, History, Biography, Geography, Statistics, and General Knowledge John Clark Ridpath,1898 The Illustrated London News ,1923 Dyer's News Letter ,1899 Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1858 A New General Collection of Voyages and Travels ,1745 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,1901 Twentieth Century Limited Book One - Age of Heroes Jan David Blais,2012-10 Overcoming disabling injuries Vietnam vet Paul Bernard becomes an award winning journalist and television newsman Known for holding a mirror to
