Penetration Of Arabia A Record Of The De:

The Penetration of Arabia David George Hogarth, 1904 Record of the development of western knowledge concerning the Arabian peninsula The Penetration of Arabia, a Record of the Development of Western Knowledge Concerning the Arabian Peninsula, by David George Hogarth,... David George Hogarth, 1904 Classified Catalogue of the Library of the Director General of Archaeology Sten Konow, 1908 Niebuhr in Egypt Roger H Guichard, 2014-06-26 When Roger H Guichard Jr discovered a French translation of the works of Carsten Niebuhr sole survivor of the 1761 1767 Royal Danish Expedition to the Yemen he was astounded They were not just another dry account of one man s travels but represented the record of a serious intellectual enterprise involving Enlightenment science sacred philology the Bible as history Orientalism Egyptology and discovery Having translated them from French to English and then cross referenced his translations with the original German texts Niebuhr in Egypt is not as one might expect simply a presentation of his translation Instead Guichard offers his readers an account of the expedition s year in Egypt with lengthy excursions into the several subplots Enlightenment science the Bible as history and Egyptology that he found so engaging in the original works This is not a scholarly work but would appeal to anyone with an interest in any of the areas mentioned or simply to anyone interested in this country s past and present

Said, 2014-10-01 A groundbreaking critique of the West s historical cultural and political perceptions of the East that is decades after its first publication one of the most important books written about our divided world Intellectual history on a high order and very exciting The New York Times In this wide ranging intellectually vigorous study Said traces the origins of orientalism to the centuries long period during which Europe dominated the Middle and Near East and from its position of power defined the orient simply as other than the occident This entrenched view continues to dominate western ideas and because it does not allow the East to represent itself prevents true understanding

Bulletin ... of Books Added to the Public Library of Detroit, Mich Detroit Public Library, 1905 Classified Catalogue East St. Louis. Public Library, 1922 Bookseller's catalogues Thornton J. and son, 1883 The Imperial and Asiatic Quarterly Review and Oriental and Colonial Record , 1905 Beginning Apr 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record , 1929 Encountering Islam Paul Auchterlonie, 2012-03-24 Long before European empires came to dominate the Middle East Britain was brought face to face with Islam through the activities of the Barbary corsairs For three centuries

after 1500 Muslim ships based in North African ports terrorized European shipping capturing thousands of vessels and enslaving hundreds of thousands of Christians

Encountering Islam is the fascinating story of one Englishman's experience of life within a Muslim society as both Christian slave and Muslim soldier. Born in Exeter around 1662, Joseph Pitts was captured by Algerian pirates on his first voyage in 1678. Sold as a slave in Algiers, he underwent forced conversion to Islam. Sold again, he accompanied his kindly third master on pilgrimage to Mecca, so becoming the first Englishman known to have visited the Muslim Holy Places. Granted his freedom, Pitts became a soldier going on campaign against the Moroccans and Spanish, before venturing on a daring escape while serving with the Algiers fleet. Crossing much of Italy and Germany on foot, he finally reached Exeter seventeen years after he had left.

Joseph Pitts's A Faithful Account of the Religion and Manners of the Mahometans, first published in 1704, is a unique combination of captivity narrative, travel account, and description of Islam. It describes his time in Algiers, his life as a slave, his conversion, his pilgrimage to Mecca, the first such detailed description in English of Muslim ritual and practice, and his audacious escape. A Christian for most of his life, Pitts also had the advantage of living as a Muslim within a Muslim society. Nowhere in the literature of the period is there a more intimate and poignant account of identity conflict.

Encountering Islam contains a faithful rendering of the definitive 1731 edition of Pitts's book, together with critical historical, religious, and linguistic notes. The introduction tells what is known of Pitts's life and places his work against its historical background and in the context of current scholarship on captivity narratives and Anglo-Muslim relations of the period.

Paul Auchterlonie, an Arabist who worked for forty years as a librarian specializing in Middle Eastern and Islamic studies, and from 1981 to 2011 was librarian in charge of the Middle East collections at the University of Exeter. He is the author and editor of numerous works on Middle Eastern bibliography and library science, and has recently published articles on historical and cultural relations between Britain and the Middle East. He is currently an Honorary Research Fellow at the Institute of Arab and Islamic Studies at the University of Exeter.
