Regional Integration And Global Free Trade:

Regional Integration and Global Free Trade Mark S. LeClair, 1997 Recent trade initiatives suggest that there is renewed interest in forming tariff free regional trading zones Running concurrent with this move toward regional integration is the multilateral process of global trade liberalization This text looks at the two issues Chapter one examines the inherent conflict between the two main approaches to reducing barriers to trade economic integration and multilateralism Chapter two provides a theoretical framework for evaluating the relative accomplishments of both regional trading blocs and multilateral free trade Chapter three utilizes a number of theoretical constructs to evaluate the effects of regional trading arrangements and discusses the trade history of the European Union Chapter four provides an analysis of the trade effects of tariff reductions achieved under the GATT system and chapter five provides recommendations for ensuring continued progress in multilateral tariff reductions under the banner of the World Trade Organization South American Free Trade Area or Free Trade Area of the Americas? Mario Carranza, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 This work examines the hemispheric diplomacy after the Summits of the America in Miami December 1994 and Santiago April 1998 focusing on the strengthening of the South American position in the FTAA negotiations and the Brazilian proposal for a South American Free Trade Area SAFTA The book also looks at the implications of the preceding analysis for regional integration theory and international relations theory The conclusion looks beyond open regionalism and considers three scenarios for US South American relations after the Santiago Summit First reassertion of US hegemony and signing of an FTAA agreement on schedule second erosion of US hegemony but continuing negotiations between North and South America for a distant FTAA and finally breakdown of the FTAA negotiations and emergence of SAFTA as an alternative to the FTAA Regional Integration and the Global Trading System Kym Anderson, Richard Blackhurst, 1993 Discusses questions surrounding the relationship between regional integration agreements and the global trading system It has been revised following a conference at the GATT and forms part of the background material for a study in the GATT Secretariat's annual report International Trade The Harmonization of International Commercial Law Silvia Fazio, 2007-01-01 Preface 1 The World Scenario and the Approximation of Law 2 Vehicles for the Harmonisation of Law 3 Regionalisation and Standardisation of Law 4 Regional Corporate Law Harmonisation The EU and the Mercosur 5 The Infrastructure of Capital 6 The Phenomenon of Development International and Regional Approaches to Banking and Financial Law 7 Theories of the Company 8 Corporate Governance 9 International Legal Standards and the Inclusion of Emerging Countries in the Globalised Order The Case Study of Brazil 10 Conclusion Legal Pluralism and the Creation of Standards within the Process of Globalisation Analytical Summary and Theoretical and Practical Implications Bibliography International Business S. Belous, Jonathan Lemco, 1995-08-10 This book discusses the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA in terms of its implications for job creation reduced tariffs and increased investment Although the regional trading blocs merging in Europe North America and East Asia differ strikingly there is one basic feature common to each the formation of regional trading blocs involves a uniting of high and low wage areas The authors address this issue directly questioning whether NAFTA will promote upward or downward convergence of compensation rates unit labor costs and benefit levels Equally important they consider whether this trading arrangement will promote economic growth investment and efficiency Viewpoints from the U S Canada and Mexico and from the business and labor communities are included

Environment for Business: Strictly as per requirements of the Gujarat Technological University S. Tamer Cavusgil, Gary Knight, John R. Riesenberger, Regional Trading Blocs in the World Economic System Jeffrey A. Frankel, Ernesto Stein, Shang-Jin Wei, 1997 Covers trends from 1957 to 1995 The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism The Regionalization of the World

Economy Jeffrey A. Frankel, 2007-12-01 Regional economic arrangements such as free trade areas FTAs customs unions and currency blocs have become increasingly prevalent in the world economy Both pervasive and controversial regionalization has some economists optimistic about the opportunities it creates and others fearful that it may corrupt fragile efforts to encourage global free trade Including both empirical and theoretical studies this volume addresses several important questions Why do countries adopt FTAs and other regional trading arrangements To what extent have existing regional arrangements actually affected patterns of trade What are the welfare effects of such arrangements Several chapters explore the economic effects of regional arrangements on patterns of trade either on price differentials or via the gravity model on bilateral trade flows In addition this book examines the theoretical foundation of the gravity model Making extensive use of the gravity model of bilateral trade several chapters explore the economic effects of regional arrangements In addition this book examines the theoretical foundation of the gravity model      The Political Economy of East Asia Ming Wan, 2007-10-17 For students of international political economy it is hard to ignore the growth dynamism and global impact of East Asia Japan and China are two of the largest economies in the world in a region now accounting for almost 30 percent more trade than the United States Canada and Mexico combined What explains this increasing wealth and burgeoning power In his new text Ming Wan illustrates the diverse ways that the domestic politics and policies of countries within East Asia affect the region s production trade exchange rates and development and are in turn affected by global market forces and international institutions Unlike most other texts on East Asian political economy that are essentially comparisons of major individual countries Wan effectively integrates key thematic issues and country specific examples to present a comprehensive overview of East Asia s role in the world economy The text first takes a comparative look at the region s economic systems and institutions to explore their evolution a rich and complex story that looks beyond the response to Western pressures Later chapters are organized around close examination of production trade finance and monetary relations While featuring extended discussion of China Japan South Korea and Taiwan Wan is inclusive in his analysis with coverage including Myanmar Thailand Laos Vietnam Cambodia Malaysia Singapore Indonesia Brunei and the Philippines The text is richly illustrated with more than fifty tables figures and maps that present the latest economic and political data to help students better visualize trends and demographics Each chapter ends with extensive lists of suggested readings      Global Business Today Global Edition 8e Charles Hill, 2014-09-16 Global Business Today has been developed specifically to meet the needs of international students of business Written in a refreshing informative and accessible style it has become the most widely used text in the International Business market with its comprehensive and up to date contents focus on managerial implications and application of international business concepts and incorporation of ancillary resources that enliven the text and make it easier to teach In addition to boxed material which provides insightful illustrations in every chapter interesting anecdotes have been carefully weaved into the narrative of the text to engage the reader Enhancements to the Global Edition include New Country Focus boxes that provide background on the political economic social or cultural aspects of countries grappling with an international business issue to help raise students awareness of how national and geographic differences affect the conduct of international business such as Corruption in the Philippines and the Export Processing Zone Authority of Pakistan New Management Focus boxes that provide lively illustrations of the relevance of chapter material for the practice of international business including Patenting Basmati Rice and Expatriate Managers New Perspective boxes that provide additional context for chapter topics such as Market Economy in China Australian SMEs Embrace the Chinese Currency and Global Variations in Ownership Structure
