Regional Cooperation in Industry and Energy Arif A. Waqif,1991 The Contributors To This Volume Take Up These Two Fundamental Issues In The Context Of Specific Sub Sectors Of Industry And Energy Where Regional Economic Cooperation May Be Desirable And Feasible National And Regional Patterns Of Demand And Supply And Import Export Trade And Related Parameters Have Taken Into Account By The Contributors Energy and Environmental Outlook for South Asia Muhammad Asif,2021-01-07 South Asia constitutes a key geography in the world today considering its large population and related daunting energy and environmental challenges Many countries in the region are faced with a growing gap between energy demand and local resources resulting in an increased dependence on imports According to the International Energy Agency IEA the energy demand in South Asia will grow at a rate more than double that of the world average in the coming decades This book addresses the critical subject of energy and environmental outlook for South Asia and presents the wider challenges and the responses at the national and regional level Features Discusses and addresses the ongoing energy and environmental challenges faced by almost a quarter of the global population Includes dedicated chapters for each country and presents analysis and recommendations by regional experts Examines how deteriorating air quality and persistent natural disasters are severe environmental challenges for the region Discusses the implications of global warming and climate change for South Asia Includes practical case studies throughout Energy and Environmental Outlook for South Asia will benefit a wide range of stakeholders from various fields including but not limited to energy environment economics national security and sustainable development It also serves as a valuable resource for academics researchers analysts policymakers and representatives of utilities industry professional bodies financial institutions think tanks and developmental organizations to better plan their initiatives activities and policies It will help countries in the region and also those around the world by learning from shared experience and ideally by collaborating for energy and environmental prosperity The World Bank Devesh Kapur,John P. Lewis,Richard C. Webb,2010-12-01 This effort constitutes the most comprehensive and authoritative work to date on the history of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development or the World Bank Author editors John Lewis Richard Webb and Devesh Kapur chronicle the evolution of this institution and offer insights into its successes failures and prospects for the future The result of their intense labors is an invaluable resource for other researchers and a fascinating study in its own right The work is divided into two volumes The first is organized thematically and examines the critical events and policy issues in the World Bank s development over the last fifty years Chapter topics include poverty alleviation structural adjustment lending environmental programs the International Finance Corporation IFC the International Development Association IDA and the evolution of the Bank as an institution The second volume contains case studies written by experts with experience in the various regions in which the Bank operates There are chapters on the Bank s activities in Korea Mexico Africa South Asia and Eastern Europe Volume 2 also contains essays on the World Bank s

relationship with the United States Japan and Western Europe and its partnership with the International Monetary Fund IMF By special arrangement the authors have had wide ranging access to confidential documents at the World Bank making this work a unique source of information on the internal workings of this critical institution They have also drawn on extensive interviews with current and past Bank officials Moreover publication could not be more timely coming as it does when many in the development community and in the U S Congress are questioning the Bank s track record and even its reason for existence The World Bank Its First Half Century will be of great interest not only to development practitioners but also to students of international relations development economics and global finance During the course of the project John P Lewis and Richard Webb were nonresident senior fellows and Devesh Kapur was a program associate in the Foreign Policy Studies program at the Brookings Institution Lewis is professor emeritus at Princeton University and formerly served as chairman of the Overseas Development Council Webb is managing director of Instituto Cuanto and formerly served as governor at the Central Reserve Bank of Peru and governor at the International Monetary Fund

Integrating Services in South Asia

Rupa Chanda,2010-12-01 In this era of globalization every region and country in the world is pursuing some kind of integration to further its economic geo political and strategic interests This book explores the prospects for and challenges to services integration in South Asia through an in depth analysis of services such as telecommunications energy tourism health and education Identifying trends in performance policy issues and the status of intra regional trade and investment initiatives the book argues the case for services integration under the South Asian Free Trade Area SAFTA It also stresses the need to address cross cutting issues of regional mobility of service providers taxes transport trade research and development and regulatory cooperation Expanding the existing work on South Asian integration to cover services from an intra regional perspective this book is an important reference for future academic and policy work in South Asia The industry country and regional level statistics provided by the book serve as a useful resource for taking stock of output employment trade and investment in services in this region

Re-imagining Border Studies in South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi,2020-12-23 This book presents a radical rethinking of Border Studies Framing the discipline beyond conventional topics of spatiality and territoriality it presents a distinctly South Asian perspective a post colonial and post partition region where most borders were drawn with political motives ignoring the socio cultural realities of the region and economic necessities of the people The authors argue that while securing borders is an essential function of the state in this interconnected world crossing borders and border cooperation is also necessary The book examines contemporaneous and topical themes like disputes of identity and nationhood the impact of social media on Border Studies trans border cooperation water sharing between countries and resolution of border problems in the age of liberalisation and globalisation It also suggests ways of enhancing cross border economic cooperation and connectivity and reviews security issues from a new perspective Well supplemented with case studies the book will serve as an indispensable text for scholars and researchers of Border Studies military and strategic studies international relations geopolitics and South Asian studies It will also be of great interest to think tanks and government agencies especially those dealing with foreign relations International Bibliography of Economics British Library of Political and Economic Science,1993 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Exploring Regional Security, South and Central Asia Bhaskar Chakrabarty,2003 Contributed articles

South Asia Trade and Energy Security Narottam P. Banskota,2012 Today policy makers in both developed and developing countries are pursuing regionalization as a means to achieve easier market access economies of scale and welfare gains South Asia Trade and Energy Security explains how regional economic cooperation in trade and energy security could help facilitate the economic transformation of the region reducing poverty and expanding production Currently intra regional trade in South Asia is constrained by tariff and non tariff barriers A fully functional free trade area as envisaged in the South Asian Free Trade Area agreement has yet to be realized This book explains the current patterns and limitations of energy trade between countries in South Asia and how the growing demand for energy could be met by working closely with energy rich Iran Burma and Central Asian countries Cross border cooperation between India and China Chinese investment in Tibet and Xinjiang and water relations are also discussed Policymakers geopolitical strategists and academics working in Asian Studies will appreciate this detailed analysis of how globalization and regional cooperation in trade and energy are playing a transformative role in South Asia s economic development Energy Security Cooperation in Northeast Asia Bo

Kong,Jae H. Ku,2015-04-24 Drawing on cutting edge research from leading scholars this book investigates state preferences for regime creation and assesses state capacity for executing these preferences in Northeast Asia s energy domain defined as the geographical area comprising the following countries Russia Mongolia China Japan South Korea and North Korea It examines questions pertaining to how states perceive the need and necessity for establishing a regime when it comes to the issue of energy and how much commitment they make to the effort in Northeast Asia The book analyses the factors that shape each country s fundamental energy interests in the region how these interests impact their attitudes toward engaging the region on energy security and the way they carry out their regional engagement Based on countries interests in promoting institutionalized regional energy cooperation and their capacity for forging that cooperation the collection assesses each state s role in contributing to an energy regime in Northeast Asia It then concludes with a critique on the decade plus quest for energy security cooperation in Northeast Asia and suggests ways forward for facilitating regional energy security cooperation This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of environmental policy energy policy security studies Asian studies and international relations The Hindu Kush Himalaya Assessment Philippus Wester,Arabinda Mishra,Aditi Mukherji,Arun Bhakta Shrestha,2019-01-04 This open access volume is the first comprehensive assessment of the Hindu Kush Himalaya HKH region It comprises important scientific research on the social economic and environmental pillars of sustainable mountain development and will serve as a basis for evidence based decision making to safeguard the environment and advance people s well being The compiled content is based on the collective knowledge of over 300 leading researchers experts and policymakers brought together by the Hindu Kush Himalayan Monitoring and Assessment Programme HIMAP under the coordination of the International Centre for Integrated Mountain Development ICIMOD This assessment was conducted between 2013 and 2017 as the first of a series of monitoring and assessment reports under the guidance of the HIMAP Steering Committee Eklabya Sharma ICIMOD Atiq Raman Bangladesh Yuba Raj Khatiwada Nepal Linxiu Zhang China Surendra Pratap Singh India Tandong Yao China and David Molden ICIMOD and Chair of the HIMAP SC This First HKH Assessment Report consists of 16 chapters which comprehensively assess the current state of knowledge of the HKH region increase the understanding of various drivers of change and their impacts address critical data gaps and develop a set of evidence based and actionable policy solutions and recommendations These are linked to nine mountain priorities for the mountains and people of the HKH consistent with the Sustainable Development Goals This book is a must read for policy makers academics and students interested in this important region and an essentially important resource for contributors to global assessments such as the IPCC reports

Energy Trade in South Asia Sultan Hafeez Rahman, Priyantha D. C. Wijayatunga, Herath Gunatilake, P. N. Fernando, 2011-12-01 The South Asia Regional Energy Study was completed as an important component of the technical assistance project Preparing the Energy Sector Dialogue and South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation Energy Center Capacity Development It involved examining regional energy trade opportunities among all the member states of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation The study provides interventions to improve regional energy cooperation in different timescales including specific infrastructure projects which can be implemented during these periods

South Asian Economic Development Moazzem Hossain, Rajat Kathuria, Iyanatul Islam, 2010 South Asia s developing nations have been enjoying moderate to high growth over the past decade before the global recession began This new edition provides an up to date guide to the growing markets in South Asia It offers an analysis of the changes and consequences of high sustainable growth investigating what has been achieved in the region during the last ten years from a macroeconomic viewpoint identifying new challenges and clearly defining what has driven the boom The first part of the textbook presents an analysis of how South Asia is rated against Southeast and East Asia in recent decades in economic and social terms The second part of the text focuses on South Asia s economic development over 1990s and mid 2000s and the third and final part identifies those major governance issues which were responsible for South Asia s underperformance both socially and economically It is widely recognised that globalisation enhanced global trade and that trade further increased the region s prosperity Embracing the view that economists can no longer regard themselves as technocratic guardians of neutral policy advice the book advocates for a shift in focus from policy reform per se to the more challenging task of implementing institutional reform that will invigorate the capability of the political leadership to bring about rapid sustained and poverty reducing growth in South Asia The central task would be to re direct the focus of governments in South Asia in order to ensure that the core functions of the state stable non distortionary policy climate a secure foundation of law investment in basic education health and infrastructure protection of the vulnerable and adapting with the climate change are efficiently provided At the same time the reform agenda must be sensitive to the goal of ensuring that durable democratic institutions traditions and values are preserved This is a fundamental challenge but one that must be met in order to secure the emergence of a prosperous South Asia in the early part of the twenty first century This textbook will be useful for students and researchers in Development Economics Business Economics Development Studies and Asian Studies Energy Issues in the Asia-Pacific Region Amy Lugg, Mark Hong, 2010 It comprises papers based on the seminars delivered by speakers at the ISEAS Energy Forum Preface Land Law and the Extractive Industries Victoria R Nalule, 2021-08-26 This book analyses the nexus between land access and the extractive industries in Africa specifically highlighting the gaps in energy land and mining laws and the practical solutions needed to settle the increasing number of land disputes in resource rich areas Access to land is essential for the successful operation of energy and mining projects However there are often social environmental and economic issues associated with acquiring land for these projects Socially many people are relocated economically local communities are not given adequate compensation environmentally pollution negatively impacts on the agricultural and fishing industries relied on by over 80% of the local communities Against this stark background and drawing from the author's fieldwork research this book addresses the important question of whether the different land tenure systems coupled with administration and registration procedures are adequate to address the increasing land disputes in oil and mineral rich African countries Energy Efficiency in South Asia Asian Development Bank, 2021-12-01 This report reviews the energy landscape in Bangladesh Bhutan India Nepal and Sri Lanka with the aim of supporting improved energy efficiency in these South Asian countries It analyzes the growth of energy consumption in each of the five countries as well as their major energy efficiency institutional arrangements policies initiatives and programs Key sectors with the potential for significant energy reduction are identified for Bangladesh Bhutan Nepal and Sri Lanka Opportunities to enhance regional cooperation in energy efficiency and conservation in South Asia are also explored Opportunities and Challenges for the Greater Mekong Subregion Charles Samuel Johnston, Xin Chen, 2020-01-29 The Mekong River is a vital and valuable resource with huge development potential for the six states through which it flows Given the significant asymmetry of power between those states however there is a real risk that some might utilise it to the detriment of others Without a sense of regional belonging it is difficult to imagine that these states and their constituent communities will take regional imperatives to heart participate in joint regulatory frameworks or adopt behaviours for upstream downstream and lateral cooperation over the appropriation and use of their shared resources How effectively has closer interdependence of the Mekong countries accommodated the development of a political social cultural space conducive to the growth of a regional we ness among not only political elites but also the general public The contributors to this volume approach this question from a range of directions including the impacts of tourism regional development programmes the Mekong Power Grid and Sino US rivalry This edited volume presents valuable insights for scholars of international relations Asian studies development studies environment studies policy studies and human geography Development Abstracts ,1993 Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1987-07 Energy Outlook for Asia and the Pacific 2009 Asian Development Bank,2009-10-01 This report attempts to project the balance between energy demand and supply for the 48 regional members of the Asian Development Bank However due to the unavailability of energy data the Marshall Islands the Federated States of Micronesia and Tuvalu are not included in the study The outlook results are presented by member by subregion and by region Based on the projected energy demand and supply carbon dioxide emissions and investment requirements are derived These will offer a basis for policy making and development planning geared toward sustainable economic development in the regional members in Asia and the Pacific The Chinese Shadow on India's Eastward Engagement Sanjay K. Bhardwaj,2021-07-12 India one of the largest importers of oil in the world has been diversifying its energy resource options and moving towards greater energy security This book analyses India s potential for building energy ties in the Asia Pacific considering the global and regional power politics Facing China s growing influence in Asia India s eastward engagement with its extended neighbours has been entrenched in its Act East Policy and institutional commitments towards Southeast Asia This volume focuses on diverse facets of energy security beyond the traditional understanding of demand and supply and price and stability It examines India s energy sector its dependence on hydrocarbons and the push towards renewable and alternate energy resources It further looks at the strategic importance of the Indian Ocean and South China Sea regions in geopolitical negotiations from an energy perspective and how China s influence in the region will affect India s moves towards greater energy cooperation with the countries of East Asia With contributions by leading experts the volume seeks to fill a major void in this theme and cater to the needs of a variety of audiences including academics policymakers and experts in international relations geopolitics and geoeconomics and professionals in the field of energy studies
