Regional Integration In South Asia Perspectives And Prospects:

Regional Integration in South Asia M. Mahmood, 1987 Regional Integration in South Asia Mohammad A Razzaque, Yurendra Basnett, 2014 Regional Integration in South Asia Trends Challenges and Prospects presents an objective assessment of trade and economic co operation among South Asian nations and highlights policy issues to foster regional integration The analyses presented in this volume go beyond the usual discussions on trade in goods to provide insightful perspectives on potential new areas of co operation emerging challenges and country specific views on regional and bilateral trade co operation issues Written by influential analysts and researchers the volume s 24 chapters include perspectives from Bangladesh India Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka and examinations of new areas of co operation such as investment regional supply chains energy and cross border transport networks Regional Integration in the Asia Pacific Issues and Prospects OECD, The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre at the University of South Australia, 2005-04-28 This report published by the OECD s International Futures Programme in co operation with the Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre in Australia aims to stimulate informed debate about the main integration issues facing the Asia Pacific region in the Trade and Regional Integration in South Asia Selim Raihan, Prabir De, 2020-04-27 Gathering contributions from leading academics and international trade experts from South Asia this book is dedicated to the late Dr Saman Kelegma whose untimely death in June 2017 left a huge void in the field of regional economic cooperation Keeping in mind his enduring legacy regarding regional cooperation in South Asia it covers issues related to the challenges of deeper regional integration in South Asia and proposes strategies to address these challenges It also offers an up to date rigorous academic analysis of various issues related to low intra regional trade in South Asia prevalence of tariff barriers incidence of a range of non tariff measures challenges of weak trade related infrastructure and the need for trade facilitation the political economics of regional integration highlighting how bilateral political relations affect the integration process low level of intra regional investment South Asia s pattern of integration with the global and regional value chains pattern and dominance of informal trade and alternative regional integration initiatives in South Asia such as the bilateral regional and sub regional trade agreements within and countries outside this region Intended primarily for researchers and students of international trade and policymakers from South Asia and beyond the book is also a valuable supplementary reference resource for researchers and students Furthermore the pragmatic analysis of the policy options presented offers guidance for policymakers in South Asia wanting to implement effective policies and strategies for deeper regional integration Strengthening Regional Trade Integration in South Asia Owais Hasan Khan, 2021-03-05 This book brings forth the philosophical conceptual and practical contours of the trade regionalism provisions under the GATT WTO It analyses SAARC as the regional integration organisation of South Asia along with identifying major challenges and bottlenecks faced by it in the process of achieving regional integration It presents ways and methods through which SAARC can be made a more effective regional organisation The book predominantly focuses on trade regionalism. However, other areas of integration which have impacts on the trade regionalism are also examined like social and political integrations etc. The book takes off from the premise that trade regionalism under SAARC has failed and has been marred by political and security concerns among its member nations. It has failed to achieve its objective on all the three counts which are promoting peace, development and economic cooperation. However, with the developing countries as members, SAARC has great potential for trade integration. Certain structural, normative and organisational alteration along with favourable ideation can still make SAARC achieve its full potential. The book also deals with the comparative analysis of SAARC regional integration with the regional integration under European Union and ASEAN. Regarding comparative regionalism, the discussion has been confined only to the EU and ASEAN. The EU has been chosen because it is comparatively established as one of the most successful regional organisations in the contemporary world. Whereas ASEAN has been chosen because of its similarity to the SAARC's economy, society and political structure. The analysis presented in the book is from the perspectives of international law and international relations theories and practice. This book thus is of particular relevance to the students, researchers, academicians, policymakers and practitioners of international trade law, international relations and South Asian studies. Regionalism in South Asia Kishore C.

Dash, 2008-02-19. The dramatic surge in regional integration schemes over the past two decades has been one of the most important developments in world politics. This book examines regionalism in South Asia, exploring the linkages between institutional structures, government capabilities and domestic actors' preferences to explain the dynamics of regional cooperation. Accessions List, South Asia Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, New Delhi, 1988-07. Records publications acquired from Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka by the U.S. Library of Congress Offices in New Delhi, India and Karachi, Pakistan. Re-imagining Border Studies in South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi, 2020-12-24. This book presents a radical rethinking of Border Studies. Framing the discipline beyond conventional topics of spatiality and territoriality, it presents a distinctly South Asian perspective, a post-colonial and post-partition region where most borders were drawn with political motives, ignoring the socio-cultural realities of the region and economic necessities of the people. The authors argue that while securing borders is an essential function of the state in this interconnected world, crossing borders and border cooperation is also necessary. The book examines contemporaneous and topical themes like disputes of identity and nationhood, the impact of social media on Border Studies, trans-border cooperation, water sharing between countries and resolution of border problems in the age of liberalisation and globalisation. It also suggests ways of enhancing cross-border economic cooperation and connectivity and reviews security issues from a new perspective. Well supplemented with case studies, the book will serve as an indispensable text for scholars and researchers of Border Studies, military and strategic studies, international relations, geopolitics and South Asian studies. It will also be of great interest to think tanks and government agencies, especially those dealing with foreign relations. Political Economic Perspectives of China's Belt and Road Initiative Christian Ploberger, 2019-07-30 The book begins with an overview on China's Belt and Road Initiative highlighting its complex character as a domestic and international development strategy and offering an up to date evaluation of it In response to this complexity the book attempts to highlight the Belt and Road Initiative's double character and how it will address primary domestic development challenges that the Chinese government is facing by adding an international focus to a domestic development strategy This in turn supports the understanding of China's political economic policy and strategy formulation by reminding that supporting China's domestic development is still the primary task of its government Even as the domestic aspect of the Belt and Road Initiative is highlighted its regional and international relevance cannot be ignored either The Belt and Road Initiative will support a continuation of the persisting debate about the impact that China's rise generates and to what extent China can be characterised as a satisfied status quo power or a dissatisfied revisionist power In this context the book draws attention to the various impacts that the Belt and Road Initiative generates in different regional settings However the book also identifies some of the limitations that China's Belt and Road Initiative encounters despite the seemingly convincing economic goals it offers and explains why a few of the countries like India are resisting the lure

Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed, 2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism

India's Spatial Imaginations of South Asia Shibashis Chatterjee, 2018-12-14 Since India attained independence its foreign policy discourse has imagined its South Asian neighbourhood through the politics of realism This imagination explicates state interest in South Asia by establishing it as a space of sovereign territoriality Even today India's foreign and security policies are primarily shaped by geopolitical centrism and remain unaffected by economic prosperity and community concerns As a part of the Oxford International Relations in South Asia series this volume examines alternative conceptions of South Asian space in terms of geo economics and community and justifies why they have been unable to replace its dominant understanding irrespective of the political regime This volume probes reasons behind the relevance of differentiated cartography of territorial nationalism in our shared understanding of space politics society and the community Routledge Handbook of Asia in World Politics Teh-Kuang Chang, Angelin Chang, 2017-10-02 Asia is a complex and diverse continent which has seen the scope and pace of transformation increase rapidly over the past 30 years In turn the economic growth and social change seen in the region combined with new global security profiles and environmental challenges have contributed to placing Asia at the forefront of international affairs This Handbook brings together leading scholars of different disciplines including Politics and International Relations Security Studies and Law to provide a comprehensive analysis of both the prospects and problems which have emerged from Asia s rise Examining how developments across the continent have influenced global politics and how the region has responded to the international community in the modern era the sections cover Major actors in Asian politics especially China Japan and India International relations in Asia and intra Asian tensions Special issues of world politics in Asia including modern conflicts in and attitudes towards the Middle East The Routledge Handbook of Asia in World Politics will be useful to students and scholars of Global Politics International Relations and Asian Studies Resilient States from a Comparative Regional Perspective Francois Bafoil, 2013 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the transformation which the newest members of ASEAN Cambodia Laos Myanmar and Laos and the newest members of EU ten new Members from Baltic Central and Eastern Balkan regions have experienced during the last two decades 1990 2010

Articles can also be set as readings for students on taught courses.

Constructing a Security Community in Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2014-03-26. In this third edition of Constructing a Security Community in Southeast Asia, Amitav Acharya offers a comprehensive and critical account of the evolution of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) norms and the viability of the ASEAN way of conflict management. Building on the framework from the first edition, which inspired the establishment of the ASEAN Political Security community, this new edition has been extensively updated and revised based on new primary sources that are not publicly available. Updates for this edition include: Expanded and updated coverage of the South China Sea Conflict and how it affects regional order and tests ASEAN unity; Analysis of new developments in the US role in the region, including ASEAN's place and role in the US pivot/rebalancing strategy and the evolution of the East Asian Community; the newest summit level multilateral group; Extensive analysis of the ASEAN Political Security community; An examination of US-China relations and China-ASEAN relations; Coverage of ASEAN's institutional development and the controversy over reform of the ASEAN Secretariat; An updated outlook on ASEAN's future as a security community and the issue of ASEAN Centrality in the regional security architecture. The new edition will continue to appeal to students and scholars of Asian security, international relations theory and Southeast Asian studies as well as policymakers and the media.

South Asia Trade and Energy Security Narottam P. Banskota, 2012. Today policy makers in both developed and developing countries are pursuing regionalization as a means to achieve easier market access, economies of scale and welfare gains. South Asia Trade and Energy Security explains how regional economic cooperation in trade and energy security could help facilitate the economic transformation of the region, reducing poverty and expanding production. Currently, intra-regional trade in South Asia is constrained by tariff and non-tariff barriers. A fully functional free trade area, as envisaged in the South Asian Free Trade Area agreement has yet to be realized This book explains the current patterns and limitations of energy trade between countries in South Asia and how the growing demand for energy could be met by working closely with energy rich Iran Burma and Central Asian countries Cross border cooperation between India and China Chinese investment in Tibet and Xinxiang and water relations are also discussed Policymakers geopolitical strategists and academics working in Asian Studies will appreciate this detailed analysis of how globalization and regional cooperation in trade and energy are playing a transformative role in South Asia s economic development Economic Outlook for Southeast Asia, China and India 2016 Enhancing Regional Ties OECD,2016-01-22 The annual Economic Outlook for Southeast Asia China and India examines Asia s regional economic growth development and regional integration process Regional Trade And Economic Integration: Analytical Insights And Policy Options Ram Upendra Das,Piyadasa Edirisuriya,Anoop Swarup,2012-05-21 The Asia Pacific region has emerged as a dominant player in trade and will continue to be an influential pole of world trade and economics with the center of gravity shifting to this region This book presents analytical insights into the various regional and bilateral trade agreements RTAs and their beneficial effects on bilateral trade and development It provides an incisive analysis and a roundup of all major RTAs and also presents an overview of all major agreements between the countries involved which might propel their trade flows and influence future economic engagements The book in a novel way also discusses possible obstacles that are encountered during the implementation of RTAs and circumvention routes once those taken into account could ensure the successful execution of the agreements The book dwells on the issue of regionalism and multilateralism with reference to General Agreements on Trade and Tariffs and World Trade Organisation which have revolutionized the trade dynamics by opening up new areas of trade rules and formulating specific policy guidelines for the member countries to adhere to during trade negotiations The book also provides new insights into some of the issues of negotiations such as sensitive lists trade and investment cooperation including trade in services rules of origin non tariff barriers anti dumping etc The book also focuses on policy instruments that could convert trade gains to development gains The existing economic cooperation arrangements in the region as well as those that are at various stages of study and negotiations empirical insights and policy suggestions are elucidated in detail a
