Regionalization In Africa Integration And Disintegration:

Regionalisation in Africa Daniel Bach,1999 by including accounts of the flows of goods and people that take place informally and frequently illegally Bach has lifted the lid on a little observed but vitally important aspect of contemporary African life International Affairs The dynamics of integration and disintegration in sub Saharan Africa at the end of the millennium result from a combination of upheavals in the international system since the end of the Cold War and the crisis of the state within Africa itself

Regionalism and Regional Integration in Africa Nordiska Afrikainstitutet,2001 The contributions identify and review current issues of regionalism and regional integration within the era of globalization in the African context Their approaches present different theoretical and regional perspectives which provide new insights challenge existing concepts and perceptions and contribute to an enriched debate

African Regional Trade Agreements as Legal Regimes James Thuo Gathii,2011-07-21 African regional trade integration has grown exponentially in the last decade This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the legal framework within which it is being pursued It will fill a huge knowledge gap and serve as an invaluable teaching and research tool for policy makers in the public and private sectors teachers researchers and students of African trade and beyond The author argues that African Regional Trade Agreements RTAs are best understood as flexible legal regimes particularly given their commitment to variable geometry and multiple memberships He analyzes the progress made toward trade liberalization in each region how the RTAs are financed their trade remedy and judicial regimes and how well they measure up to Article XXIV of GATT The book also covers monetary unions as well as intra African regional integration and examines free trade agreements with non African regions including the Economic Partnership Agreements with the European Union

The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum,2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism

Regionalism in Africa Daniel C Bach,2015-12-22 Africa which was not long ago discarded as a hopeless and irrelevant region has become a new frontier for global trade investment and the conduct of international relations This book surveys the socio economic intellectual and security related dimensions of African regionalisms since the turn of the 20th century It argues that the continent deserves to be considered as a crucible for conceptualizing and contextualizing the ongoing influence of colonial policies the emergence of specific integration and security cultures the spread of cross border regionalisation processes at the expense of region building the interplay between territory space and trans state networks and the intrinsic ambivalence of global frontier narratives This is emphasized through the identification of distinctive threads of regionalism which by focusing on genealogies trajectories and ideals transcend the binary divide between old and new regionalisms In doing so the book opens new perspectives not only on Africa in international relations but also Africa s own international relations This text will be of key interest to students and scholars of African politics African history regionalism comparative regionalism and more broadly to international political economy international relations and global and regional governance

Capitalism and Economic Crime in Africa Jörg Wiegratz, 2024-06-21 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of economic crimes and market irregularities including matters of trickery parallel economy illicit trade economies of violence and criminalisation of the poor in neoliberal Africa It investigates economic crime as a phenomenon of neoliberal reform and transformation and it unpacks crime as a societal and particularly as a political economic phenomenon under capitalism The book brings together a collection of research articles briefings and updated blog posts that were published over a period of nearly 40 years 1986 2023 in the acclaimed journal Review of African Political Economy ROAPE and on its website roape net Featuring contributions from leading experts in the field including a foreword by Yusuf K Serunkuma and an afterword by Laureen Snider this volume explores what these crimes have to do with and can tell us about state business relations regulation capitalist transformation and the corporation on the continent shedding light on the co production of the crimes by a range of actors from the realms of business politics state and international development including major reform advocates such as international financial institutions IFIs and other donors It responds to the imperative to advance the analysis of the link between capitalism and crime in Africa and to locate capitalism more centrally in the analysis of economic crimes as more African countries move from being societies with capitalism to capitalist societies Illustrating the relevance of African countries to debates in criminology corporate crime state crime crimes of the powerful and illegality this volume engages with and mobilises a variety of literatures to analyse economic crimes as phenomena of global and local capitalism and provides readers from academia government business media civil society and education a striking source of information and analysis

Regionalism and Human Protection Charles T. Hunt, Noel M. Morada, 2018-11-26 This book provides a detailed examination of how norms concerning human rights civilian protection and prevention of mass atrocities have fared in the regions of Southeast Asia and Africa Originated as a spin off of the journal GR2P vol 8 2 3 2016 it has been enriched with new chapters and revised contents which contrast the different experiences of those regions and investigates the expression of human protection norms in regional organisations and thematic policy agendas as well as the role of civil society mechanisms processes Hunt and Morada have brought together scholar practitioners from across the world The collection identifies a range of insights that provide rich opportunities for south south exchange and mutual learning when it comes to promoting and building capacity for human protection at the regional level
