Reindeer Camp:

Multispecies Households in the Saian Mountains Alex Oehler, Anna Varfolomeeva, 2019-12-16 Multispecies Households in the Saian Mountains brings together new ethnographic insights from the mountains of Southern Siberia and Mongolia Contributors to this edited collection examine Indigenous ideas of what it means to make a home alongside animals and spirits in changing alpine and subalpine environments Set in the Eastern Saian Mountain Region of South Central Siberia and northern Mongolia this book covers an area famous for its claim as the birthplace of Eurasian reindeer domestication Going beyond reindeer the contributors explore the less known roles of yaks horses wolves fish as well as spirits of place and many other sentient beings all of which co constitute local notions of home places The contributors extend their analysis beyond conventional categories of wild and tame in a region that is increasingly hostile toward its own inhabitants due to global efforts to create protected nature reserves Using ethnographic nuance the contributors highlight the many connections between humans and other species stressing the networks of relationships that transcend idioms of dominance or mutualism This book is recommended for students and scholars of anthropology environmental studies and Asian studies Bulletin ,1914 Bulletin United States. Office of Education,1914 Beyond Wild and Tame Alex C. Oehler,2020-04-09 Responding to recent scholarship this book examines animal domestication and offers a Soiot approach to animals and landscapes which transcends the wild tame dichotomy Following herder hunters of the Eastern Saian Mountains in southern Siberia the author examines how Soiot and Tofa households embrace unpredictability recognize sentience and encourage autonomy in all their relations with animals spirits and land features It is an ethnography intended to help us reinvent our relations with the earth in unpredictable times Chasing the Dark, Perspectives on Place, History and Alaska Native Land Claims, Shadowlands, Vol. 1, January 2009 ,2009 Chasing the Dark Kenneth L. Pratt,2009 The program that ultimately developed in response to Section 14 h 1 of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act ANCSA resulted in the largest and most diverse single collection of information ever compiled about the history and cultures of Alaska Natives Through this publication the Bureau of Indian Affairs seeks to both increase public awareness of this important program and offer a glimpse of the valuable information the agency maintains concerning Alaska history and the traditions of Alaska Native peoples Ed preface Under the rays of the aurora borealis: in the land of the Lapps and Kvæns [tr. and] ed. by C. Siewers Sophus Tromholt,1885 Ciulirnerunak Yuuyaqunak/Do Not Live Without an Elder Ann Fienup-Riordan,2016-10-15 In October of 2010 six men who were serving on the board of the Calista Elders Council CEC gathered in Anchorage with CEC staff to spend three days speaking about the subsistence way of life The men shared stories of their early years growing up on the land and harvesting through the seasons and the dangers they encountered there The gathering was striking for its regional breadth as elders came from the Bering Sea coast as well as the Yukon and Kuskokwim rivers And while their accounts had some commonalities they also served to demonstrate the wide range of different approaches to subsistence in different regions This book gathers the men s stories for the current generation and those to come Taken together they become more than simply oral histories rather they testify to the importance of transmitting memories and culture and of preserving knowledge of vanishing ways of life Under the Rays of the Aurora Borealis
