Reinventing Reality The Art And Life Of Rouben Mamoulian:

Reinventing Reality Mark Spergel, 1993 Theatre and film director Rouben Mamoulian 1897-1987 is known chiefly as a technical innovator and stylist. His stage credits include the original Broadway productions of Porgy and Bess 1935 and Oklahoma 1943; his sixteen completed films include Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde 1931, Golden Boy 1939, The Mark of Zorro 1940 and Silk Stockings 1957. In the theatre, Mamoulian integrated the various contributory arts of the American musical, transforming the near variety show format of musicals into a dramatic unity of plot, character, music and dance. He thus opened the stage to what would later be termed the golden age of the American book musical of the 1950s and 60s. In early sound films, Mamoulian restored mobility to the camera, rediscovered montage, redefined close-ups, split screen and dissolves, invented the voice over and was first to use multitrack sound recording. He directed the first live action Technicolor film Becky Sharp 1935. Spergel introduces previously undisclosed personal documents about Mamoulian that necessitate a re-examination of Mamoulian's own statements about his life. He shows that the central theme in Mamoulian's art and life, as he describes it, to overcome the world and embrace truth, extended to the telling of his own history. Mamoulian believed he could alter that history through stylized presentation, idealizing the truth and thereby raising numerous questions about historiography in general.

"On My Way": The Untold Story of Rouben Mamoulian, George Gershwin, and Porgy and Bess Joseph Horowitz, 2013-07-29. A revelatory history of the operatic masterpiece that both made and destroyed Rouben Mamoulian, its director and unsung hero. Bring my goat, Porgy exclaims in the final scene of Gershwin's opera Porgy and Bess, Bess, whom he loves, has left for New York City and he's determined to find her. When his request is met with astonishment, New York is a great distance from South Carolina's Catfish Row. Porgy remains undaunted. He mounts his goat cart and leads the community in an ecstatic finale. Oh Lawd I'm on my way. Stephen Sondheim has called Bring my goat one of the most moving moments in musical theater history. For years it was assumed that DuBose Heyward, the author of the seminal novella and subsequent play Porgy, and later the librettist for the opera Porgy and Bess, penned this historic line. In fact, both it and Oh Lawd I'm on my way were added to the play eight years earlier by that production's unheralded architect, Rouben Mamoulian. Porgy and Bess, as we know it, would not exist without the contributions of this master director. Culling new information from the recently opened Mamoulian Archives at the Library of Congress award-winning author Joseph Horowitz shows that more than anyone else, Mamoulian took Heyward's vignette of a regional African American subculture and transformed it into an epic theater work, a universal parable of suffering and redemption. Part biography, part revelatory history, On My Way re-creates Mamoulian's visionary style on stage and screen, his collaboration with George Gershwin and the genesis of the opera that changed the face of American musical life.
