

salvation (11:33–36). Especially in chapters 2–15 the letter gives many specific applications to life, showing how the gospel works out in practice both in the church and in the world. Finally, we can even learn to imitate Paul's deeply personal care for many individual believers (ch. 16).

Christ Revealed. The whole epistle is the story of God's plan of redemption in Christ: the need for it (1:18–3:20), the detailed description of Christ's work and its implications for Christians (3:1–11:36), and the application of the gospel of Christ to everyday life (12:1–16:27).

More specifically, Jesus Christ is our Savior, who obeyed God perfectly as our representative (5:18, 19), and who died as our substitute sacrifice (3:25; 5:6, 8). He is the One in whom we must have faith for salvation (1:16, 17; 3:22; 10:9, 10). Through Christ we have many blessings: reconciliation to God (5:11); righteousness and eternal life (5:18–21); identification with Him in His death, burial, and resurrection (6:3–5); being alive to God (6:11); freedoms from condemnation (8:1); eternal inheritance (8:17); suffering with Him (8:17); being glorified with Him (8:17); being made like Him (8:29); and the fact that He even now prays for us (8:34). Indeed, all of the Christian life seems to be lived through Him: prayer (1:8), rejoicing (5:11), exhortation (15:30), glorifying God (16:27), and, in general, living to God and obeying Him (6:11; 13:14).

The Holy Spirit at Work. The Holy Spirit gives power in preaching the gospel and in working miracles (15:19), dwells in all who belong to Christ (8:9–11), and gives us life (8:11). He also makes us progressively more holy in daily life, empowering us to obey God and overcome sin (2:29; 7:6; 8:2, 13; 15:13, 16), giving us a pattern of holiness to follow (8:4), guiding us in it (8:14), and purifying our consciences to bear true witness (9:1). The Holy Spirit pours God's love into our hearts (5:5; 15:30), along with joy, peace, and hope by His power (14:17; 15:13). He enables us to pray rightly (8:26) and to call God our Father, thereby giving inward spiritual assurance that we are God's children (8:16). We are to set our minds on the things of the Spirit if we wish to be pleasing to God (8:5, 6). Though Paul discusses spiritual gifts briefly in Romans (12:3–8), he makes no explicit mention of the Holy Spirit in connection with these gifts, except to refer to them as "spiritual" (or "of the Spirit") in 1:11. The present work of the Holy Spirit in us is only a foretaste of His future heavenly work in us (8:23).

Knowing the Scriptures Arthur T. Pierson,1910 Teachings and Studies by Topic of the New Testament Miguel Moreno,2023-01-05 When I first became a Christian and for the first twenty two years of my life with Christ I didn t know that I didn t know that I wasn t a mature Christian I was not taught how to and what it took to grow spiritually and become a spiritually mature Christian But even so I still thought that I was a mature Christian After all in all those years I had come to know and learned a lot of things about the Bible God s Word and about God I even served Him What I didn t know was that my growth was merely intellectual but not spiritual It wasn t until after twenty two years that God in His love through His Word and with the help of His Holy Spirit taught me what it really took for me to grow spiritually He taught me the things I needed to go through in order to understand what it takes to become a spiritual mature Christian as well as a true servant of God Now He is using me to share His studies in this book so He can help many Christians understand the importance and what it takes to start growing spiritually not just intellectually from the moment they believe and receive Jesus as their Savior and Lord as well as the dangers of becoming stagnant or allowing the enemy to take them to a state of conformism in their own spiritual growth According to Ephesians 4 13 15 God wants us to get all the way to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ that we all may grow up in all things into Him who is the head Christ So I pray that as you read and study this book with the help of the Holy Spirit and God s Word God will show you and help you understand what it takes for you to grow spiritually until you become spiritually mature and until you get to the fullness of Christ so you can become everything that He wants you to become Standard Lesson Commentary New International Version 1996-1997 Standard
