Who Are the Jews--And Who Can We Become? Donniel Hartman, 2023-11 2023 National Jewish Book Award Finalist in Modern Jewish Thought and Experience Who Are the Jews And Who Can We Become tackles perhaps the most urgent question facing the Jewish people today Given unprecedented denominational tribalism how can we Jews speak of ourselves in collective terms Crucially the way each of us tells our shared story is putting our collective identity at risk Donniel Hartman argues We need a new story built on Judaism's foundations and poised to inspire a majority of Jews to listen discuss and retell it This book is that story Since our beginnings Hartman explains the Jewish identity meta narrative has been a living synthesis of two competing religious covenants Genesis Judaism which defines Jewishness in terms of who one is and the group to which one belongs independent of what one does or believes and Exodus Judaism which grounds identity in terms of one's relationship with an aspirational system of values ideals beliefs commandments and behaviors When one narrative becomes too dominant Jewish collective identity becomes distorted Conversely when Genesis and Exodus interplay the sparks of a rich compelling identity are found Hartman deftly applies this Genesis Exodus meta narrative as a roadmap to addressing contemporary challenges including Diaspora Jewry's eroding relationship with Israel the othering of Israeli Palestinians interfaith marriage the Israeli Palestinian conflict and collectively who we Jews can become

Property and the Environment explores how an alternative conception of property might be instead grounded in the ecocentric concept of an Earth community Recognising that human beings are deeply interconnected with and dependent on nature this concept is proposed as a standard and measure for human law This book argues that the anthropocentric institution of private property needs to be reconceived drawing on international case law indigenous views of property and the land use practices of agrarian communities Peter Burdon considers how private property can be reformulated in a way that fosters duties towards nature Using the theory of earth jurisprudence as a guide he outlines an alternative ecocentric description of private property as a relationship between and among members of the Earth community This book will appeal to those researching in law justice and ecology as well as anyone pursuing an interest more particularly in earth jurisprudence
