Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections

ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend

Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations

Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom

while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions

Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism

The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership

Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sender Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf

VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra The Ace and Aro Relationship Guide Cody Daigle-Orians,2024-10-21 Should I be upfront with someone I m interested in that I m ace or aro How do I get people to respect my boundaries around intimacy What if I don t want intimacy at all It is selfish to pursue a relationship if I don t want romance These questions are not only a source of deep anxiety and frustration for ace and aro people but limit the heights that ace and aro folks believe they can reach for in their lives These questions make us believe that we should settle for less when in fact we all deserve more Whether we re talking about friendships romantic relationships casual dates or casual intimate partners this guide will help you not only live authentically in your ace and aro identity but joyfully share it with others The American Friend ,1926 The Christian Work and the Evangelist ,1909

Queen Bee Moms & Kingpin Dads Rosalind Wiseman, Elizabeth Rapoport, 2007-01-30 What happens to Queen Bees and Wannabes when they grow up Even the most well adjusted moms and dads can experience peer pressure and conflicts with other adults that make them act like they're back in seventh grade In Queen Bee Moms Kingpin Dads Rosalind Wiseman gives us the tools to handle difficult situations involving teachers and other parents with grace Reassuring funny and unfailingly honest Wiseman reveals Why PTA meetings and Back to School nights tap into parents' deepest insecurities How to recognize the archetypal moms and dads from Caveman Dad to Hovercraft Mom How and when to step in and step out of your child's conflicts with other children parents teachers or coaches How to interpret the code phrases other parents use to avoid or provoke confrontation Why too many well meaning dads sit on the sidelines and how vital it is that they step up to the plate What to do and say when the playing field becomes an arena for people to bully and dominate other kids and adults How to have respectful yet honest conversations with other parents about sex and drugs when your values are in conflict How the way you handle parties risky behavior and academic performance affects your child How unspoken assumptions about race religion and other hot button subjects sabotage parents' ability to work together Queen Bee Moms Kingpin Dads is filled with the kind of true stories that made Wiseman's New York Times bestselling book Queen Bees Wannabes impossible to put down. There are tales of hardworking parents with whom any of us can identify along with tales of outrageously bad parents the kind we all have to reckon with. For instance, what do you do when parents donate a large sum of money to a school and their child is promptly transferred into the honors program while your son with better grades doesn't make the cut? What about the mother who helps her daughter compose poison pen e-mails to yours? And what do you say to the parent coach who screams at your child when the team is losing? Wiseman offers practical advice on avoiding the most common parenting land mines and useful scripts to help you navigate difficult but necessary conversations. Queen Bee Moms Kingpin Dads is essential reading for parents today. It offers us the tools to become wiser, more relaxed parents and the inspiration to speak out, act according to our values, show humility and set the kind of example that will make a real difference in our children's lives. Also available as a Random House AudioBook and as an eBook.

The Psychology of Friendship Mahzad Hojjat, Anne Moyer, 2016-10-24 In the late 20th and 21st centuries the meteoric rise of countless social media platforms and mobile applications have illuminated the profound need friendship and connection have in all of our lives and yet very few scholarly volumes have focused on this unique and important bond during this new era of relating to one another. Exploring such topics as friendship and social media, friendship with current and past romantic partners, co-workers, mentors and even pets, editors Mahzad Hojjat and Anne Moyer lead an expert group of global contributors as they each explore how friendship factors within our lives today. What does it mean to be a friend? What roles do friendships play in our own development? How do we befriend those across the race, ethnicity, gender and orientation spectrums? What happens when a friendship turns sour? What is the effect of friendship, good and bad, on our mental health? Providing a much needed update to the field of interpersonal relations, The Psychology of Friendship serves as a field guide for readers as they shed traditional definitions of friendship in favor of contemporary contexts and connections.

The Psychology of Interpersonal Relationships Ellen S. Berscheid, Pamela C. Regan, 2016-01-08 This textbook provides an integrated and organized foundation for students seeking a brief but comprehensive introduction to the field of relationship science. It emphasizes the relationship field's intellectual themes, roots and milestones, discusses its key constructs and their conceptualizations, describes its methodologies and classic studies and most important, presents the theories that have guided relationship scholars and produced the field's major research themes.

The Theory and Practice of Virtue Education Tom Harrison, David Walker, 2018-01-03 The Theory and Practice of Virtue Education offers the reader a comprehensive and authoritative account of both the theoretical and practical complexities of cultivating virtue in education and beyond. The book moves beyond the usual philosophical literature that merely discusses virtue in the abstract and offers scholarly research informed suggestions for practice. Drawn from a highly successful international conference organized by the Jubilee Centre for Character and Virtues, the chapters in this volume offer a unique insight into the varieties of approaches that leading scholars have identified for putting the learning and nurturing of virtues into practice Featured are chapters from internationally acclaimed scholars primarily in the fields of philosophy psychology and education which are categorised under three headings philosophical and theoretical foundations for cultivating virtues developing virtues in practice and nurturing specific virtues Beginning with chapters that examine differing theoretical complexities of virtue education the book then moves on to explore different approaches to nurturing virtue in the classroom and beyond This practical approach is further evidenced in the final section where individual virtues are discussed The Theory and Practice of Virtue Education highlights the theoretical complexity of putting virtue education into practice and as a result is of real use to researchers academics and postgraduates in the fields of education philosophy psychology sociology and theology It should also be essential reading for educators in character and virtue Prayer

Begins with Relationship Cynthia Bezek, 2014-02-27 Connection and communication are vital in relationships but what about in your relationship with God Is it more of a duty than a delight In this 6 session Bible study the first in a series from Pray Resources you ll discover greater joy and intimacy in your most important relationship
