Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Government Operations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Government Operations,1978 Poverty and Deviance in Early Modern Europe Robert Jütte,1994-03-31 This study provides an accessible and authoritative account of poverty and deviance during the early modern period informed by those perspectives on the role of the poor themselves in the provision of welfare services characteristic of much recent social history Robert Jtte shows how the notions of poverty and social deviance that preoccupied much contemporary thought saw their ultimate fruition in the systematic programmes for social welfare that emerged during the nineteenth century Contrary to the once traditional historical emphasis on the ameliorative role of individual reformers Professor Jtte s account looks much more closely at the poor themselves and the complex network of social and communal relationships they inhabited He examines the lives not only of poor relief recipients but of the vast number of destitute individuals who had to find other means to stay alive and how these people shaped their own patterns of survival within given communities Economics of Faith Esther Chung-Kim,2021-04-02 Economics of Faith addresses the multiple ways that leaders of the European Reformation sought to inspire new attitudes toward poverty and wealth to reform the institutions of poor relief and to create new organizations for aiding religious refugees Guided by biblical ideals and values religious reformers became some of the major contributors in the effort to address poverty one of the most vexing social problem in early modern Europe By examining the connections between religion politics and community it highlights the crucial role that religion had in the promotion of social responsibility and the development of social welfare systems

Lutheran Reformation and the Law ,2022-01-04 The volume provides new evidence of how the legal ideas of the Lutheran Reformation were put into practice especially in the Nordic countries and how they worked in the history of law Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden forming the largest Lutheran area in the world this lacuna is considerable The first part of the book deals with the legal theological and philosophical thought of the reformers The second part examines the impact of the Reformation on particular aspects of legal reform especially marriage and criminal law and the law on poor relief in the Northern Europe The study is based on interdisciplinary research by theologians and legal historians Contributors include Kaarlo Arffman Pekka K rkk inen Mia Korpiola Virpi M kinen Heikki Pihlajam ki Antti Raunio Risto Saarinen and Reijo Ty rinoja

Sacred Charity Maureen Flynn,1989-06-18 A study of medieval confraternities and their almsgiving activities which Flynn believes created the first comprehensive welfare system in Western Europe She also incorporates a study of late medieval society and its religious ideology and looks at the motivation of the confraternities

Reports Communicated to the Local Government Board Andrew Doyle,2024-01-30 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament,New Zealand. Parliament. House of Representatives,1899

The Housing Crisis Peter Malpass,2021-03-23 Originally published in 1986 at a time when Britain was facing a major housing crisis this book containing much original research examines the crisis and analyses the reasons for it providing foundations for the construction of effective new policies As relevant now as when it was first published the book discusses under investment in housing stock in both the public and private sectors renovation and maintenance and neglect of particular disadvantaged groups such as the elderly the single homeless and those in low income groups

With Us Always Donald T. Critchlow,Charles H. Parker,1998-04-02 Although welfare reform is currently the government s top priority most discussions about the public s responsibility to the poor neglect an informed historical perspective This important book provides a crucial examination of past attempts both in this country and abroad to balance the efforts of private charity and public welfare The prominent historians in this collection demonstrate how solutions to poverty are functions of culture religion and politics and how social provisions for the poor have evolved across the centuries

Poor People's Movements Frances Fox Piven,Richard Cloward,1978-12-12 Have the poor fared best by participating in conventional electoral politics or by engaging in mass defiance and disruption The authors of the classic Regulating The Poor assess the successes and failures of these two strategies as they examine in this provocative study four protest movements of lower class groups in 20th century America The mobilization of the unemployed during the Great Depression that gave rise to the Workers Alliance of America The industrial strikes that resulted in the formation of the CIO The Southern Civil Rights Movement The movement of welfare recipients led by the National Welfare Rights Organization

Quakerism, Its Legacy, and Its Relevance for Gandhian Research Satish Sharma,2017-11-06 This elaborate book explores Quakerism its legacy and its relevance for Gandhian research The topics covered here include the historical circumstances conditions and thought that led to the birth of Quakerism the seeds and history of the movement the themes principles and practices of the sect and the aid change reform and conciliation efforts Quakers made to make people communities and nations more tolerant problem free and united As such the book will appeal to scholars planners policy makers and practitioners concerned with the boundaries of liberties freedoms pacifism peace and justice across people communities and nations Who's Afraid of Frances Fox Piven? Frances Fox Piven, 2011-08-09 The sociologist and political scientist Frances Fox Piven and her late husband Richard Cloward have been famously credited by Glenn Beck with devising the Cloward Piven Strategy a world view responsible according to Beck for everything from creating a culture of poverty and fomenting violent revolution to causing global warming and the recent financial crisis Called an enemy of the people over the past year Piven has been subjected to an unprecedented campaign of hatred and disinformation spearheaded by Beck How is it that a distinguished university professor past president of the American Sociological Association and recipient of numerous awards and accolades for her work on behalf of the poor and for American voting rights has attracted so much negative attention For anyone who is skeptical of the World According to Beck here is a guide to the ideas that Glenn fears most Who's Afraid of Frances Fox Piven is a concise accessible introduction to Piven's actual thinking versus Beck's outrageous claims from her early work on welfare rights and poor people's movements written with her late husband Richard Cloward through her influential examination of American voting habits and her most recent work on the possibilities for a new movement for progressive reform A major corrective to right wing bombast this essential book is also a rich source of ideas and inspiration for anyone interested in progressive change

Patriots and Paupers Mary Lindemann, 1990 This book offers not only an interesting and thought provoking look at Germany's past but also provides insights relevant to the future of Germany and other countries as well Germanic Notes and Reviews Medicine, Government and Public Health in Philip II's Spain Michele L. Clouse, 2016-04-22 Bridging the gap between histories of medicine and political institutional histories of the early modern crown this book explores the relationship between one of the most highly bureaucratic regimes in early modern Europe Spain and crown interest in and regulation of medical practices Complementing recent histories that have emphasized the interdependent nature of governance between the crown and municipalities in sixteenth century Spain this study argues that medical policies were the result of negotiation and cooperation among the crown the towns and medical practitioners During the reign of Philip II 1556-1598 the crown provided unique opportunities for advancements in the medical field among practitioners and support for the creation and dissemination of innovative medical techniques In addition crown support for and regulation of medicine served as an important bureaucratic tool in the crown's effort to expand and solidify its authority over the distinct kingdoms and territories under Castilian authority and the municipalities within the kingdom of Castile itself The crown was not the only agent of change in the medical world however Medical policies and their successful implementation required consensus and cooperation among competing political authorities Bringing to life a cast of characters from early modern Spain from the female empiric who practiced bonesetting and surgery to the university trained Latin physician whose medical textbook standardized medical education in the universities the book will broaden the scope of medical history to include not only the development of medical theory and innovative practice but also address the complex tensions between various authorities which influenced the development and nature of medical practice and perceptions of public health in early modern Europe Juxtaposing the history of medicine with the history of early modern state building brings a unique perspective to this challenging book that reassesses the relationship between the monarch and intellectual milieu of medicine in Spain It further challenges the dominance of studies of medical regulation from France and England and illuminates a diverse and innovative world of Spanish medical practice that has been neglected in standard histories of early modern medicine Poverty and Welfare in Habsburg Spain Linda Martz,1983 Linda Martz explores the major developments in the theory and practice of poor relief in sixteenth and seventeenth century Spain Serving the Urban Community Manon van der Heijden,Elise van Nederveen Meerkerk,Griet Vermeesch,2009 This volume explores various aspects of developments in public facilities in the early modern Low Countries The Low Countries are an excellent case study for this purpose because of high levels of urbanization and the relevant comparison between the north and the south of the Netherlands BOOK JACKET
