Religion And Ethnicity Minorities And Social Change In The Metropolis:

Religion and Ethnicity R. Barot,1992-12-01      Ethnicity, Gender and Social Change Harriet Bradley,Steve Fenton,1999-02-08 Ethnicity Gender and Social Change explores the social space occupied by both gender and ethnicity As recognition of the sociological importance of gender and ethnicity has grown so has the opportunity for exploring the intersections between them This volume brings together both theoretical reflections and new research in this key area For the sociologist this presents a conceptual challenge while for the individual it may present a series of dilemmas These are intriguingly traced out in studies which take us from Punjabi families in the UK to Surinamese migrants in Amsterdam to Hindu and Muslim women and Black nurses in Britain the African and Asian diasporas and gender identity in post Soviet Latvia      Multiculturalism and Minority Religions in Britain Malory Nye,2012-12-06 A detailed case study of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON in Britain The book studies the particular development of a new religious movement within the context of Britain and issues relating to minority religions place within a multicultural but still hegemonically Christian society      Religion and Ethnicity Rohit Barot,1993 Peeters 1993      Religion in Higher Education Sophie Gilliat-Ray,2019-07-16 This title was first published in 2000 The place of religion in universities and institutes of higher education has become increasingly topical and contested in recent years largely due to the growth of religious diversity on campus Issues such as shared worship spaces equal opportunities and the management of inter religious conflict concern university administrators and students alike Based on primary empirical research this book indicates the need for clear guidelines on these issues and provides the data to inform policy making Offering the first study of the practical and sociological implications of the multi faith campus this book provides a context for examining some of the dynamics of religious diversity in Britain more generally as well as providing a useful analysis for the wider international context Key themes covered include religion in institutions inter faith relations the changing roles of religious professionals secularisation and resacralisation and religion youth and identity      International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink,George W. Noblit,2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education

A Companion to Cultural Geography James Duncan,Nuala C. Johnson,Richard H. Schein,2008-04-15 A Companion to Cultural Geography brings together original contributions from 35 distinguished international scholars to provide a critical overview of this dynamic and influential field of study Provides accessible overviews of key themes debates and controversies from a variety of historical and theoretical vantage points Charts significant changes in cultural geography in the twentieth century as well as the principal approaches that currently animate work in the field A valuable resource not just for geographers but also those working in allied fields who wish to get a clear understanding of the contribution geography is making to cross disciplinary debates

The Challenge of Religious Discrimination at the Dawn of the New Millennium Nazila Ghanea-Hercock,2013-11-11 The themes and issues explored in this book religion human rights politics and society could not be more relevant to the post 11 September 2001 world They lie at the heart of global political debate today The collection explores these issues after the passing of just over two decades from the adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of all Forms of Intolerance and Discrimination based on Religion or Belief That declaration set out minimum international standards for the elimination of such discrimination Sadly the challenge of intolerance on the basis of religion or belief continues to plague us and tackling it seems to have become increasingly entrenched The complexity of this phenomenon requires expertise from different quarters This collection draws from diplomatic activist and theological quarters and benefits from the analysis of scholars of law history religious studies and sociology The ten chapters of this collection examine the relationship between human rights law and religion offer a typology for the study of religious persecution problematise the consequences flowing from religious establishment in religiously plural society analyse the implications of the directions being taken by the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights and the protections offered by the European Commission council Directive 2000 43 EC outlawing workplace discrimination study the 1981 Declaration and its promotion through the work of the UN Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Religion or Belief and explore the intricacies of this freedom in detail from within the context of the United Kingdom and The Netherlands

Negotiating Boundaries in the City Joanna Herbert,2016-04-22 Using in depth life story interviews and oral history archives this book explores the impact of South Asian migration from the 1950s onwards on both the local white British born population and the migrants themselves Taking Leicester as a main case study identified as a European model of multicultural success Negotiating Boundaries in the City offers a historically grounded analysis of the human experiences of migration Joanna Herbert shows how migration created challenges for both existing residents and newcomers for both male and female migrants and explores how they perceived and negotiated boundaries within the local contexts of their everyday lives She explores the personal and collective narratives of individuals who might not otherwise appear in the historical records highlighting the importance of subjective everyday experiences The stories provide valuable insights into the nature of white ethnicity inter ethnic relations and the gendered nature of experiences and offer rich data lacking in existing theoretical accounts This book provides a radically different story about multicultural Britain and reveals the nuances of modern urban experiences which are lost in prevailing discourses of multiculturalism      The Transnational Family Deborah Bryceson,Ulla Vuorela,2020-12-16 Migrant networks in the form of families associational ties and social organizations stretch across the globe connecting cultures and bridging national boundaries The effects of this global networking are vast This book is the first to stand back and explore the impact Families living outside of their original national boundaries have had and continue to have a profound influence over the flow of people goods money and information More in depth perspectives reveal how immigrants face troubling issues of cultural identity economic change political uncertainty and social welfare From an examination of nineteenth century transnational families emigrating from Europe to the Ghanaian Pentecostal diaspora in Europe today this book combines broadly based analysis with more unusual case studies to reveal the complexities that immigrants and refugees must contend with in their daily lives What are the experiences of migrant Turkish women living in Germany In what ways has religion been hybridized amongst West African Muslim migrants in Paris What are the gender relations and transnational ties amongst Bosnian refugees Never has such a topic been more relevant Problems relating to immigrants and refugees situations in their adopted countries continue to grow This book wide ranging in its geographical and thematic scope is a highly important and timely addition to debates on transnational families immigrants and refugees      Research in Religious Education Leslie J. Francis,William K. Kay,William S. Campbell,1996      South Asian Christian Diaspora Selva J. Raj,Knut A. Jacobsen,2016-04-01 The South Asian Christian diaspora is largely invisible in the literature about religion and migration This is the first comprehensive study of South Asian Christians living in Europe and North America presenting the main features of these diasporas their community histories and their religious practices The South Asian Christian diaspora is pluralistic both in terms of religious adherence cultural tradition and geographical areas of origin This book gives justice to such pluralism and presents a multiplicity of cultures and traditions typical of the South Asian Christian diaspora Issues such as the institutionalization of the religious traditions in new countries identity the paradox of belonging both to a minority immigrant group and a majority religion the social functions of rituals attitudes to language generational transfer and marriage and family life are all discussed      Authority and Meaning in Indian Religions Julia Leslie,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 Can a text be used either to validate or to invalidate contemporary understandings Texts may be deemed sacred but sacred to whom Do conflicting understandings matter Is it appropriate to try to offer a resolution For Hindus and non Hindus in India and beyond Valmiki is the poet saint who composed the epic R m ya a Yet for a vocal community of dalits once called untouchables within and outside India Valmiki is God How then does one explain the popular story that he started out as an ignorant and violent bandit attacking and killing travellers for material gain And what happens when these two accounts Valmiki as God and Valmiki as villain are held simultaneously by two different religious groups both contemporary and both vocal This situation came to a head with controversial demonstrations by the Valmiki community in Britain in 2000 giving rise to some searching questions which Julia Leslie now seeks to address      Muslims in Britain

Peter Hopkins,2009-03-31 Following the events of 11th September 2001 in the USA and more especially the bombings on the London underground on 7th July 2005 and the incident at Glasgow Airport on 30th June 2007 an increasing amount of public attention has been focused upon Muslims in Britain Against the backdrop of this debate this book sets out a series of innovative insights into the everyday lives of Muslims living in contemporary Britain in an attempt to move beyond prevalent stereotypes concerning what it means to be Muslim Combining original empirical research with theoretical interventions this collection offers a range of reflections on how Muslims in Britain negotiate their everyday lives manage experiences of racism and exclusion and develop local networks and global connections The authors explore a broad range of themes including gender relations educational and economic issues migration and mobility religion and politics racism and Islamophobia and the construction and contestation of Muslim identities Threaded through the treatment of these themes is a unifying concern with the ways in which geography matters to how Muslims negotiate their daily experiences as well as their racialised gendered and religious identities Above all attention is focused upon the role of the home and local community the influence of the economy and the nation and the power of transnational connections and mobilities in the everyday lives of Muslims in Britain Includes contributions from Louise Archer Yahya Birt Sophie Bowlby Claire Dwyer Richard Gale Peter Hopkins Lily Kong Sally Lloyd Evans Sean McLoughlin Sharmina Mawani Tariq Modood Anjoom Mukadam Caroline Nagel Deborah Phillips Bindi Shah and Lynn Staeheli      European Muslims and the Secular State

Sean McLoughlin,Jocelyne Cesari,2016-12-05 The institutionalization of Islam in the West continues to raise many questions for a range of different constituencies Secularization represents much more than the legal separation of politics and religion in Europe for important segments of European societies it has become the cultural norm Therefore Muslims settlement and their claims for the public recognition of Islam have often been perceived as a threat This volume explores current interactions between Muslims and the more or less secularized public spaces of several European states assessing the challenges such interactions imply for both Muslims and the societies in which they now live Divided into three parts it examines the impact of State Church relations Islamophobia and the war on terrorism evaluates the engagement of Muslim leaders with the State and civil society and reflects on both individual and collective transformations of Muslim religiosity

Rethinking Religious Education and Plurality Robert Jackson,2004 This text offers a critical view of approaches to the treatment of different religions in contemporary education in order to devise approaches to teaching and learning and to formulate policies and procedures that are fair and just to all      Multiple Homemaking Ruben Gowricharn,2020-11-11 This book develops a theoretical perspective on homemaking as the ethnic condition of Indian diaspora communities It draws on empirical case studies to elucidate the multiple homemaking practices of two overseas Indian groups and their relations to their homeland namely the Surinami Hindustanis and the Dutch Hindustanis In doing so it provides a new perspective on homemaking that captures ethnogenesis integration and diasporic bonding at once As opposed to the extant discourse on homemaking which overlooks institutional and cultural requirements the author makes a point to scrutinise such concepts as douglarisation groupism citizenship institutions ethnification social networks and technology and transnational flows Unique and compelling the book will be highly useful in studies of diaspora globalisation and transnational migration multiculturalism cultural studies ethnic minority studies sociology politics and international relations and South Asian studies

Against Caste in British Law Prakash Shah, 2015-10-01 This book discusses the salience of the caste question in UK law It provides the background to how the caste provision came into the Equality Act 2010 and how it was reinforced in 2013 and analyses the various interests that played a role in getting caste into law Orthodox Christianity and Contemporary Europe

Jonathan Sutton, William Peter van den Bercken, 2003 This volume contains selected papers presented at a conference on Orthodox Christianity and its contemporary European setting The conference was held in England at the University of Leeds in June 2001 and drew together historians theologians philosophers specialists in theological education and political scientists Countries with an Orthodox Christian history were well represented as well as Orthodoxy in the diaspora and other Christian confessions by representatives from Western Europe and the United States and Canada The coherence of Orthodox Christianity and contemporary threats to its coherence formed one main strand for reflection but discussion also broadened out to consider the nature of religious tradition as such Part I of the collection brings together papers on such matters as identity nationalism globalization human rights discourse ecumenical dialogue and competing interpretations of what it means to be European Part II focuses on Orthodox Christianity in Russia and Part III on the traditionally Orthodox countries of Armenia Bulgaria Greece Romania Serbia and Ukraine The present collection is meant as a contribution to further reflection on Orthodox identity and relationship between Christianity and culture in Europe at the beginning of the twenty first century

South Asians in the Diaspora Knut A. Jacobsen, Pratap Kumar, 2018-08-14 This volume deals with a phenomenon of increasing global significance the South Asian diaspora In particular it deals with the role of religion The diversity of religious life in South Asia is remarkable and much of this diversity is replicated in the diaspora communities around the world The case studies in this book explore and analyse the social religious and cultural reality of people in the diaspora belonging to Jainism Buddhism Hinduism Christianity Islam Sikhism and Zoroastrianism and originating from four of the South Asian nation states India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The book highlights the religious diversity that exists in the diaspora communities both across the traditions and within the particular religions
