Religion And Peace In The Middle East Papers From A Conference Of The Council:

Religion and Peace in the Middle East Frank Kaufmann, Justin Watson, 1988      Religious Transnational Actors and Soft Power Jeffrey Haynes, 2016-03-23 Haynes looks at religious transnational actors in the context of international relations with a focus on both security and order With renewed scholarly interest in the involvement of religion in international relations many observers and scholars have found this move unexpected because it challenges conventional wisdom about the nature and long term historical impact of secularisation The return of religion to international relations necessarily involves deprivatisation Recent challenges to international security and order emanate from various entities notably extremists people often said to be excluded from the benefits of globalisation for reasons of culture history and geography This study looks at the dynamics of this new religious pluralism as it influences the global political landscape Several specific transnational religious actors are examined in the chapters including American Evangelical Protestants Roman Catholics the Organisation of the Islamic Conference Sunni extremist groups al Qaeda and Lashkar e Taiba and Shia transnational networks While varying widely in what they seek to achieve they also share an important characteristic each seeks to use religious soft power to advance their interests In sum these religious transnational actors all wish to see the spread and development of certain values and norms which impact on international security and order      The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences, 1989      The Muslim World in the 21st Century Samiul Hasan, 2012-01-14 Islam is not only a religion but also a culture tradition and civilization There are currently 1.5 billion people in the world who identify themselves as Muslim Two thirds of the worldwide Muslim population i.e. approximately a billion people live in forty eight Muslim majority countries MMC in the world all of which except one are in Africa and Asia Of these MMCs in Africa and Asia only twelve inhabited by about 165 million people have ever achieved a high score on the Human Development Index HDI the index that measures life expectancy at birth education and standard of living and ranks how developed a country is This means that the majority of the world's Muslim population lives in poverty with low or medium level of human development The contributions to this innovative volume attempt to determine why this is They explore the influence of environment space and power on human development The result is a complex interdisciplinary study of all MMCs in Africa and Asia It offers new insights into the current state of the Muslim World and provides a theoretical framework for studying human development from an interdisciplinary social cultural economic environmental political and religious perspective which will be applicable to regional and cultural studies of space and power in other regions of the world      Secular States and Religious Diversity Bruce J. Berman, Rajeev Bhargava, André Laliberté, 2013-10-25 Contemporary nation states have seen the rise of religious pluralism within their borders brought about by global migration and the challenge of radical religious movements Secular States and Religious Diversity explores the meaning of secularism and religious freedom in these new contexts The contributors chart the impact of globalization the varying forms of secularism in Western states and the different kinds of relations between states and religious institutions in the historical traditions and contemporary politics of Islamic Indic and Chinese societies They also examine the limitations and dilemmas of governmental responses to religious diversity and grapple with the question of how secular states deal and should deal with such pluralism This volume brings in perspectives from the non Western world and engages with viewpoints that might increase states capacities to accommodate religious diversity positively Gender, Religion and Change in the Middle East Inger Marie Okkenhaug, Ingvald

Flaskerud, 2005-03-01 The complicated link between women and religion in the Middle East has been a source of debate for centuries and has special resonance today Whether religion reinforces female oppression or provides opportunities for women or a combination of both depends on time place and circumstance This book seeks to contextualize women's roles within their religious traditions rather than through the lens of a dominant culture Gender Religion and Change in the Middle East crosses boundaries and borders and will appeal to a global audience This book provides a comprehensive survey of women in Muslim Jewish and Christian communities in the Middle East during the last two centuries The authors consider women's defined roles within these religious communities as well as exploring how women themselves develop and apply their own strategies within religious societies The wide ranging accounts draw on case studies from Iran Turkey Afghanistan Israel Jordan Egypt Palestine and Lebanon since 1800 Throughout the authors challenge our understanding of patriarchy to offer a more nuanced account Taking a balanced look at the issues of religion gender and change in the Middle East this unique interdisciplinary study gives new insight to the theme of women and religion in the Middle East Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John Baxter-Brown, 2022-04-13 Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition's mission and evangelism is another's proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge Middle East, the Strategic Hub, and North Africa Army Library (U.S.), 1973 Holy Places of Jerusalem in Middle East Peace Agreements Enrico Molinaro, 2009-12-01 Throughout history Jerusalem and its Holy Places have witnessed fierce religious controversy and political dispute This study analyses an international and diplomatic perspective which highlights the state national territorial versus global transnational approach to Jerusalem with respect to possession and the right to worship

Sacred Space in Israel and Palestine Marshall J. Breger, Yitzhak Reiter, Leonard Hammer, 2013-06-19 Religion and religious nationalism have long played a central role in many ethnic and national conflicts and the importance of religion to national identity means that territorial disputes can often focus on the contestation of holy places and sacred territory. Looking at the case of Israel and Palestine, this book highlights the nexus between religion and politics through the process of classifying holy places, giving them meaning and interpreting their standing in religious and civil law within governmental policy and within international and local communities. Written by a team of renowned scholars from within and outside the region, this book follows on from Holy Places in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict and Coexistence to provide an insightful look into the politics of religion and space. Examining Jerusalem's holy basin from a variety of perspectives and disciplines, it provides unique insights into the way Jewish, Christian, and Muslim authorities, scholars, and jurists regard sacred space and the processes, grass roots and official, by which spaces become holy in the eyes of particular communities. Filling an important gap in the literature on Middle East peacemaking, the book will be of interest to scholars and students of the Middle East conflict, conflict resolution, political science, urban studies, and history of religion.

The Arab-Israeli Conflict Gregory S. Mahler, 2009-09-10 The Arab-Israeli conflict has been one of the most protracted and contentious disputes in the Middle East. These documents are presented in an edited form to highlight key elements and includes an introductory chapter which sets the context for the study of the history of the area, covers a comprehensive historical period ranging from the 19th Century to the present day, incorporates a wide range of pedagogical aids, original documents, maps, and boxed sections. Jerusalem Unbound Michael Dumper,2014-06-17 Jerusalem s formal political borders reveal neither the dynamics of power in the city nor the underlying factors that make an agreement between Israel and the Palestinians so difficult The lines delineating Israeli authority are frequently different from those delineating segregated housing or areas of uneven service provision or parallel national electoral districts of competing educational jurisdictions In particular the city s large number of holy sites and restricted religious compounds create enclaves that continually threaten to undermine the Israeli state s authority and control over the city This lack of congruity between political control and the actual spatial organization and everyday use of the city leaves many areas of occupied East Jerusalem in a kind of twilight zone where citizenship property rights and the enforcement of the rule of law are ambiguously applied Michael Dumper plots a history of Jerusalem that examines this intersecting and multileveled matrix and in so doing is able to portray the constraints on Israeli control over the city and the resilience of Palestinian enclaves after forty five years of Israeli occupation Adding to this complex mix is the role of numerous external influences religious political financial and cultural so that the city is also a crucible for broader contestation While the Palestinians may not return to their previous preeminence in the city neither will Israel be able to assert a total and irreversible dominance His conclusion is that the city will not only have to be shared but that the sharing will be based upon these many borders and the interplay between history geography and religion
