neglected field in the history of ideas In addition to excerpted translations and a narrative of Hegel's and Schelling's fate in France during the early nineteenth century this volume includes an introduction on transnational reception history as well as an analytical catalogue of the translations of their work produced in French at this time of the publications which appropriated or interrogated their philosophical legacy and of the journals institutional structures and other mechanisms of dissemination that brought Hegel's and Schelling's philosophy into France The book thus details the ways in which French philosophers of the period took up the debates and concepts of German Idealism transformed them or rejected them In this way it aims to contribute to a reversal of the serious neglect of early nineteenth century French thought in English language scholarship and in so doing goes beyond a nation based narrative of the history of philosophy Figures covered in the volumes include major philosophers such as Cousin Leroux Proudhon Quinet Ravaisson Renouvier and Vira as well as more neglected figures like Barchou de Penho n B nard L bre Lerminier Pictet and Willm
