Roman Housing:

Roman Housing Simon P. Ellis, 2002-12-27 An examination of housing throughout the Roman world from Britain to Egypt dating from the sixth century AD Domestic sculpture decoration gardens architecture lighting furniture the use of water and ways of living are all considered The Roman House in Britain Dominic Perring, 2002-06 Recent studies have tended to seek explanations for the peculiarities of Romano British architecture in local tradition but this book shows how Britain embraced and elaborated Hellenistic ideas and spatial forms Roman houses were built to sustain power and Roman architecture gained currency in Britain because of its relevance to new political structures erected in the wake of conquest

Housing the New Romans Katharine T. von Stackelberg, Elizabeth Macaulay-Lewis, 2017-06-01 In the last twenty years reception studies have significantly enhanced our understanding of the ways in which Classics has shaped modern Western culture but very little attention has been directed toward the reception of classical architecture Housing the New Romans Architectural Reception and Classical Style in the Modern World addresses this gap by investigating ways in which appropriation and allusion facilitated the reception of Classical Greece and Rome through the requisition and redeployment of classicizing tropes to create neo Antique sites of dwelling in the 19th and early 20th centuries The volume across nine essays will cover both European and American iterations of place making including Sir John Soanes house in London the Hotel de Beauharnais in Paris and the Getty Villa in California By focusing on structures and places that are oriented towards private life houses hotels clubs tombs and gardens the volume directs the critical gaze towards diverse and complex sites of curatorial self fashioning The goal of the volume is to provide a multiplicity of interpretative frameworks e.g. object agency enchantment hyperreality memory infrastructure that may be applied to the study of architectural reception This critical approach makes Housing the New Romans the first work of its kind in the emerging field of architectural and landscape reception studies and in the hitherto textually dominated field of classical reception Roman Domestic Art and Early

House Churches David L. Balch, 2008 Pompeii Herculaneum and Rome have yielded hundreds of wall paintings from domestic buildings Greek myths and tragedies especially by Euripides were visually represented Balch presents an interdisciplinary study inquiring what earliest Jews and Christians in such houses might have been seeing as they read and interpreted scripture and performed core rituals especially the Eucharist This recent study of Roman domestic architecture suggests new perspectives on the social history of early Christianity Publisher Housing in Late Antiquity - Volume 3.2 Luke Lavan, Lale Özgenel, Alexander Sarantis, 2007-10-01 This book examines a number of themes relating to housing in Late Antiquity Two extensive bibliographic essays provide an overview of published literature relating to housing in this period A selection of thematic essays focus on episcopalia lighting privacy vs public access and building regulations These are complemented by regional syntheses covering Spain and Africa and case studies of recently investigated urban houses from across the Mediterranean from Gaul to Jordan Whilst being firmly based in Late Antiquity the volume also looks forward to

Middle Byzantine and Early Islamic housing with papers on rock cut houses in Cappadocia and a wealthy domus from Pella in Jordan destroyed by earthquake with its inhabitants inside in A D 749 To be a Roman Margaret A. Brucia, Gregory Neil Daugherty, Each chapter in this workbook designed for middle and high school aged students focuses on a particular topic Several pages explain the topic in a lively and readable fashion and are then followed by objective exercises and suggestions for student projects and classroom discussions Housing in the Ancient Mediterranean World J. A. Baird, April Pudsey, 2022-07-21 Explores the possible dialogues between textual and archaeological sources in studying housing in the ancient Mediterranean world Roman Architecture and Urbanism Fikret K. Yegül, Diane G. Favro, 2019 With 835 illustrations including numerous new plans and drawings as well as digital renderings Roman House Churches for Today Reta Halteman Finger, 2007-09-14 Placing the biblical book of Romans in its historical and cultural context Reta Halteman Finger here creates a simulation of the Roman house churches that first heard Paul's Romans letter and its call for inclusiveness among the people of God Finger guides readers in small groups to re create house churches as in first century Rome Based on the text of Romans participants play various roles and converse even debate with other characters from different ethnic and religious backgrounds This experiential approach makes Romans come alive in new concrete ways and applies Romans theology to current issues that often still divide groups of Christians Roman House Churches for Today includes aids and suggestions for simulation leaders sample character sketches and website links with resources for further deeper study Not only small groups but also individuals will profit from this unique Bible study Ephesian Women in Greco-Roman and Early Christian Perspective Elif Hilal Karaman, 2018-10-16 In this volume Elif Hilal Karaman examines the lives of Ephesian women in their historical and social contexts considering in particular their roles as mothers wives teachers and individuals in the private and public spheres She presents Greco Roman and early Christian sources relevant to Ephesus and relating to women including more than 300 Ephesian inscriptions and analyses them comparatively By doing this she illuminates the impact of early Christianity upon the roles of women The evidence presented demonstrates the extent to which early Christian authors utilized Greco Roman cultural elements to construct a social background for the nascent Christian communities for whom they wrote Elif Hilal Karaman's work thus advocates for the interpretation of early Christian texts in conversation with local archaeological and literary evidence in order to develop more nuanced understandings of the social and historical contexts of these important works Space, Movement, and Visibility in Pompeian Houses Michael Anderson, 2022-12-31 This volume examines the pivotal role of movement visibility and experience within Pompeian houses as a major factor determining house form the use of space and the manner meaning and modalities of domestic daily life through the application of GIS based analysis Through close consideration of ancient literature detailed explanations of methodology and exploration of results Michael Anderson provides new perspectives on Pompeian domestic space including room types and household activities that rarely feature in the discussion of ancient housing Readers gain a better understanding of priorities in the design of Pompeian houses the degree to which daily life was interrupted by earthquake damage in the site's final years and evolving motivations behind wall painting decoration The volume not only explores how Pompeian houses reflected the needs of everyday life as imagined by their architects but also how these spaces served to influence and control daily activities and ultimately how they were transformed by the spatial and visual requirements of domestic life Space Movement and Visibility in Pompeian Houses is suitable for students and scholars of Pompeian houses and domestic life Roman architecture and urbanism and spatial analysis and space syntax The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses Jennifer A. Baird, 2014 Dura Europos on the Syrian Euphrates is one of the best preserved and most extensively excavated sites of the Roman world A Hellenistic foundation later held by the Parthians and then the Romans Dura had a Roman military garrison installed within its city walls before it was taken by the Sasanians in the mid third century The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses is the first study to consider the houses of the site as a whole The houses were excavated by a team from Yale and the French Academy of Inscriptions and Letters in the 1920s and 30s and though a wealth of archaeological and textual material was recovered most of that relating to housing was never published Through a combination of archival information held at the Yale University Art Gallery and new fieldwork with the Mission Franco Syrienne d'Europos Doura this study re-evaluates the houses of the site integrating architecture artefacts and textual evidence and examining ancient daily life and cultural interaction as well as considering houses which were modified for use by the Roman military The National Housing Manual Henry R. Aldridge, 1923 Christianity in the Greco-Roman World Moyer V. Hubbard, 2010-01-01 Background becomes foreground in Moyer Hubbard's creative introduction to the social and historical setting for the letters of the Apostle Paul to churches in Asia Minor and Europe Hubbard begins each major section with a brief narrative featuring a fictional character in one of the great cities of that era Then he elaborates on various aspects of the cultural setting related to each particular vignette discussing the implications of those venues for understanding Paul's letters and applying their message to our lives today Addressing a wide array of cultural and traditional issues Hubbard discusses religion and superstition education philosophy and oratory urban society households and family life in the Greco-Roman world This work is based on the premise that the better one understands the historical and social context in which the New Testament and Paul's letters was written the better one will understand the writings of the New Testament themselves Passages become clearer metaphors deciphered and images sharpened Teachers students and laypeople alike will appreciate Hubbard's unique illuminating and well researched approach to the world of the early church Living Theatre in the Ancient Roman House Richard C. Beacham, Hugh Denard, 2023-01-12 For the Romans much of life was seen expressed and experienced as a form of theatre In their homes patrons performed the lead with a supporting cast of residents and visitors This sumptuously illustrated book the result of extensive interdisciplinary research is the first to investigate describe and show how ancient Roman houses and villas in their interior spaces activities and function could constitute highly theatricalised environments indeed a sort of living theatre Their layout purpose and use reflected and informed a culture in which theatre was both a major medium of entertainment and communication and an art form drawing upon myths exploring the core values and beliefs of society For elite Romans their homes as veritable stage sets served as visible and tangible expressions of their owners prestige importance and achievements The Roman home was a carefully crafted realm in which patrons displayed themselves while stage managing the behaviour and responses of visitor spectators Housing Betterment

,1924 Housing Betterment #Apr. 1921#-1927,1924 The Romans Kevin M McGeough,2009-03-17 The Romans provides an accessible introduction to the history society and scholarship of one of the most captivating and enduring civilizations in human history From the establishment of the monarchy and the Republican era to the decline of the Empire this comprehensive volume examines every aspect of Roman culture from both historical and archaeological perspectives In addition to surveying the well established subjects of Roman history author Kevin McGeough discusses the latest events in the archaeological investigation of Rome such as the recent excavations at the Temple of Castor and Pollux in the Roman Forum and the controversial identification of an ossuary thought by some to hold the body of James the brother of Jesus The text is accompanied by carefully chosen illustrations maps a glossary and chronology Throughout general readers and students will gain a vivid understanding of Roman civilization and of why it still captures our imagination today Classical Archaeology Susan E.
