S. Lindsey, 1904 Bede's Temple Conor O'Brien, 2015-10-08 This volume examines the use of the image of the Jewish temple in the writings of the Anglo Saxon theologian and historian Bede d 735 The various Jewish holy sites described in the Bible possessed multiple different meanings for Bede and therefore this imagery provides an excellent window into his thought Bede's Temple An Image and its Interpretation examines Bede's use of the temple to reveal his ideas of history the universe Christ the Church and the individual Christian Across his wide body of writings Bede presented an image of unity whether that be the unity of Jew and gentile in the universal Church or the unity of human and divine in the incarnate Christ and the temple image provided a means of understanding and celebrating that unity Conor O'Brien argues that Bede's understanding of the temple was part of the shared spirituality and communal discourse of his monastery at Wearmouth Jarrow in particular as revealed in the great illuminated Bible made there the Codex Amiatinus Studying the temple in Bede's works reveals not just an individual genius but a monastic community engaged actively in scriptural interpretation and religious reflection O'Brien makes an important contribution to our understanding of early Anglo Saxon England's most important author the world in which he lived and the processes that inspired his work ARBA Guide to Biographical Resources, 1986-1997 Robert L. and linguistic traces of island identities discovering distinct traditions and resistance to mainland control Trespassing into the past to understand the present The Britannias uncovers an enduring and subversive mythology of islands ruled by women Albinia finds female independence woven through Roman colonial reports and Welsh medieval poetry Restoration utopias and island folk songs These neglected epics offer fierce feminist countercurrents to mainstream narratives of British identity and shed new light on women's status in the body politic today Vivid perceptive and disruptive The Britannias boldly upturns established truths about Britain while revealing its suppressed and forgotten beauty Caesars: Dominance And Power A.J.Kingston,2023 Step back in time to the world of ancient Rome with Caesars Dominance and Power a four in one book bundle that explores the fascinating lives and reigns of four of the most intriguing emperors in history Claudius Nero Galba and Otho Each of the four books in this bundle delves deep into the personality and rule of a different emperor offering a comprehensive and engaging exploration of their lives and legacies In Claudius The Unlikely Emperor you'll discover how a man once deemed an imbecile rose to become one of Rome's most just and successful emperors while Nero The Legacy of a Damned Emperor takes a closer look at the mad tyrant who played the lyre while Rome burned Galba The Short Lived Emperor explores the rise and fall of a man who struggled to hold onto power and ultimately met a violent end and Otho The Forgotten Emperor sheds light on the brief but significant reign of a man who briefly seized power after Galba's assassination Together these four books offer a captivating and comprehensive exploration of ancient Rome and the individuals who shaped its history Whether you're a history buff or simply fascinated by the world of ancient empires Caesars Dominance and Power is a must read So why wait Order your copy today and embark on a journey through one of the most intriguing and tumultuous eras in history Resources in Education ,1976 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1882 Writing the Materialities of the Past Sam Griffiths,2021-06-14 Writing the Materialities of the Past offers a close analysis of how the materiality of the built environment has been repressed in historical thinking since the 1950s Author Sam Griffiths argues that the social theory of cities in this period was characterised by the dominance of socio economic and linguistic cultural models which served to impede our understanding of time space relationality towards historical events and their narration The book engages with studies of historical writing to discuss materiality in the built environment as a form of literary practice to express marginalised dimensions of social experience in a range of historical contexts It then moves on to reflect on England's nineteenth century industrialization from an architectural topographical perspective challenging theories of space and architecture to examine the complex role of industrial cities in mediating social changes in the practice of everyday life By demonstrating how the authenticity of historical accounts rests on materially emplaced narratives Griffiths makes the case for the emancipatory possibilities of historical writing He calls for a re evaluation of historical epistemology as a primarily socio scientific or literary enquiry and instead proposes a specifically architectural time space figuration of historical events to rethink and refresh the relationship of the urban past to its present and future Written for postgraduate students researchers and academics in architectural theory and urban studies Griffiths draws on the space syntax tradition of research to explore how contingencies of movement and encounter construct the historical imagination
