McLean, 2008-02-19 From mid twentieth century films such as Grand Hotel Waterloo Bridge and The Red Shoes to recent box office hits including Billy Elliot Save the Last Dance and The Company ballet has found its way time and again onto the silver screen and into the hearts of many otherwise unlikely audiences In Dying Swans and Madmen Adrienne L McLean explores the curious pairing of classical and contemporary art and entertainment high culture and popular culture to reveal the ambivalent place that this art form occupies in American life Drawing on examples that range from musicals to tragic melodramas she shows how commercial films have produced an image of ballet and its artists that is associated both with joy fulfillment fame and power and with sexual and mental perversity melancholy and death Although ballet is still received by many with a lack of interest or outright suspicion McLean argues that these attitudes as well as ballet's popularity and its acceptability as a way of life and a profession have often depended on what audiences first learned about it from the movies Romantic Desire in (Post)modern Art and Philosophy Jos De Mul, 1999-07-16 In this erudite and wide ranging discussion of postmodernism and romanticism in twentieth century art and philosophy Jos de Mul sheds a fascinating light on the ambivalent character of our present culture which oscillates between modern enthusiasm and postmodern irony Along the way he engages the work of such thinkers as Nietzsche Freud Heidegger Habermas Lacan Barthes and Derrida visual artists Magritte and Stella poets Georg and Coleridge and composers Schonberg Cage and Reich among others providing a sort of intellectual history of Romantic Modernist and Postmodernist tempers A Reader's Guide to the Narrative and Lyric Poetry of Thomas Lovell

Beddoes Rodney Edgecombe, 2015-10-05 Beddoes poses a peculiar problem for critics and scholars who wish to redress the marginal position that he occupies in the Romantic canon a problem seemingly unique to him and created in part by his misconception of his own strengths as a writer An extremely good poet who had things turned out differently might have functioned as a missing link between Keats and Tennyson he fatally divided his attention between verse and medicine a discipline that by his own admission made in the poem composed for Zo King served to wither his creative gift This fission of energy was bad enough but more damaging still was his misconception of metier for whatever mental resources remained to Beddoes after gruelling days in the classroom he invested in writing an unstageable drama instead of in his primary gift for lyric verse Whereas the Beddoes revival that has been gathering momentum in recent years has centred on Death's Jest Book the play onto which the poet directed some might say misdirected so much of his creative energy this study focuses wholly on his lyric and narrative verse much of which has received short critical shrift It follows the sequence of poems set out in the Donner edition and focuses on their verbal richness and inventiveness as they unspool upon the page

The New Mexico Quarterly Review, 1949 New Mexico Quarterly, 1949 Pop Modernism Juan A. Suárez, 2022-08-15 Pop Modernism examines the popular roots of modernism in the United States Drawing on a wide range of materials including experimental movies pop songs photographs and well known poems and paintings Juan A. Suárez reveals that experimental art in the early twentieth century was centrally concerned with the reinvention of everyday life Suárez demonstrates how modernist writers and artists reworked pop images and sounds old fashioned and factory made objects city spaces and the languages and styles of queer and ethnic others Along the way he reinterprets many of modernism's major figures and argues for the centrality of relatively marginal ones such as Vachel Lindsay Charles Henri Ford Helen

Levitt and James Agee As Su rez shows what s at stake is not just an antiquarian impulse to rescue forgotten past moments and works but a desire to establish an archaeology of our present art culture and activism
