The Rooster who Understood Japanese Yoshiko Uchida, Charles Robinson, 1976 Miyo a young Japanese American helps her neighbor find a home in the country for her pet Japan and American Children's Books Sybille Jagusch, 2021-06-18 Drawing from the Library of Congress's massive collection this volume takes readers on a fascinating and informative journey through nearly 200 years of American children's books and periodicals depicting life in Japan from fanciful travelogues full of exotic stereotypes to serious works about wartime atrocities Published by Rutgers University Press in association with the Library of Congress Asian American Literature Keith Lawrence, 2021-08-25 Asian American Literature An Encyclopedia for Students is an invaluable resource for students curious to know more about Asian North American writers texts and the issues and drives that motivate their writing This volume collects in one place a breadth of information about Asian American literary and cultural history as well as the authors and texts that best define it A dozen contextual essays introduce fundamental elements or subcategories of Asian American literature expanding on social and literary concerns or tensions that are familiar and relevant Essays include the origins and development of the term Asian American overviews of Asian American and Asian Canadian social and literary histories essays on Asian American identity gender issues and sexuality and discussions of Asian American rhetoric and children's literature More than 120 alphabetical entries round out the volume and cover important Asian North American authors Historical information is presented in clear and engaging ways and author entries emphasize biographical or textual details that are significant to contemporary young adults Special attention has been given to pioneering authors from the late 19th century through the early 1970s and to influential or well known contemporary authors especially those likely to be studied in high school or university classrooms

Bookpeople Sharron L. McElmeel, 1992-06-15 Fifteen units focus on authors who speak about their ethnic heritage through their books and those who write or illustrate multicultural materials Each unit includes a full size photograph and a brief biography containing bits of background information that will fascinate students Activities that reinforce the multicultural theme and bibliographies of related books and films are also featured Ideal for the media center and the integrated curriculum Grades 1-6 Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer, 1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children's literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself Asian American Autobiographers Guiyou Huang, 2001-05-30 Asian Americans have made many significant contributions to industry science politics and the arts At the same time they have made great sacrifices and endured enormous hardships This reference examines autobiographies and memoirs written by Asian Americans in the twentieth century Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 60 major autobiographers of Asian descent Some of these such as Meena Alexander and Maxine Hong Kingston are known primarily for their writings others such as Daniel K Inouye are known largely for other achievements which they have chronicled in their autobiographies Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a reliable account of the autobiographer's life reviews major autobiographical works and themes including fictionalized autobiographies and autobiographical novels presents a meticulously researched account of the critical reception of these works and closes with a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay considers the history and development of autobiography in American literature and culture and discusses issues and themes vital to Asian American autobiographies and memoirs such as family diaspora nationhood identity cultural assimilation racial dynamics and the formation of the Asian American literary canon The volume closes with a selected bibliography Macmillan/McGraw-Hill Reading/language Arts: Sing it to the sea (Gr. 3, lvl. 9), 1993

Connecting Cultures Rebecca L. Thomas, 1996-01-30 A comprehensive guide to multicultural literature for children this valuable resource features more than 1 600 titles including fiction folktales poetry and song books that focus on diverse cultural groups The selected titles published between the 1970s and 1990s are suitable for use with preschoolers through sixth graders and are likely to be found on the shelves of school and public libraries Topics are timely with an emphasis on books that reflect the needs and interests of today's children Each detailed entry includes bibliographic information Use level is also included as are cultural designation subjects and a summary The invaluable Subject Access section incorporates use level culture information The Best in Children's Books Zena Sutherland, 1980-05 Includes indexes Integrated Language Arts Handbook for Reading/language Arts Teachers, 1995 The Typhoon of War Lin Poyer, Suzanne Falgout, Laurence Marshall Carucci, 2000-11-01 World War II was a watershed event for the people of the former Japanese colonies of Micronesia The Japanese military build up the conflict itself and the American occupation and control of the conquered islands brought rapid and dramatic changes to Micronesian life Whether they spent the war in caves and bomb shelters in sweet potato fields under armed Japanese guard or in their own homes Micronesians who survived those years recognize that their peoples underwent a major historical transformation Like a typhoon the war swept away a former life The Typhoon of War combines archival research and oral history culled from more than three hundred Micronesian survivors to offer a comparative history of the war in Micronesia It is the first book to develop Islander perspectives on a topic still dominated by military histories that all but ignore the effects of wartime operations on indigenous populations The authors explore the significant cultural meanings of the war for Island peoples for the events of the war are the foundation on which Micronesians have constructed their modern view of themselves their societies and the wider world Their recollections of those tumultuous years contain a wealth of detail about wartime activities local conditions and social change making this an invaluable reference for anyone interested in twentieth century Micronesia Photographs maps and a detailed chronology will help readers situate Micronesian experiences within the broader context of the Pacific War

Relocating Authority Mira Shimabukuro,2016-01-15 Relocating Authority examines the ways Japanese Americans have continually used writing to respond to the circumstances of their community s mass imprisonment during World War II Using both Nikkei cultural frameworks and community specific history for methodological inspiration and guidance Mira Shimabukuro shows how writing was used privately and publicly to individually survive and collectively resist the conditions of incarceration Examining a wide range of diverse texts and literacy practices such as diary entries note taking manifestos and multiple drafts of single documents Relocating Authority draws upon community archives visual histories and Asian American history and theory to reveal the ways writing has served as a critical tool for incarcerated and their descendants Incarcerated not only used writing to redress the internment in the moment but also created pieces of text that enabled and inspired further redress long after the camps had closed Relocating Authority highlights literacy s enduring potential to participate in social change and assist an imprisoned people in relocating authority away from their captors and back to their community and themselves It will be of great interest to students and scholars of ethnic and Asian American rhetorics American studies and anyone interested in the relationship between literacy and social justice
