Root Hog Or Die Memories Of The Life And Times Of:

Root Hog Or Die J. Price Butler, 2004 In the very beginning the author draws you into the heart of the story It is as if a family member is hearing the family history for the very first time Not being too wordy the author showed a heartfelt sensitivity to the particular incidents the struggles the memories of sad times the happy times and the serious times and the times for applause because of many accomplishments The author has written a very special book one to be treasured by the children kin and generations yet to be born It is a book to be read with great interest and love The author honors his parents and ancestors He successfully met his self appointed challenge full ahead For the author to write this book meant meeting the demands to plan and research Then to sit down and write a splendid book When you read this book you feel as though you know all of those mentioned therein and develop a closeness to them

Root Hog or Die W.R. Benton, 2023-05-03 A Federal agent on the hunt When a frustrated Federal marshal can't capture two escaped murders he calls in his ace in the hole Nate Grisham He needs Nate's man hunting skills to find two men who escaped from a prison wagon on the way to their execution killing their guards in the process Now those same men are evading capture by posing as innocent mountain men a detail that sticks in Nate's craw Nate along with his company of tried and true friends Deacon Cotton and One Eyed Jack agree to track down the outlaws and bring them to justice Nate and crew follow the men across the Kansas territories and along the Santa Fe trail headed southwest After kidnapping a young woman the outlaws cross into what they think is the refuge of Nuevo Mexico but Nate has other plans After the outlaws and their cohorts capture Deacon Nate and his crew recruit help from a new ally a young Mexican boy named Pedro But can the Nate rescue his friend in time His vow to save his friend and get the upper hand on this band of murderous thugs might be the hardest and most dangerous adventure Nate has ever faced W R Benton gives us another great novel of fast paced Western action and harsh justice served cold in this new episode of the Nate Grisham Tales
