Roots In Africa Beyond Egypt:

Roots in Africa Beyond Egypt Gerald Massey, 2005-12-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age, it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia, and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. A Book of the Beginnings Gerald Massey, 1881 A Book of the Beginnings Gerald Massey, 2007-09-01 After enjoying years as a popular journalist and poet, intellectual and freethinker, Gerald Massey turned his vast studies in the field of Egyptology into A Book of the Beginnings, a bold statement that the origin of all civilization lies in ancient Egypt. His assertions, radical at the time, indeed almost a century before the discovery of three million-year-old human remains in Africa, resonate loudly today when molecular biology is making corresponding discoveries alongside the still raging creation versus evolution controversy. In Volume II, Massey intelligently argues an Egyptian origin for Biblical symbology, lexicography, and mythology. Here he not only asks if the oldest Jewish and Christian axioms were really born on the banks of the Nile, he offers a stalwart and profound Yes. British author GERALD MASSEY (1828-1907) published works of poetry, spiritualism, Shakespearean criticism, and theology, but his best-known works are in the realm of Egyptology, including The Natural Genesis and Ancient Egypt: The Light of the World. A Preface To, with Extracts From, a Book of the Beginnings Gerald Massey, 1881 "The" Academy, 1881 The natural genesis: or second part of A book of the beginnings Gerald Massey, 1883 Nature, 1881

Gerald Massey David Shaw, 2009-01-01 Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review, 1881 The Economic Roots of Conflict and Cooperation in Africa W. Ascher, N. Mirovitskaya, 2013-11-07 This book combines overviews of the nature and causes of inter-group violence in North Africa and sub-Saharan Africa with a collection of country case studies. Both the overview chapter and the case studies trace how economic policy initiatives and consequent changes in the roles and statuses of various groups shape conflict or cooperation. Nature Sir Norman Lockyer, 1881

Africa Beyond Inventions Zubairu Wai, 2024-06-18 Africa Beyond Inventions is a rich critical engagement with the work of V. Y. Mudimbe. For decades, Mudimbe advanced a distinctive and erudite critical project that contributes to various bodies of knowledge in fields such as philosophy, anthropology, theology, postcolonial studies, decolonial theory, literary criticism, cultural studies, prose fiction, and African studies more broadly. A decade after his retirement and in the expansive spirit of his work, this volume stages a productive engagement with Mudimbe's remarkable and capacious body of work and the conceptual, epistemic, methodological, and ethical challenges it poses for the modern disciplines, specifically in relation to Africa. It situates Mudimbe in his proper place as a complex and significant thinker whose extraordinary contributions to various bodies of knowledge deserve to be recognised and better apprehended for what it has taught and continues to teach about the discursivity of the modern disciplines and the possibility of decolonising their colonising imprints in a moment that has been characterised as a decolonial turn Through these engagements the volume honours the intellectual legacy of one of Africa's most brilliant minds and make his work accessible to a new generation of readers The Medium and Daybreak, 1881 "The" Athenaeum, 1881 Africa Beyond the Post-Colonial Alfred B. Zack-Williams, 2017-07-05 Drawing together contributions from academics based in Africa and its diaspora this work is unique in considering the situation and status of Africans globally It explores a broad range of contemporary issues from development and culture to linguistics within the socio-political framework of Africa in the 21st century Desert road archaeology in ancient Egypt and beyond Heiko Riemer, 2013-01-01 Elihu Root Collection of United States Documents, 1895 Decolonising the Future Academy in Africa and Beyond Michaela Pelican, Karim Zafer, Michael Bolig, 2025-02-27 What does it mean to decolonise academia in Africa Is this important project limited to the humanities Is it a project for the future Are there forerunners at African universities today The contributors to this volume show different trajectories for anthropology as a discipline and for decolonising academia across the continent and beyond They offer a variety of perspectives especially regarding collaboration between African and German scholars in the areas of research teaching and institutional development While some are hopeful and take inspiration from earlier experiences of disciplinary and methodological developments in academic decolonisation and international collaborations others remain critical and call for more radical attempts at decolonisation

Ancient Egypt in Africa David O'Connor, Andrew Reid, 2003-08-13 The discipline of Egyptology has been criticised for being too insular with little awareness of the development of archaeologies elsewhere It has remained theoretically underdeveloped For example the role of Ancient Egypt within Africa has rarely been considered jointly by Egyptologists and Africanists Egypt's own view of itself has been neglected views of it in the ancient past in more recent times and today have remained underexposed Encounters with Ancient Egypt is a series of eight books which addresses these issues The books interrelate inform and illuminate one another and will appeal to a wide market including academics students and the general public interested in Archaeology Egyptology Anthropology Architecture Design and History Geographically Egypt is clearly on the African continent yet Ancient Egypt is routinely regarded as a non-African cultural form The significance of Ancient Egypt for the rest of Africa is a hotly debated issue with complex ramifications This book considers how Ancient Egypt was dislocated from Africa drawing on a wide range of sources It examines key issues such as the evidence for actual contacts between Egypt and other early African cultures and how influential or not Egypt was on them Some scholars argue that to its north Egypt's influence on Mediterranean civilization was downplayed by western scholarship Further afield on the African continent perceptions of Ancient Egypt were coloured by biblical sources emphasizing the persecution of the Israelites An extensive selection of fresh insights are provided several focusing on cultural interactions between Egypt and Nubia from 1000 BCE to 500 CE developing a nuanced picture of these interactions and describing the limitations of an Egyptological approach to them Beyond the Arab Spring in North Africa Daniel Krížek, Jan Záhorík, 2017-01-25 This book deals with the waves of revolutions in North Africa labelled as the Arab Spring Each of the countries in the region was affected by the Arab Spring and has experienced specific processes and consequences Due to the complexity of the phenomenon any kind of comprehensive research and analyses need an interdisciplinary approach to deal with the Arab Spring from multiple perspectives This volume brings together a group of scholars from various disciplines covering different aspects of the revolutionary changes in the North African countries Beyond the Arab Spring in North Africa collects diverse studies with an emphasis on specificity Chapters deal with a wide range of topics that include both minor as well as major themes These include the formation of youth movement in Egypt long before the Arab Spring and their subsequent participation in the revolution analysis of Tunisian women s participation in Arab Spring events spatial disparities in Tunisia and their impact on the revolution with special focus on Sidi Bouzid as one of the socio economically weakest areas rights and social status of sexual minorities in Tunisia polemics over the role of New Media as both revolutionary and contra revolutionary tools broader discussion over the prospects for multilateral cooperation and regional integration in the studied area reflection of the Arab Spring in the Czech media impact of the work of Ali Abd al Raziq on the debates over political secularism in Islamic society as well as a general debate over democratization in North Africa or Arab states as such Beyond the Arab Spring in North Africa will find its readers in all relevant social sciences dealing in various contexts with the contemporary North Africa
